Section 6 This act shall apply only to peace officers of a state or any political subdivision thereof which by its laws has made similar provision for the arrest and custody of persons closely pursued within the territory thereof

Section 7 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 960, as follows:

An Act providing for the making of compacts by the Commonwealth with other states for mutual helpfulness in relation to persons on probation or parole and imposing certain powers and duties on the Governor and the Board of Pardons

Section 1 Be is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Governor of this Commonwealth is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of this Commonwealth with any other state of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows

"A COMPACT

"Entered into by and among the contracting states signatories hereto with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America granted by an act entitled 'An act granting the consent of Congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes'

"The contracting states solemnly agree

(1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole if

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there the receiving state consents to such person being sent there

Before granting such permission opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person

A resident of the receiving state within the meaning of this section is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted

(2) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standard that prevail for its own probationers and parolees

(3) That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of states party hereto as to such person The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state Provided however That if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense

(4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all state parties to this compact without interference

(5) That the governor of each state may designate an officer who acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states if and when appointed shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact

(6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratify When ratified it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state the form of ratification to be in accordance with the laws of the ratifying state

(7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each ratifying state until renounced by it The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which ratified it by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto"

Section 2 The Board of Pardons of the Department of Justice shall have the power and shall be under the duty to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to carry out the terms of a compact entered into by the Commonwealth pursuant to this act

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 986, as follows:

An Act to amend section one hundred fifty-five of the act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty (P. L. 382) entitled "An act to consolidate revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth" extending the provisions to memorial tablets and works of art erected within buildings or on grounds

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one hundred fifty-five of the act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty (P. L. 382) entitled "An act to consolidate revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1014 (House Bill No. 1358), entitled:

An Act abolishing the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and transferring actions books records documents and papers in the possesion of said court to other courts of the County of Philadelphia

And said bill having been read at length the second time.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I withdraw my request.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the matter before the Senate is whether the bill shall be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I beg to suggest that when the President asked whether the Senate would agree to the bill on second reading, I then asked for a roll call.

The PRESIDENT. The record will show that. I think the Senator from Tioga is correct. The rule was dispensed with and I do not think a roll call is necessary.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am waiting for a ruling on my point or order, and my point of order is that having dispensed with the rule, the roll call is out of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the record shows that the question before the Senate is Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair sees no objection to the calling of the roll. Either the roll may be called or the question decided by a standing vote.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. BUCKMAN.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. BUCKMAN, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23

Barthold,	Huffman,	McCreesh,	Rupp,
Dando,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
DiSilvestro	Kahle,	Pytko,	Shapiro,
Eroe,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,	Sipe,
Gilson,	Kunkel,	Rice,	Stiefel,
Henney,	Law,	Rodgers,

NAYS—12

Buckman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Salus,
Chapman,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Scarlett,
Deitrick,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, to be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1057 (House Bill No. 1261), entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand and forty-six of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing for the employment by auditors and for the compensation of an attorney.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1085, as follows:

An Act providing for fixing minimum compensation for barber service in the several counties of this Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Public Instruction and prescribing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever a written agreement signed by an organized group comprising seventy-five per centum or more of the licensed barbers operating in any county whereby a scale of minimum compensation for barber service is established in such county is submitted to the Department of Public Instruction the department shall investigate and make inquiry as to the propriety of such compensation under all conditions and their adequacy to best protect the public health and safety by affording a sufficient minimum compensation for barber service to enable the barbers of the county to furnish modern services and appliances best designed to minimize the danger to the public health and if it finds that the conditions so warrant shall by departmental order fix the minimum compensation for all service usually performed in a barber shop

Section 2 If at any time the department after investigation made either upon its own initiative or upon the complaint of a representative group of barbers determines that the minimum compensation so fixed is insufficient to properly provide healthful service to the public and keep the shops sanitary the department shall have authority from time to time to change or refix any or all minimum compensation for a barber's service in any county wherein compensation has theretofore been fixed

Section 3 After minimum compensation for barber service has been established in any county as provided in this act it shall be unlawful to perform any such work for any compensation less than that prescribed in such schedule of minimum compensation and any person so doing shall upon summary conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars ($10) and costs of prosecution and upon default of payment thereof to be imprisoned for not more than five days

Section 4 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President. I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Philadelphia explain the purport and meaning of this bill?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I have given up all hope of interrogation tonight, and I take it that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman is O. K. on all the bills, and I thought perhaps he had read this bill. However, I am not a barber and this is a barber's bill; all the barbers are trying to regulate prices. This bill is intended to do nothing except give the barbers a right to fix prices in cities and in municipalities, when 75% of the barbers can say what they are going to charge. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman be kind enough to read this bill? Well, to tell Senator Buckman the truth, I have put away everything for the night and I thought we were all O. K. If you want to start in the morning—

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to ask a question of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, can the Senator from Philadelphia tell me the price of a hair-cut if this becomes a law?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, the price is to be fixed, it has not yet been fixed.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1091, (House Bill No. 666), as follows:

An Act to authorize cities boroughs incorporated towns townships and school districts to file suggestions of nonpayment and averments of default or to sue out writs of scire facias on certain tax or municipal claims and to revive judgments where the lien of such claims or the judgments thereon have been lost and providing for the reinstatement of the liens of such claims and judgments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any city borough incorporated town township or school district has heretofore filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county any tax or municipal claim and the city borough incorporated town or township or school district has not within the period of five years after the date on which any such claim was filed sued out a writ of scire facias to reduce the same to judgment or in the case of a tax claim has not within said period of five years filed a suggestion of nonpayment and on averment of default or whenever any writ of scire facias has been issued to reduce any such claim to judgment and by reason of defense or any other court proceedings judgment has not been entered within the period of five years after the date on which such writ was issued or whenever any such tax or municipal claim has been reduced to judgment and the city borough incorporated town township or school district has not within the period of five years after the date on which such judgment was entered or within five years after the date on which such judgment was last revived filed a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default or sued out a writ of scire facias to revive the same then in any such case any such city borough incorporated town township or school district may within six months after the passage and approval of this act issue its praecipe for a writ of scire facias on any such tax or municipal claim and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments upon tax or municipal claims or in case a writ of scire facias has been issued but the same has not been reduced to judgment within five years from the date of issuance issue its praecipe for an alias writ of scire facias on any such tax or municipal claim and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments upon tax or municipal claims or in the case of a tax claim where no judgment has been entered file a suggestion of nonpayment and on averment of default or in case judgment has been entered on a tax or municipal claim either file a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default or issue its praecipe for a writ of scire facias on any such judgment and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments of revival and such claim or judgment so entered or revived shall be a valid claim or judgment and be a lien upon the real estate upon which it was a lien at the time the claim was filed or the judgment was entered and said claim or judgment may be revived or further revived and collected as other claims or judgments upon tax or municipal claims are revived and collected Provided, however That the lien of any such claim or judgment shall not reattach against any real estate transferred to any purchaser during the time when the lien of any such tax or municipal claim or judgment was lost nor shall the lien of any such claim or judgment impair or affect the priority of the lien of any mortgage or other lien which gained priority because of the failure of the city borough incorporated town township or school district to sue out the writ of scire facias or file a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default within the five year period or was entered of record during the time the lien or such tax or municipal claim of judgment was lost

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

HOUSE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 794

He also informed the Senate that the House had adopted the Report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 794, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two as amended and sections four and six of the act approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 1012), entitled "Small Loan Act (Loan Brokers Registration)," enlarging the powers of the Secretary of Banking; authorizing the Secretary of Banking to make rules and regulations and providing penalties for the violation thereof; requiring licensees to file annual reports; increasing the license fee; reducing the rate of interest on loans; increasing the penalty for operation without a license; and bringing certain transactions within the scope of the act.

On the motion.

Will the Senate agree to the Report?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the House in its report has accepted the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 794, and therefore, I move that the Senate concur in the Report of the Conference Committee. This bill is the Small Loans Act which originally came from the House with a 1½% interest rate on loans up to $100.00, and the Senate amended to 3% per month on loans not in excess of $150.00 and 2% on loans from $150.00 to $300.00 and the House and Senate Conference Committees accepted the action of the Senate, therefore I suggest, Mr. President, that we accept the Report of the Conference Committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, unless the Senate suspends the rules, I submit it must be noted on the Calendar.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct, it will be noted on the Calendar.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 916 AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House insists upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 916, entitled:

The SPEAKER. The bill is now re-referred to the Committee on State Government.

STATEMENT BY MR. ARNOLD

Mr. ARNOLD asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to speak for a few minutes in appreciation of the legislative program of this session as it affects we people of the agricultural and rural sections of our Commonwealth.

I personally feel that this Legislature has been very considerate of these rural interests and I have been asked by the Department of Agriculture to express their appreciation for the legislation which they feel will enable their Department to do a better job in behalf of agriculture in Pennsylvania.

I also feel that when the laws we are passing here in behalf of the farmer become effective and their true worth recognized by the folks back home we will see another very distinct demonstration of appreciation.

This word of appreciation should go directly to you members here from the cities and other urban centers who have co-operated in the passing of our rural program. You were no doubt annoyed at times and some of our technical problems were probably just as uninteresting to you as some of yours were to us. I want to assure you, however, that this rural legislation is worth while and will continue to be worth while.

Our new Milk Control Law, the first permanent act of this kind in the United States will affect approximately one hundred and fifty thousand farmers giving them more security against the many hazards perculiar to the dairy industry. This act has already proven its worth in one instance when just last week, three weeks after its enactment, it was upheld in the Lancaster County Court before two very eminent Judges as constitutional and as an effective instrument in protecting farmers' interests.

The Bang's Disease Indemnity Bill has a common health interest in addition to compensating those farmers who are having their herds confiscated through no fault of their own when this most devastating disease breaks out.

The importation of diseased cattle into our State has always been a menace to both the farmer and society generally, and our legislation to license and supervise these importing cattle dealers should go a long way to improve this condition.

The Pennsylvania Potato crop is the second in value in our entire nation, and our legislation relative to labeling and measuring will give the Pennsylvania potato farmer an equal opportunity in the markets that he has never had before.

Appropriations have been made to fight wild-fire in tobacco, a relatively new disease, which is threatening our entire tobacco growing areas. In this connection the entire commercial production of a certain type of tobacco is produced in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Puerto Rico.

The butter law, the sausage law, the ice cream law, the bakery law, the plant pest law and the pure food laws all received constructive amendments during this session that will be benecial to us of the up State districts.

To me this legislation along with many other important measures such as soil conservation, soil erosion, restriction of dishonest advertising, participation in the World Poultry Congress, bonding commission merchants and tobacco production control, being considered in the interests of rural people, is an indication that this Legislature has recognized the inter-dependence of all classes and all people and all interests of our Commonwealth and particularly a recognition of the absolute necessity of bringing about conditions in rural Pennsylvania when the money and time spent in agricultural enterprise will yield equal to that in other interests and professions.

And may I say in this connection that while a lot has been done during this session there is still a lot to do. It has been said and many figures indicate that the average wage a farmer works for or is able to pay is far below that of any other large comparable group in this Commonwealth. There is more obsolete and worn out equipment used on our farms than in most any other field all because the earning power has been insufficient to replace it. The urge to use labor and to buy farm equipment, appliances, building materials and practically everything that is for sale has been planted in the minds of farmers and the only thing that is holding back this gigantic tide of business is this lack of purchasing power due in most instances to the unfavorable circumstances to which the farmer has been subjected in the past.

If you people from the cities will continue to help us from the country with legislation, good will and sympathetic consideration as we endeavor to get the cost of production plus a reasonable profit under a wage scale comparable to that of other industry, I assure you that we farmers who are operating approximately two hundred thousand farmers in Pennsylvania consisting of over fifteen million acres of ground and representing a good big proportion of the population of the Commonwealth will give you a good price and will buy in such quantities that you will not be able to take care of the business.

So in closing this short statement I want to again think this Legislature for what it has done and assure you here that what you have done in this connection has been worth while; and should we ask more of you in this session or from those of you who will be here in future sessions, be assured that everything you do to help the farmer will be immediately reflected back in your own business and will be of great benefit to the Commonwealth as a whole.

STATEMENT BY MR. ZAPPALA

Mr. ZAPPALA asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, and members of the House: Under House Resolution No. 34, printer's number 197, of the Special Session of 1936, a committee was created for the purpose of making a survey of the State, and to recommend to the next Session of the Legislature a comprehensive plan of Reapportionment, to provide for the Legislative Districts in conformity with Article II, Section 17 of the Constitution.

The following members were appointed by the Speaker of the House: Frank J. Zappala, Chairman, Harry J. Brownfield, Michael C. Chervenak, Jr., James E. Lovett, Benjamin L. Long, John J. McDevitt, Richard M. Simpson.

With the opening of the present Session of the Legislature, this Committee very diligently commenced its work under the Resolution, and after several months of careful study, this Committee made certain definite recommendations to this House. The Committee Report, with its findings, was filed, and you find it in your Legislative Journal under date of February 23, 1937.

I may read to you briefly part of the findings of this Committee:

(1) That Sections 17 and 18 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been violated, and the present arrangement is illegal.

(2) This committee further finds that the present arrangement is not only illegal but inequitable.

(3) This committee recommends that the mandate of the Constitution of the Commonwealth be no longer ignored, and that a scientific bill be presented giving the people of Pennsylvania proper representation.

(4) That a Reapportionment bill be presented by Representative Frank J. Zappala, Chairman of this Committee as well as Chairman of the Re-Districting Committee charged with drafting a Bill of Reapportionment to be presented to the House.

This brief resume merely confirms the moral obligation resting upon every member of the Legislature, to comply with fidelity to the obligation of their oath of office, namely, to obey the Constitution of Pennsylvania. That Constitution in clear, emphatic and mandatory language, says that Reapportionment shall take place every ten years, and with this obligation in mind, I, as Chairman of this Committee, presented a Reapportionment Bill under date of March 23, 1937 to the House, which bill is now known as House Bill No. 1817.

This bill now lies in the Legislative Reapportionment Committee, and a sub-committee was appointed last week; and if this bill is not reported out at this Session of the Legislature, I emphatically state that the members of the House will subject themselves to severe criticism throughout the entire State for continuing to ignore the mandate of the Constitution in this respect.

Furthermore, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Democratic party has pledged its support of this measure, in order to remedy the evil that has existed for years, and I am inclined to believe that unless this bill is reported out and enacted during this Session of the Legislature, a most embarrassing situation will develop.

We know that the mandate of the Constitution of Pennsylvania has been ignored by former Legislatures. They touched upon it lightly in 1907—made a farce of it in 1921—but the last real reapportionment was made 53 years ago. The great mass of the people of Pennsylvania looks hopefully to this Legislature, which has passed so many laws that are of benefit to them, for the enactment of this legislation, thus giving them the representation to which they are rightfully entitled and which has been denied them for such a long period of time; and I earnestly urge you to rally to the aid and support of this bill, that it may be reported out of committee and passed, thus proving that the people's trust has not been misplaced, and that we may return to our homes at the close of this session with that feeling of satisfaction over a task well done, and with the full consciousness of having carried out to the letter our oath of office.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is here objection?

Mr. McGEE. Mr. Speaker, I object.

SPECIAL ORDER ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE ON HOUSE BILL No. 608

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business on third reading and final passage fixed for this time, House Bill No. 608, Printer's No. 660, on page 1 of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 608, entitled:

An Act abolishing capital punishment and providing for the substitution of a life sentence in lieu thereof repealing inconsistent legislation and providing that this act shall not apply to any case in which it shall appear that the said crime was committed prior to the date of the approval of this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Falkenstein.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BOIES. I desire to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, if in his opinion the passage of this bill will in any way lessen the crime of murder in this Commonwealth.

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion it would.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if it is not true under the existing law in this Commonwealth it is within the right of the jury and the court to set a sentence at life imprisonment on conviction of first degree murder now?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if he knows the percentage or number of men sentenced to life imprisonment who over served life imprisonment?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. I do not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia and ask permission to speak a few words on this bill.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not intend to speak on this bill, and I refrained from doing so when the bill was first reported to this House, but when such a measure as this, to which I am unalterably opposed, comes before the House a second time with a chance of passage, I can no longer refrain from opposing it. I hesitated to oppose it because of my regard for the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Falkenstein, and my regard for his motives and his honesty of purpose in introducing this bill. But nevertheless, even though the opponents of a measure like this are usually charged with lacking in human charity or being prejudiced, I feel very strongly on this matter, and though I may have to plead guilty of being prejudiced, nevertheless, I believe that I am justifiably prejudiced, if there can be any such thing. All of us can be sentimental and very highly idealistic about such a thing as this measure when it does not affect us personally. When such a thing as murder is brought on to us personally, it is a different matter, and I happen to be one of those who has had such a tragic misfortune in my own family. I therefor feel that my opposition may be excuseable in this case. What do the proponents of this measure expect to gain? Surely to say that it will lessen crime in this Commonwealth is just as ridiculous as to say that it will cut down burglary or cut down theft if we cut the sentence for burglary. Just a short time ago one of the members of this House told me that some time ago he visited a convicted murder in his death cell in prison. The man was deep in despondency until my friend told him that his sentence was to be commuted, and he sprang to his feet and asked if that was true, and he laughed and said that he would be out in a few years. That is the attitude of all such persons.

If we pass such a sentimental measure as this, we do nothing more, in my opinion, than open the doors to abuse of the parole and pardon system. Now, I would not have anybody believe that I was opposed to the parole and pardon system, but I know that no such system is anywhere nearly perfect, as witness the recent crime in Coatesville, committed by a convict who had been paroled.

I believe the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schor spoke in favor of this bill when it was first on the floor of this House, and he made some comparisons between this country and England, which in my opinion were very erroneous. He said that many years ago there were many crimes in England that were punishable by death. That is true, and he said that crime then was more rampart than it is now, when the only crime punishable by death is murder. That may also be true, I submit to you members of the House that there are few if any convicted in England of murder who escape the death penalty, and it is therefore a question in my mind not whether or not it is certainty of punishment that cuts down the crime in England, but whether or not it is the certainty of the death penalty for murder. There are fewer murders in the Kingdom of Great Britain than there are in one of the large cities of the United States in one years's time.

We are asked, members of the House, to suport this bill on religious grounds. I do not pretend to be any authority on holy writ, but I do know that it stays there that the murderer shall pay with his life, and I don't know of any place where it says he shall be put in prision for life, and I say that these people and these organizations who are backing this measure are looking for reforms to back, that there are many laws which are too severe, that there are many social evils which even we Democrats have not corrected that they can work on, without turning loose made beasts on this Commonwealth to continue to commit murder as they have before.

We all know that every criminal who is tried for murder would rather be sentenced to life or some term in prison than death. If anyone is so foolish as to ask death before the court, he is immediately adjudged insane and put into an institution for the criminal insane. It surely will not benefit society as a whole, it will not be for the benefit of the family, it will only benefit the murderer, and I ask that you members of the House, and I submit that the law as it is in this State, giving the jury and the court the power to set life imprisonment, where the evidence warrants that, should not be changed, and we should not put ourselves in a position of saying that we do not believe the rights of a murderer are protected, and that we are going to extend privileges to him. We should in all fairness and a sense of good judgement give the courts and the juries of this Commonwealth the power to say that in the event the evidence so warrants and the crime is so revolting that was committed, that that person should pay with his life, and not simply like revoking an automobile driver's license and taking him out of circulation, and then giving him a tap on the head with an admonition to go out and not do it any more.

I ask the membership of this House to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise in support of this bill because I feel that in doing so I am supporting one of the most humane measures that has been presented to this House during this entire session. This law of capital punishment is the law of the jungle, an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. In fact, it is not even good jungle law, because even in the old days there were cities of refuge where a man who had committed crime could flee and find protection, but the State of Pennsylvania there is not even a city of refuge, but we must abide by the decision of a court and jury.

It is true that juries do have discretion to provide the death penalty or life imprisonment, but it is a routine measure that people who do not believe in capital punishment are usually not allowed to serve on the juries.

This is not only the law of the jungle which is poorly applied, but it is also a poor man's law. Very few if any of the rich men ever have to pay the death penalty; they always are able to get by with life imprisonment. A law in a democracy ought to operate equitably for everybody, but in Pennsylvania rich men are not given the death sentence. It is purely and simply a poor man's law, and so, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the interests of humanity, and because we know that this law does not deter crime in any respect, because most people who commit murder are either physically or mentally unbalanced, and pronouncing the death penalty on those does not do any good for society or for the person affected, therefore, in the interest of humanity and in the interest of the more equitable operation of our laws I ask the members of this House to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in connection with this bill, it would appear to me that the common sense viewpoint would be that as long as we can convict men on circumstantial evidence it is entirely unfair that we impose capital punishment, because of the fact that so many strong-arm methods are used to build cases against men who have been charged with crime. A great many times the innocent man is sent to the gallows or to the electric chair, and the guilty man is still running about, and we find it out a number of years later. In justice to humanity and in justice to the innocent men, I would ask the members of this House to vote for this bill.

Reference was made to the jungle law of the biblical injunction wherein it says "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth", but I would suggest that we find out for sure that the eye was lost at the hands of the other fellow before he is punished, and so far as I am concerned in this matter, I feel that before we seriously attempt to reform others we should first reform ourselves.

I ask the members of this House to vote for the bill.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I certainly am reluctant to speak about this measure. This is not the first time the bill has been in this House to abolish capital punishment. I remember some years back a similar bill was before this House, and at that time there was a member of this General Assembly from the City of Pittsburgh, a noted criminal lawyer, whose specialty was defending murderers. He got up and spoke on a similar measure and he made the statement that although he was a lawyer defending the accused in murder cases generally, that the Legislature would adopt a very questionable course if it abolished capital punishment.

Ladies and gentlemen of this House, I think especially at this time when so many parole prisoners are committing crimes of violence, when so many murderers are being committed over this land by men who have previously committed murders, we would be adopting a very questionable course by passing this bill.

The gentleman from Philadelphia made the statement that in biblical times we had cities of refuge to which the accused might go. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of this House, we today have cities of refuge, namely our courts, where men get an impartial and a just trial, and where they are adjudged by twelve men, their peers, and it is very very seldom, in fact I don't believe it has been authentically proven that any man was ever convicted for murder who was innocent. I repeat, this is not a time to abolish capital punishment.

A former member of this Legislature, speaking in opposition to this bill, said that as a criminal lawyer it has been his experience that the only thing that the murderer fears is the hot seat, and his only plea to him when he is delegated to represent the accused is, "Oh, Mr., save me from the hot seat", and because, ladies and gentlemen, we have capital punishment your property is safer, you are safer, your family is safer, you tonight are safer upon the streets of this city and of this Commonwealth because of the fact that men are deterred from committing murders because of fear of the hot seat.

Personally I shall vote "no" on this measure.

Mr. DAVID H. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, less than a month ago in the Pittsburgh Post Gazette there appeared these headlines, "Confession clears men serving life for murder he never committed." Supposing he were given the chair; it would have been too late to rectify the wrong done. It was only because of the justice that Westmoreland County served that it was possible for this man to be alive today.

Less than two weeks ago these headlines appeared in the paper. "A friendless slayer goes to the chair." If this friendless slayer had had a few powerful politicians for friends it would have been possible for this man to have been saved for quite a while longer. I do not believe that the argument of the gentleman from York, Mr. Flinchbaugh, that the hot seat is a crime deterrent would hold water, because in those states where they have abolished capital punishment it does not appear that the crime wave is any greater there than it is in this state.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Contstitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. OSTROFF. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. LEWIS filed the following reason for his vote.

I believe that the passage of this bill would remove a fear of punishment that now serves as a crime deterrant, and the records of Pennsylvania show very clearly that never has justice miscarried in the imposition of capital punishment.

Therefore, I vote "no" on House Bill No. 608.

SPECIAL ORDER ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE ON HOUSE BILL No. 852

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this time, House Bill No. 851, Printer's No. 883, on page 21, of today's calendar, bill on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 851, entitled:

An Act relating to the regulation of public utilities defining as public utilities certain corporations companies associations and persons providing for the regulation of public utilities including to a limited extent municipalities engaging in public utility business by prescribing defining and limiting their duties powers and liabilities and regulating the exercise surrender or abandonment of their powers privileges and franchises defining and regulating contract carriers by motor vehicle and brokers in order to regulate effectively common carriers by motor vehicle conferring upon the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission the power and duty of supervising and regulating persons associations companies and corporations including to a limited extent municipal corporations subject to this act and administering the provisions of this act authorizing the commission to fix temporary rates placing the burden of proof on public utilities to sustain their rates and certain other matters authorizing a permissive or mandatory sliding scale method of regulating rates providing for the supervision of financial and contractural relations between public utilities and affiliated interests and supervision and regulation of accounts and securities or obligations issued assumed or kept by persons associations companies corporations or municipal corporations subject to this act conferring upon the commission power to vary reform or revise certain contracts conferring upon the commission the exclusive power to regulate or order the construction alteration relocation protection or abolition of crossing of facilities of public utilities and of such facilities by or over public highways to appropriate property for the construction of improvement of such crossings and to award or apportion resultant costs and damages authorizing owners of such property to sue the Commonwealth for such damages providing for ejectment proceedings in connection with the appropriation of property for crossings conferring upon the commission power to control and regulate budgets of public utilities imposing upon persons associations companies and corporations (except municipal corporations) subject to regulation the cost of administering this act prescribing and regulating practice and procedure before the commission and procedure for review by the courts of commission action giving the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County exclusive original jurisdiction over certain proceedings prescribing penalties fines and imprisonment for violations of the provisions of this act and regulations and orders of the commission and the procedure for enforcing such fines and penalties and repealing legislation supplied and superseded by or inconsistent with this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 18, line 13, by inserting after the word "disposal" the following: "services"

Amend sec. 2, page 18, line 14, by inserting after the word "compensation" the following: "paid directly by the users of the service to the corporation or person furnishing the service, but not including sewage services where the compensation is paid by a municipal corporation to a corporation or person furnishing the service."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

On the question, recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize that what I might say here tonight will possibly not change a vote on this measure. On any bill as extensive as this and involving as much as this does, I realize that there has undoubtedly been a decision on the part of the majority of this House as to its course of action and that anything I might say would be unlikely to change the decision of the majority as to its vote upon this measure.

I am not going to tire you with a discussion of the details of this bill or a criticism of many of its features. I sought to insert an amendment a few moments ago, however, to the section which defines what is a public utility. Under section g, page 18, it says that "a public utility shall be a person or corporation owning or operating in this Commonwealth equipment or facilities for sewage collection treatment or disposal for public compensation," and my effort was to take out of that a situation that will undoubtedly arise with many municipalities in the next couple of years in this State, when it is sought to relieve our streams of pollution, as many of our municipalities may have to enter into contracts with private corporations to construct plants whereby the municipality will pay for them over a period of years. There is clearly no intent there to set up a public utility or a public service company. I believe it is perfectly proper to bring within the terms of this bill the companies that might supply to individual property owners or others sewage service. That is very properly a public utility, and if it charges rates to the people who are served it should be brought within the provisions of the Public Utility Act in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and should be regulated by any Public Utility Commission as to the rates which it charges. But in a contract between a municipality and a private corporation, by which the corporation merely builds a sewage disposal plant for which the municipality is to pay over a period of years, there is nothing savoring of a public utility any more than there was in the case of the independent gas producers who merely dig a well some place and sell the entire output of that well to some company that is engaged in the selling and distributing of gas to the general public. You took that provision out of the bill and exempted the independent gas operators from the provision of the bill. That feature of the handling of this problem in the next few years in Pennsylvania will present an acute problem. I think that you should take this out as well.

I do not understand that the objection of the gentleman from Philadelphia is one that goes to the purpose of the amendment but that he felt that the bill should move forward here tonight. We endeavored to secure this amendment and I trust I may have the assistance of the chairman in securing this amendment in the Senate, which is a just amendment.

Mr. Speaker, I do however desire to say a few words in reference to this legislation. From the year 1931 on we had considerable amendments to the Public Service Company Law of Pennsylvania. That act had been in existence, I think, since 1911 in Pennsylvania. It had been interpreted by the courts and I know, as one who was here in the sessions of 1931 and 1933, that the most careful consideration was given after hearing and investigation lasting some ten weeks in 1931, on the whole utility problem, as to the defects in our utility law at that time. So therefore, I say there is not necessity for a rewriting of the Public Service Company Law in Pennsylvania. Such amendments that might have been deemed necessary through the experience of recent years could readily have been added to the act as it stood in Pennsylvania without disrupting the whole procedure and without throwing the whole situation as to the public utilities in chaos.

I believe that this is one of the most important pieces of legislation that has come before this session of the Legislature and that it will have far reaching effects in Pennsylvania for years to come. I said there was no reason why we could not have amended the present law in such respects as were deemed necessary to correct any defects that had developed out of our experience in the last few years. The old law had been interpreted by the Courts, it had been interpreted by the Commission. In long lines of decisions these whole questions had been decided and had been interpreted, and I have said to some of those men who were back of this movement for this law that I think they are the greatest benefactors that the legal profession in Pennsylvania has had for many years. I have said to some of the members of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania with whom I have conversed that I think this is a tremendous and stupendous task and will be so for the next few years, and I predict that these utilities of ours in Pennsylvania will be in the courts of Pennsylvania for a number of years to come and that this act will be in the courts for interpretation.

I am not interested here tonight, except in one phase, not the utilities themselves, I have no personal interest in the utilities as corporations or as operating companies, no matter whether it be in the transportation field, whether it be in the electrical or gas field or whatever field it may be in. I do, however, have an interest in this: I have an interest in the rate payers in Pennsylvania, and I feel that this act is casting a burden upon the very people that you who are the sponsors and the proponents of this bill say you are seeking to help. The Commission which you so ruthlessly ousted a few weeks ago stated, and I haven't seen it denied, that they had brought about reductions in rates in Pennsylvania amounting to millions of dollars. If I remember the figure rightly I think it was stated that some twenty million dollars had been saved to the rate payers of Pennsylvania over a period of a very few years in which the Commission had been operating, especially the immediate predecessor of the Commission which you ousted, and the Commission which has just gone out of office. That Commission was a commission of seven men. Under your present legislation you have provided for a commission of five men to carry on the same amount of work, and in addition to that you have loaded on to them twice as much work as the old Commission ever had, because this bill with its extension to contract carriers and to motor vehicle carriers goes very much farther than the old act. In addition to that it throws the burden of the payment of the costs of the Public Service Commission, or the Public Utilities Commission,—I cannot get used to saying Public Utilities Commission,—it throws the cost of the burden of that Commission upon the utilities. Where is that money to come from? It always seems to me that the men who talk about making utilities pay for some of these things seem to have the idea that the utility is a person or a small group of people who will have to dig down into their pockets to pay the bill, whereas, as a matter of fact, the only place they can get the money with which to pay the bill is from the rate payer. That is going back on the same people that you talk about saving. In addition to that you have passed since 1935 a great number of bills which provide for increased taxation upon utilities of Pennsylvania. On the one hand, you have increased the cost of those taxes, and those taxes do not again come out of the pockets of the stockholders of that corporation. Those taxes come from the rate payers, the only place where a utility can get the money with which to pay the taxes, and when you consider the basis upon which you are going to figure the rates of any utility you always have had to add in the taxes which the utility has to pay, and therefore the rate payer must inevitably in the end pay those taxes. You have therefore loaded upon this industry additional taxation, on the one hand, and you are forcing a reduction of rates, and have forced a reduction of rates in Pennsylvania on the other hand.

What then is to happen to these great industries of ours in Pennsylvania? Do you know that in 1932 it was expansion of expenditures by our utilities that kept us going in much of the hard times and kept employment from decreasing? Do you know that the utilities have been the great experimenters? Do you know that the utilities are constantly struggling to bring into the market and upon the market new ways and methods of generating power, new ways of doing business, new facilities, that they have been the backbone of the promotion of industries that supply the appliances which may reach out into the field of thousands of other industries, employing thousands of men who labor. And when you try to talk about the benefit that you are going to give the people of Pennsylvania by what you conceive is a method to reduce the cost to those people, you are on the other hand crippling great industries that do not have the money for expansion and will not have the money to meet the payrolls that are necessary to keep those industries going and keep those people in the industries earning a fair livelihood. I say tonight that I am not thinking of the utilities themselves, whether they be common carriers or whether they be in the gas, electric or water field, but I am thinking first of the rate payer himself. I am thinking, second, of the employes of those companies. You have fought here for bills which you said were a benefit to labor but there is no reason why you should fight for the United Mine Workers, there is no reason why you should fight for the people in the hosiery mills, there is no reason why you should fight for the men in the steel mills, and then turn around and forget all about the labor that works in our great transportation systems, the railroads, in the trucking industry, in electric light and gas and water industries.

In my own county I don't know how many men are engaged but I do know that in the electrical industry there are some three thousand men employed in my county. The purpose of this bill is not to secure regulation, and if you read the bill you will see that the purpose of it is to set up a commission that shall have the right to go into the very managerial features of every corporation that is called a public utility in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Five men who are the Public Service Commissioners or the Public Utility Commissioners of Pennsylvania do not become a regulatory body to decide upon fair rates and practices between the ordinary rate payer and between the utility and the investors themselves, but that Commission becomes under the bill and under the provisions of the bill a board of directors who will have the power to go in and determine upon the very expenditures themselves to be made by this utility, and then the joker in the bill is, having determined upon those expenditures, the bill says that in any rate case the Commission shall not be compelled to abide by or be bound by its decision in granting any privilege to the utility itself or in granting the approval of any securities or bond issues—the Commission itself shall not be bound. In other words, if they make a mistake over here in granting such rights, they say, "All right, it is all right, go ahead" and they say that, "In the future time we do not have to abide by any of our mistakes, we are a super Board and therefore are free from that." So I am thinking of those people in my county who work in these utilities, who are employed in our trucking concerns, who are employed on our railroads, who are employed by our electric and gas companies, who are employed by our water companies, it is of them I am thinking when I say that this bill goes too far, that this bill is one that is actuated by hatred of these businesses that have grown up under the permission of the Commonwealth and under the laws of the Commonwealth, that have been regulated in the past and that have a right to exist; whose securities, whose bonds and whose stocks have been invested in by hundreds and by thousands of small investors. I do not care about the rich investor. He can generally take care of himself, or if he cannot he does not long exist as a rich investor. But I am thinking of the little fellow in my county who bought five, ten, or fifteen shares of some kind of stock in some utility with the expectation of its providing a backlog for him. I am thinking of the people of my county, who are the kind of people that you are, who are in the same class that you are, who like to live decently in decent homes and who will have to pay the rates.

I am amazed, Mr. Speaker, that in a position such as this that strikes at these various industries,—and let me remind you of something else,—the other day you passed a bill providing for municipal ownership, and you passed a bill that is going to make it easy for every municipality to go into the utility business. Yet, you are talking about getting low rates for the people in the rural districts. If the municipality is going into the utility business without any restriction, and there is no restriction because the Public Utilities Commission has no control over it, then the municipality is taking away the cream of this business from the utility. Who is going to serve the country districts in that case? You are not consistent in the things you do. But the thing that amazes me as I look at this bill with all its implications, is, where are the great defenders of this industry, where are all those men who should be in the Hall of this House fighting this bill? I remember we had a hearing a very few weeks ago and there were a few representatives of the utilities who appeared here to protest against certain features of the bill, but since that time I have not seen any of them. Why are they not in here fighting for their employes? Has it become so in Pennsylvania that we have intimidated the people who are engaged in industry to such an extent that they are afraid to come here and fight for their rights? I have always believed that every citizen and every group of citizens in Pennsylvania could come here and tell us what they think about a measure, especially a measure that is far reaching, when it destroys the utilities of Pennsylvania by a commission, because it will be entirely dependent upon the kind of commission you get,—and we know the psychology in back of this bill, we know that this bill was written in many respects and dictated by a group in Washington, whose ideas they have written into this bill, where are those people that should have been here in the Hall of this House in the last few weeks fighting against this bill? I do not like to stand here and bear the brunt of this argument and say I know from the attitude in this House that there are many who do not seem to be interested one way or the other. I say to you that if the heads of these utilities are afraid to come out, if they are being intimidated by those in power, if they are afraid they will have vengeance reeked upon them in the next few years, then they ought to come out and tell us all about it.

I want to say to you in conclusion and I want to sound this warning to you that while I may not change your votes now, I do say, like other legislation that you have passed, that this bill will come back to haunt you. I think this bill in its extreme provisions goes to such an extent that will hamper and hamstring the utilities, and put them in the hands of unscrupulous politicians, who can either break or drive into line many of these businesses. I think we are forgetting entirely the laboring men, I think we are forgetting entirely the small investors in our industries, and you will live and learn to regret it.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, like the gentleman who has preceded me, I do not intend to go into the various phases of this act. I regret that the amendments which he offered this evening were not handed to the committee some considerable time ago. As a matter of fact, the history of the preparation and the various phases that this act passed through perhaps should have told the gentleman from Delaware that the amendments he desired should certainly have been offered in committee.

I might state, Mr. Speaker, that perhaps the whole history of this bill might explain the one thing that the gentleman has been wondering about, where are all the opponents to this measure this evening? From the time of our first public hearing on down until this bill appeared in the calendar there have been numerous meetings in efforts to draft a bill that would meet the objections of the various utilities and still give the people of Pennsylvania the greatest measure of protection possible. The amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware may have some merit, but to insert them this evening would mean a delay of another day, and certainly if they do have merit he could very handily have these amendments inserted in the Senate without delaying the onward passage of this bill. I do call to his attention however, the fact that the Public Utilities Commission, and preceding it the Public Service Commission, have always dealt very easily and very leniently with the various municipalities in connection with public service, and I believe he can rest assured that the new Public Utilities Commission will continue in that same onward direction.

The gentleman complains of this bill from a very, very odd standpoint to me. He maintains that instead of passing a new bill, repealing the old legislation, what we should have done is to amend the numerous bills now on the statute books of this State. That, it strikes me, carries but little weight, or should carry but little weight, as in opposition or as opposed to this particular bill. Certainly for convenience sake, certainly for many other reasons it would be far better to write a code bill as we have here done, presenting to the people of Pennsylvania in clarified form the law governing the utilities of Pennsylvania.

He has shown an extraordinary interest in the people of Pennsylvania, but I say to you that our interest is larger and broader than the interest he has demonstrated here this evening in that we desire to see that the people of Pennsylvania receive a fair rate from their public service utilities, and that rate as provided by this bill will be fair to the investors, will be of necessity fair to the employes of the utilities, and above all will be fair to the users of the respective public utilities. The bill provides for a return on the capital invested in the assets of the corporation, not a fanciful one, not a conjured one, but a real and actual value. It is on that basis that we are expecting the Public Utilities Commission to fix the rates of the various utilities in this State. I am saying quite frankly to the members of this House that it is our hope that is is going to protect the entire populace of our State, and not handing to just a few who might be the owners of utility stock an advantage far in excess of that to which they are entitled.

He has one other objection: he maintains of course that the bill will go to the point of managing. Perhaps to an extent he is correct. Perhaps this bill does go beyond the mere phase of regulation, but I submit Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that if rates are going to be regulated then those rates can only be regulated by providing that the Commission is to have full and complete figures, with a complete right to say how great the expenditures of the respective utilities may be, not that they may conjure up excess expenditures for the purpose of increasing rates, but rather that their expenditures shall be along the line of need, along the line that is essential and necessary to operate their plants, in other words, to go into every phase of their expenditures to see that the services they are rendering are needed and essential, but that they shall not be extravagant expenditures on the part of the utilities. If you hamstring a commission to the point that it can not do that, then the commission will find, as the Public Service Commission has in the past found, that they were all too frequently prevented from correcting the evils that existed.

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, may I say to the members of this House that this bill in my opinion will produce for the people of Pennsylvania that which they have been seeking for so many years: the right to change and regulate rates so that people will not be gouged in paying excessive sums, but rather that they will be paying a fair sum for the service they receive, and in paying that fair sum they will be treated fairly and honestly, as well as those people who have investments in public utilities in this Commonwealth. It is for those reasons that I ask the members of this House to support House Bill No. 851.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, further supplementing the remarks of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, my co-sponsor of House Bill No. 851, I wish to go more specificially into what this bill purports to do.

The major features of this bill are as follows:

1. Municipalities which operate utilities within their corporate limits are exempt from the act but do come under the act if their services extend beyond those limits.

2. Non-profit cooperative associations are also exempt from the act. This particularly affects the rural electrification program.

3. Contract carriers by motor vehicles are brought within the jurisdiction of the Commission under the new act, subject to the regulations in some phases of their activities, including minimum rates, security issues, and so on.

4. The percentage of stock interest required to classify an affiliated interest has been reduced from ten percent to five percent. The act is also broadened otherwise to bring under the regulation other associated interests, to remedy conditions disclosed in the investigation of the Associated Gas and Eelctric Company.

5. The Commission is given jurisdiction over all abondonment public service utilities. This was denied under the old act.

6. A sliding scale for the establishment of rates is also provided in this act, when they are created. The new Pennsylvania system differs from the London and Boston plan. It is much broaded in scope and far more comprehensive than either of those plans. It provides an automatic rate-reducing system, based upon a new theory of valuation.

7. The bill eliminates from the present law the filing of a bond by a public utility when the utility proposes to increase its rates. It requires suspension of the new rate during litigation and until final determination of the litigation.

8. It further places the burden of proof upon the utility —and mind you this is very important—it places the burden of proof upon the utility in any proceeding. It also requires the utility to justify any accounting item which it may submit to the Public Utility Commission.

9. One of the strongest provisions is that of establishing four methods of fixing temporary rates. The first is based upon the New York Act, recently sustained by the New York Appellate Courts. The second establishes a different basis of validation upon which the temporary rate is fixed. The third is a combination of the first two with the regulatory principle of the sliding scale. The fourth is entirely new, establishing a trial rate to remain in effect for a definite period. It is based upon reports and information filed with the Commission by the utility itself. All four methods permit the Commission, in one form or another, to institute rate reductions whenever information which it may have would indicate that a reduction was necessary, or to institute temporary rate reductions at any time during litigation. This portion o the act also permits the Commission to allow the utility to recoup any losses suffered through temporary or trial rates at the final determination of the proceedings.

10. Restrictions for the removal of refunds are also provided in the bill, and one which the consumer by complaint to the Commission can obtain refunds through court proceedings.

11. The Commission further is empowered to coordinate schedules of separate transportation systems.

12. The recording of the Commission's orders in the proper recording offices of the affected counties is required whenever a grade crossing case is being prosecuted. This provision protects titles to real estate.

13. Whenever there is any increase of extension of utility facilities the utility must first obtain a certificate of public convenience from the Commission, and any increase or extension must be submitted to competetive bidding. The utility is permitted to bid upon such work.

14. The bill further provides that no public utility shall require payment of rates in advance or the making of minimum payments or deposits to secure future payments of rates except as the Commission or regulation of order may permit. It also provides that any deposit made by any consumer shall be returned to him with any interest due thereon, when that consumer shall have established his credit with the utility over a one year period.

15. Provision is now made authorizing a common carrier to establish release value rates which will limit recovery to the shipper to an amount not exceeding the value declared or released.

16. Provision is further made that the Commission in condemnation proceedings for having the matter submitted to the Court of Common Pleas where the property is located for the determination of damages to property owners by viewers' proceedings in such cases as the Commission may deem advisable.

17. A new section known as Section 418 provides that where a bona fide cooperative association has been organized to furnish electricity to its members on a nonprofit basis, and if that cooperative files with the Commission a map of the territory to be served by the association and the statement showing that a majority of the prospective customers in the area are included in the project, no public utility shall extend its lines within that territory until the expiration of six months, to permit the cooperative to finance its proposed system with a Federal agency. The purpose of this section is to freeze and segregate a territory for the development of rural electrification, which in the long run will benefit that particular community.

18. There is also incorporated a new section in this bill, section 419, which provides for the full crew bill as to railroads, so as to repeal the Act of 1921, P. L. 385, and incorporate that act into the Public Utility Law.

19. A new section also was added to provide that the burden of proof in proceedings involving complaints against service and facilities shall be upon the utility.

20. A very important regulatory section has been added, Section 921, and this bill, on this phase of regulation, we endeavored to pass in the 1935 Session, but the bill was defeated or killed in the Republican Senate. This section gives the Commission the power to vary, reform or revise upon a fair, reasonable and equitable basis any contract or the terms of any franchise or contract entered into between any public utility and any person, corporation or municipal corporation, which contract embraced or concerns a public right, benefit or franchise, or where the contracts are affected or concerned in the public interested and the general welfare of the Commonwealth.

Now all these new regulatory provisions which are incorporated and included in this general bill, are, as the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, stated, in the interested of the public welfare of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

It seems strange that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, has seen fit in the discussion of this bill to take the part of labor. We feel that as the majority we have endeavored and always will endeavor to give labor its just desserts in the State of Pennsylvania, and in keeping with that we have endeavored to incorporate into this measure all of the benefits which may pertain to labor. We can assure the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, as well as all the people of the State of Pennsylvania, that this measure will in no way adversely affect labor in this Commonwealth. It may affect partially the the utility profits which they have been getting for a long time in the State of Pennsylvania through the various utility companies. It may seem a little harsh at this time to enact all in one a measure which cuts down their profits for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania. But I might say that this harshness is due to the fact that nothing has been done in the way of regulating these utilities for the past twenty-five or thirty years, and it has fallen upon the Democratic party in Pennsylvania to curb the profits of these utilities in the interest of the people of Pennsylvania as a whole. I therefore ask the members of this House to vote for House Bill No. 851.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had not intended to reply to the gentlemen on the other side, I was not going to discuss the features of the bill itself in detail, although if I had the time and I thought you would listen there are some phases of this rate making question which I think should be discussed quite at length. What the gentleman from Philadelphia suggested in rate making is something that was discussed in 1931. These are not new theories, they are old theories. I thought they were new theories in 1931 but I found that away back in 1890 the same questions were raised by William Jennings Bryan, only the men who were opposing the party at that time were different than in 1931. Therefore these questions are not new questions, they are old ones. I would like to say this to the gentleman from Philadelphia and to the gentlemen on the other side,—he said it was strange that I should take a position in favor of labor. The thing that has always amazed me, and the point that I have been trying to make, is that some of you gentlemen seem to think, seem to have the idea that you can have your cake and eat it too, and some of you seem to think that you can pile taxes upon industry in Pennsylvania and regulate industry in Pennsylvania and still have the industry pay a fair rate of wage to the laboring people. I know in this House since I have been a member of the House I have been misunderstood on almost every occasion, but my fight has been for the people in my own county who are dependent upon these industries in my county, a long line of great industries that stretch along the Delaware River, upon which they are dependent for a livelihood and upon which my county is dependent for its very existence. You can't keep industry going there if you are going to tax them out of existence, if you are going to regulate them, if you are going to coerce them, you cannot keep them there and at the same time have them pay a fair rate of wage. We are finding that out in Pennsylvania. The utilities have been the football of politics, they have been the subject of every demagoglical writer that you can find any place. You are coercing them the same as you did with the railroads until the railroads were down and out on their backs. I am speaking for labor in my county and for labor in other counties, and for the small investors in my county and in other counties who are dependent upon these utilities for their very livelihood. You cannot tax the real estate on the one hand, you cannot add taxes by the State on the other hand, you cannot regulate them on the other hand, and still expect to reduce the rates and have them pay a fair rate of wage to their people. It just cannot be done.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Delaware is telling this House that apparently we do not understand him. I want to tell the gentleman from Delaware that I understand fully the situation with which we are confronted. I possibly have been a party to increasing the taxes on utilities. I voted quite freely for the bills to increase the gross receipts tax from eight to fourteen mills and from fourteen to twenty mills, and as a result of that increased taxation I have yet to see one utility that came before the past Public Service Commission or would be able to come before the present Public Utilities Commission, and on the basis of that increased taxation indicate any reason why their rates should be raised.

The gentleman from Delaware, when he first addressed this House, clearly told us that the past Public Service Commission had reduced the rates of utilities many millions of dollars, and they did. But, ladies and gentlemen, they did that notwithstanding the increased taxation. So apparently there was a stoppage on the increased rate that these utilities were charging that enabled the Commonwealth to receive the increased taxes without the necessity of an attenuating rate increase on the part of the utility.

I may say also in further answer to the gentleman from Delaware that I have never yet seen a case in which the past Public Service Commission, and I am sure we will never see a case in which the present Public Utilities Commission, will have occasion to raise the rates of a public utility because that utility is paying too much for labor. I have never yet seen an instance in which rates were asked to be raised upon the plea that the utility wanted to give their labor an increase in wages. I have seen and the past Public Service Commission has seen, and the gentleman from Delaware has seen quite a number of instances in which it was necessary to reduce the rates of public utilities because they were making too much profit, and not because they were paying their labor too much wages. I think that the attempt of the gentleman from Delaware to throw dust into the eyes of this membership by pleading possibly for the consumer or pleading for the wage earner is quite a good argument. I say that the facts that he cites and the facts that are within the knowledge of every citizen of the Commonwelth are to the contrary. Upon the passage of this bill we will be in a position adequately to regulate the utilities of this Commonwealth, to regulate them in a manner that will give a just rate to the consumer, a just wage to the employe and a just tax to the Commonwealth.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to support this bill by saying this is the first chance, I believe, that the Legislature has ever had to pass a measure which will be a benefit to all the people of this Commonwealth. If the utilities in the past had cleaned their dirty linen we would not have to pass a measure of this kind. I say this is a real opportunity for the citizens of Pennsylvania to get what they have been trying to get for years, and I think the members of this House, if they really represent the constituents who elected them, will have to put this measure across.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. PERRY filed the following reason for his vote:

In my opinion this bill is poorly drafted, unpracticable of enforcement and confiscatory in character. Many of its provisions violate the provisions of the Constitution. If passed it will increase rather than reduce the ultimate rate to be paid by the consumer. By enforcement of its provisions, the interests of both investors and employes of privately owned utilities will be seriously imperiled. In my opinion this bill, disguised as regulation, in reality imposes unfair restrictions upon private industry, and in turn will decrease expansion of business in Pennsylvania to the adverse interest of the taxpayer, consumer, investor and workingman.

Therefore, I vote "nay" on the bill.

Mr. YANOSHAT filed the following reason for his vote:

I vote "no" on House Bill No. 851 for the reason that it does not prohibit the meter service charge, and therefore is of no special benefit to the people of my district.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1779

The SPEAKER. The House will now return to House Bill No. 1779, the consideration of which was interrupted by the Special Orders.

The House had given its unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McGee. There were objections to the insertion of amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. McDevitt.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill was ordered to be transcribed for third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will state his question of information.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Do I understand, Mr. Speaker, that this bill has been transcribed for third reading?

The SPEAKER. It has been transcribed for third reading.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, was not the motion made that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered this evening?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. And, Mr. Speaker, was not the vote by which this bill passed third reading reconsidered this evening?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, did not the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McGee, offer amendments to the title, which were inserted in the bill?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, did not the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, offer amendments to which the House did not give its unanimous consent?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, was the bill ordered to be transcribed for third reading?

The SPEAKER. The amendments offered tonight were offered on third reading by unanimous consent. The gentleman from Philadelphia is attempting to put the bill back to second reading in order to again submit his amendments.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to question the gentleman from Philadelphia as to what is the purport of his amendments.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, the proposed amendments are to remove first of all two words from section 1, page 3, line 1, to wit: "fire and marine," and in addition to insert after the word "insurance" and before the word "warrant," also on page 3, line 3, the words "except contracts of fire or marine insurance."

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, would the effect of the gentleman's amendments then be to delete from the bill the right of the Insurance Department to inspect fire and marine policies?

Mr. McDEVITT. It would not, Mr. Speaker. Perhaps I should qualify that by saying that it would not as far as fire insurance is concerned, but it would as far as marine insurance is concerned.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, would it delete it as far as title insurance is concerned?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, it would not.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to inquire what is the gentleman's objection to having the Insurance Department inspect a policy of marine insurance written in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McDEVITT. I would answer that, Mr. Speaker, by saying that marine insurance is not a standardized risk. In other words, marine insurance is written on some specific risk as the result of an agreement between the company and the assured, and that is a type of insurance that must be placed in many instances in less time than would be necessary to draw up a policy that would be satisfactory and then attempt to submit it to the department to obtain their approval of the form. Now marine insurance, as I said before, is an agreement between the parties on specific risks which are various and which is not in any sense standard.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can see no reason why the bill should be further amended so as to delete from the bill the power of the Insurance Department to supervise the writing of marine insurance. There is no doubt that some of the argument of the gentleman from Philadelphia would lead one to believe a policy of marine insurance is of such a nature that it must be written immediately, and that the time limit is not present to permit the Insurance Department to pass upon it. However, to do so, would expose the insurance companies to the writing of very highly speculative insurance risks, which would in turn present a hazard to the other insurers of the insurance company and to the other individuals who are obtaining some of the benefit of the insurance company. There is no doubt that such a type of marine insurance is sometimes being written by what is known as Lloyds of London. However, we in Pennsylvania do not have the benefit of that type of underwriting. As a result, in order to protect both the insurance company and the insured it is necessary that the Insurance Department of Pennsylvania supervise marine insurance to the same effect that they supervise other underwriting.

I therefore ask the membership of this House to defeat the reconsideration of the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, it is not my intention either to debate the merits of the proposed amendments, but in conclusion may I just call the attention of the House to the provision in Senate Bill No. 70 which I understand is the departmental or new short code. Section 321 provides as follows: "Policies and contracts of marine insurance relating to a particular risk or enterprise, the terms of which are arrived at by mutual agreement between the parties or their duly authorized agents" — in other words, the proposed code specifically excepts a marine policy of that type for the very good reason that it is impossible to make it a standardized form, and the delay would eliminate the writing of such business in Pennsylvania.

Now, it may be a risk or it may not be a risk. I think people who have had experience in that line of business are best able to judge the type of risk it is, and I think it is a very poor argument to say that we should give these powers to the Department in order to protect the other assured of that company. I think that the companies take that into consideration and that we should take it into consideration at this time and eliminate the marine insurance policies from the provisions of this proposed act.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

Section 2 Section five hundred and seven of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 507 All bonds hereafter issued by any school district in this Commonwealth [after the approval of this act] shall be made payable and become due at stated periods [not exceeding thirty years after date thereof] as hereinafter provided and the school district issuing the same shall in its annual tax levy provide in such manner and at such times as it may determine for the payment thereof [within thirty years] at or before maturity with interest Provided That any school district hereafter issuing any bonds may provide therein for its rights to anticipate the payment thereof at such stated times as it may deem proper

All bonds issued for the purposes provided for in this act shall be made payable not exceeding twenty-five years after date of Provided That all bonds issued to pay outstanding bonds which have been called for payment before date of maturity shall be made payable not later than the date of maturity of the original bonds and Provided That all bonds issued to refund bonds at the date of their maturity shall be made payable not later than ten years after the date of issuance of such refunding bonds Provided further however that bonds may be issued to fund temporary indebtedness incurred for current expenses and debt service prior to the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and such bonds shall be payable as hereinafter provided not exceeding twenty years from the date of said bonds

All bonds hereafter issued by any school district shall be serial bonds The retirement of the principal shall commence not later than three years after date of said bonds and thereafter annual installments of principal shall be paid in as nearly equal amounts as the bond issue will permit Provided that if the amount of bonds of any bond issue existing prior to the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven maturing in any single year is in excess of five per cent of the total amount of such bond issue the amount in excess of five per cent of such bond issue may be refunded by the board of school directors of any school district without the assent of the electors The retirement of the principal of such refunding bonds shall commence not later than one year after date of said bonds and annual installments of principal shall be paid in as nearly equal amounts as the bond issue will permit as hereinbefore provided

The assent of the electors shall be required in all school districts of the second third and fourth class in this Commonwealth to issue bonds which will incur any new debt or increase the indebtedness including the bonded indebtedness together with the temporary indebtedness to an amount in excess of two per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property for school purposes therein Provided That the indebtedness of any such school district shall never exceed seven (7) per centum of the last assessed valuation of taxable property for school purposes therein Provided further That the board of school directors of any first second third or fourth class school district shall have authority without the assent of the electors to issue bonds to incur upon its own authority any amount of such indebtedness not in excess of two (2) per centum of the last assessed valuation of taxable property for school purposes therein Provided further That the board of school directors in any school district may issue all refunding bonds as herein provided upon its own authority without submitting any such refunding bond issue to a vote of the electors

Any school district which calls bonds for payment prior to the date of maturity as hereinbefore provided may issue bonds for the purpose of paying any or all such bonds as may be called for payment All bonds issued for the purpose of refunding bonds shall be issued according to the provisions hereinbefore provided for the issuing of such bonds

It shall be the duty of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to require as part of the annual financial reports of all the school districts a list of the amount of bonds or other indebtedness that becomes due during the fiscal year together with the amount paid on each item of indebtedness In case of failure on the part of any school district to furnish such report at the required time after the close of the fiscal year the State Superintendent of Public Instruction may withhold any State appropriation that may become due to any such school district until such report covering information regarding the maturities of indebtedness and payments on same during the preceding fiscal year as required herein and any other information which he may require of a school district has been received In all cases where an audit under the direction of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction reveals that the board of directors of any school district has in any year failed to pay or to provide for the payment any indebtedness at date of maturity in accordance with the schedule under which the bonds were issued the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify such board of school directors of its obligation and may withhold all State appropriations that may become due to such school district until such time as he is officially advised that all obligations of such school district with reference to any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness past due have been met and paid in full or arrangements to pay same have been made in a satisfactory manner and approved by him

Section 3 Section five hundred and eighteen of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 518 Any school district in this Commonwealth [established by this act which assumed and] which is [hereby] required to pay any school indebtedness existing at the time of the approval of this act may establish a sinking fund for the purpose of liquidating the same

Any school district in this Commonwealth which hereafter incurs any bonded indebtedness shall at or before the time of so doing levy and provide for the collection of an annual tax sufficient for the payment thereof together with interest as per the schedule of maturities in the bond proceedings as provided in this act and shall establish a sinking fund for the purpose of payment of such bonds

Section 4 Section one thousand two hundred ten of the said act as last amended by the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P L 993) is hereby further amended by the addition of a new paragraph to read as follows

Section 1210

27 The payroll obligations of each school district in this Commonwealth shall be preferential claims It shall be the duty of the board of school directors of each district to provide for the payment of any other current expense except for fuel water electric service or such supplies as are actually essential for keeping the schools in session In order to meet payroll requirements the board shall if necessary negotiate such short term loans as are necessary and possible in accordance with the law governing the borrowing powers of the district

Section 5 All other provisions of the laws of the State of Pennsylvania or parts thereof inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed Provided That the repeal of said provisions or parts thereof shall in no way affect the legality of the issue of any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued under laws previously in force Provided That the provisions of this act shall not be construed to be inconsistent with or as repealing in whole or in part any provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P L 813)

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 7 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. OSTROFF, (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 84.

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Whereas, The legal profession, from time to time is subjected to public criticism; and

Whereas, Much of the criticism is directed to a lack of proper control by the State over the members of the bar; and

Whereas, Were all the members of the bar of Pennsylvania subject to a State bar organization, a higher standard of professional conduct might be obtained; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a commission is hereby created which shall consist of nine members, who are members of the bar, three of whom shall be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and three shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House, and three shall be appointed by the Pennsylvania Bar Association. The commission shall organize, at the call of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, by electing a chairman, vice-chairman, and a secretary. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties. It shall be the duty of the commission to study the forms of the various state integrated bars and to determine the features best suited for adaptation by this State, in the event that the commission is of the opinion that the State bar integration system of organization is a step forward in the advancement of justice and that it is likely to restore greater public confidence in the legal profession.

The commission shall present its report to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

STATEMENT BY Mr. TURNER.

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, about ten days ago I offered a resolution in this House asking the State Treasurer for information as to the amount of money which was due to the different school districts of the Commonwealth. You will recall that I asked for immediate consideration of the resolution, which was not granted. The Chairman of the Appropriations Committee told me or advised me that he would secure from the State Treasurer the necessary information. While this information is not as detailed as I asked in my resolution, there was due as of the date—and this is about three or four days old now—there was due in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties alone one million one hundred sixty-two thousand dollars, and due all other school districts in the State five million one hundred thousand dollars, or a total of six million two hundred sixty-two thousand dollars. I am sure that if this detailed information which I had requested had been given, that it would show that a large part of this money was overdue from February, perhaps some of it back of that. I know that a number of the State-aided institutions also have not received their money.

In the meantime, I find that there is approximately twenty-five or twenty-six million dollars in the General Fund. It does not seem to me fair that our school districts that are in need of money be kept from that money when there is this large cash balance in the General Fund of the Commonwealth, and therefore, Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

SCHOOL FUNDS

Mr. TURNER offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Whereas, There is overdue by the Commonwealth to the school districts of Philadelpha and Pittsburgh the sum of $1,162,000.00; and to all other school districts, the sum of $5,100,000.00, a large part of which has been due since February; and

Whereas, There was on May 11th, a cash balance in the General Fund of the State Treasury of over $26,000,000.00, while these school districts are in urgent need of these funds to meet payments to their teachers; therefore be it

Resolved, That the State Treasurer be requested to immediately pay to the school districts, moneys due to them by the Commonwealth as required by law.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

STATEMENT BY Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, I just wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that while the Commonwealth has a balance of some twenty-five million dollars it will be necessary to—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from York having refused consent to the consideration of the resolution is now undertaking to discuss the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The House gave unanimous consent to the gentleman to make a statement.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call attention to the fact that while we have twenty-five million dollars in the Treasury, it will be necessary before the end of the biennium to make a payment which I think amounts to fifteen million dollars to complete sinking fund requirements under our two tax anticipation note loans. I might also call the attention of the members of the House as well as the citizens of the Commonwealth to the fact that we are completing a financial program of ninety-five million dollars, fifty million dollars in a first tax anticipation issue and forty-five million dollars in a second tax anticipation issue, and we are completing the sinking fund requirements at their dates. When the biennium ends on May 31st, the Commonwealth will have experienced one of its most momentous, gigantic financial programs ever undertaken by any Administration, and all credit is due to the financial genius of the Administration.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I wish to offer the following resolution.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 749 FROM THE SENATE

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives May 17, 1937.

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That Senate Bill No. 749, Printer's No. 454, which was passed by the House May 12 with amendments, and messaged to the Senate for concurrence, be recalled by the House from the Senate for the purpose of further amendment.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. TURNER. Speaking of the resolution, Mr. Speaker, I presume that this has something to do with the financial situation of the Commonwealth.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inform the gentleman from Delaware that this resolution has nothing whatever to do with the financial condition of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from York, I am now suspicious of his resolution by reason of the language contained therein. At the same time having secured the floor for the purpose of answering on the resolution on which he has already blocked the passage, I cannot tell whether the resolution to recall some bill from the Governor pertains to some of the finances of the State or not, and therefore I deem it my privilege to answer the gentleman from York by saying that I understood from the Governor's message that we were to have a three million dollar balance, and I was assured by the gentleman from York on many occasions that we had plenty of money. The gentleman from York says that out of the twenty-five million dollars, fifteen million dollars were to be paid on the notes, that would leave ten million dollars, and after deducting the six million dollars which I want for the schools, four million dollars would be left. Collections for half a month are yet to come and the ordinary operating expenses of the government run about seventeen million dollars, so that the gentleman from York, while he was engaged in taking advantage of an opportunity to spread his wings—I didn't know whether he was speaking of himself as being a great financial wizard of the Commonwealth or whether it was Judge Kalodner or whether it was the Governor, but whichever one of the three it is, with all the money they say is going to be collected from the taxes, and the balance of three million dollars they claim will be in the Treasury, on May 31st there could be no reason why this money should not be paid to the schools. Therefore I object to this recall resolution because it might have something to do with the schools.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Highways be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 896, entitled:

An Act for the relief of the burden of local taxation; making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund; providing for the allocation thereof to cities, incorporated towns, boroughs and townships for road and street purposes; requiring such political subdivisions to reduce their tax rates; and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Internal Affairs, the Department of the Auditor General, and the Treasury Department, and on cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships and officers thereof.

said bill having been in the hands of said committee ten days or more, that is, from February 17, 1937.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, out of respect to the hour and the business before us, but nevertheless realizing the importance of this motion, I wish to remind the Speaker and the members of the House that on February 17th I presented to this House, and the Speaker referred to the Committee on Highways, House Bill No. 896. Two weeks ago, we heard the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland deliver a most worthy appeal for legislation to aid local communities through an equitable refund unto them of highway funds. Following that appeal, and in voicing my approval thereof, I suggested the reporting out and passage of House Bill 896. The very courteous Chairman of the Commitee on Highways, the gentleman of the Committee on Highways, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kilroy, advised us that the bill was reposing in the hands of a sub-committee composed of five members. Nothing since then has occurred to disturb this repose, and the bill still remains in committee. Believing that a bill of such content, purpose and public endorsement deserves a more honorable fate than asphyxiation in the obscure darkness and dust of a pigeon hole, I have moved that it be brought before this House, if to be buried, then to be buried in public at least, therefor I moved to discharge this committee from further consideration of the bill.

In support of that motion, and out of consideration of the lateness of the hour, I am going to submit but three of the many reasons why this bill should be brought before the House in these final days of the session for action.

The first reason is the bill itself. Now, I appreciate that on a motion of this type I cannot discuss the merit of the bill, and it is not my intention to do so, but it is simply the first one of the reasons for reporting it out. It is a bill to allocate to the various municipal sub-divisions of the Commonwealth for the relief of local taxes, and the reduction of local taxes, sixty eight million dollars to be pro-rated approximately on the basis of two hundred and thirty-five dollars per mile or two dollars per capita, which means that under the bill it will be a tax reduction bill. I would suggest that many of you who are interested in that procedure, representing boroughs and townships, either first or second class, cities of the second class, second class A and third class, I will not take your time, but I will take it for granted that possibly some of you may read the bill that I am asking to have brought before the House.

That is the first reason.

My second reason is that the public demands and is entitled to have this bill considered by this body. The people, by whom we were elected, whose interests we are pledged to serve, and to whom we must make an accounting have spoken in loud and unmistakable terms. And having heard expressed so often in this House, the phrase "mandate of the people" we cannot now profess ignorance of the implications of such a term. This mandate, in loud and unmistakable terms has been voiced by letters, petitions and resolutions, appearing on the pages of your Legislative Journal, in your possession and in my possession, among them are:

The Pennsylvania Home Rule Association and more than 700 local home rule groups.

State Association of Township Supervisors representing 1512 second class townships.

The League of Boroughs representing 960 boroughs.

The League of Third Class Cities representing 43 third class cities.

The Conference of Allied Local Officials, representing 10 State-wide organizations.

And in addition thereto scores of civic and taxpayers organizations, motor clubs and tens of thousands of citizens throughout the State.

In truth the people of Pennsylvania have spoken, and demand that we fulfill their requests. What if a few of the administration leaders are opposed to the bill. The time is here for you to declare publicly whether you owe your obligations to the public, or to the whim and dictate of a political boss.

And that is the second reason.

The third reason goes to the sanctity of campaign pledges and promises. Many of you, as did this member, pledged verbally or in writing that if elected, you would: "Aid in reducing taxes on real estate for road and street purposes by supporting legislation to return unto cities, boroughs and townships a just share of the motor fund, to be used by the officials thereof for the maintenance and construction of local roads and streets not on the State Highway system."

I have stated publicly on numerous occasions, and again repeat, that in my opinion this House is composed of honorable men, to whom a pledge is more than a mouthful of words to gain a vote. Therefore such men, having made a promise will not only realize the obligation and duty of a promise made, but likewise are sufficiently wise to realize the penalty of a promise violated.

We are in the last days of a strenuous session. Much more is pending. So far we have done little for the interest and benefit of the local taxpayers. Reduction of local taxes, the most outstanding issue of the last campaign is being ignored.

Tonight we are facing the showdown. The issue is clearly drawn; the public is awaiting the answer. They are awaiting to discover to whom you owe your allegiance, to the people who elected you, or to political bosses. "Ye cannot serve both God and man" says the Bible, therefore, if your allegiance is to the bosses, if you are opposed to the reduction of local taxes, then vote "no"; if your allegiance is to the public, and you desire the reduction of local taxes, then vote "yes."

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

RESOLUTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of the Chairman of the Highway Committee, and myself being vice-chairman, I would ask at this time that this resolution be laid on the table, inasmuch as there are certain bills now going through that have to deal with this subject, and this House has passed the same and they are now in the Senate.

I therefore move that the resolution be tabled.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. PERRY and Mr. JACOB F. MATTHEWS.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

RESOLUTIONS

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Once more we pause from our duties and responsibilities to make fitting note of the passing of one near and dear to a high official of this Commonwealth, for the Angel of Death has seen fit to take Mrs. Catherine A. Earle Mather, a sister of the Governor, who died at her home in Haverford, early this morning.

It is with deep feeling that we offer our condolence to Governor Earle, to Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., the mother of the deceased, and to the members of her family; and we hereby direct the Chief Clerk of this House to transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor and to Mrs George H. Earle, Jr.

Mr. TURNER offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1159 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. SPENGLER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 1159, Printer's No. 731, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand six of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 624) entitled 'An act relating to the business of banking and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of National banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties, and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," as amended, by providing further with regard to limitations upon loans to one corporation or person," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. LEWIS offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

GREETINGS

Mr. RICHTER offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Conewago is one of the first centers of Catholic activity in Pennsylvania and the oldest place of religious worship of any denomination west of the Susquehanna River. As early as 1721 the first mass was said in this territory and instruction given for the benefit of the Christian Indians inhabiting the Conewago Valley. The home of Colonel Robert Owings with its large room and wide hall was used as a gathering place where mass was heard. In 1753 the first resident pastor Father Mathias Manners, S. J. was appointed. In 1785 Father Pellentz tore down the original St. Mary's Chapel and began on the same spot the erection of the stately and handsome stone edifice which still dominates the countryside. This church was finally completed in 1787 and on May 31, this year will be celebrated the two hundred anniversary of the building of this chapel which was opened to the people under the patronage of the Sacred Heart, therefore be it Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives record this minute of the celebration of an important historical occasion in the religious and cultural life of the Commonwealth, and sends to the pastor and congregation of St. Mary's Chapel their greetings, at the celebration of this inspiring event.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the pastor of St. Mary's Chapel by the Chief Clerk of this House.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1642 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. O'KEEFE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives May 17, 11937.

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), that House Bill No. 1642, Printer's No. 814, entitled "An Act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties political bodies registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions county election boards election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics certain municipality corporations real estate brokers rental agent and boards of school directors and imposing penalties" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the unanimous consent of the House to call up out of order, House Bill No. 1984, Printer's No. 918, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred five) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highway peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" as amended by adding new sections further regulating the use of highways and the operation of and the equipment used in connection with vehicles including trailers and semi-trailers street cars trackless trolley omnibuses school buses and commercial motor cycles upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing exemptions extending certain provisions of the act to trailers and semi-trailers providing for the renewal and automatic satisfaction of encumbrances and liens and further amending the procedure relating thereto providing for the further registration of certain vehicles and the licensing of the operators thereof including additional requirements reciprocity agreements and additional reasons for suspension and revocation conferring additional powers and imposing additional duties upon the Department of Revenue and the Department of Highways further imposing upon municipalities within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of fire department equipment changing the procedure disposition of fines and penalties for certain violations of the act and making the fines thereunder mandatory and extending existing penalties and providing additional penalties on page 8, of today's calendar, bill on second reading.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to call up this bill? Are there objections?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Blair is asking unanimous consent to call this bill up out of order, is he not?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears an objection and consent is not granted.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE No. 14

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Rule No. 14 be suspended for the specific purpose of calling up House Bill No. 1984, Printer's No. 918.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, what part of the order of the day are we now on?

The SPEAKER. Resolutions.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the motion is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. A motion to suspend the rules is in order at any time.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the question on the motion to suspend Rule No. 14.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it that part of the order of the day we are now on is resolutions, is that correct?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Blair has asked unanimous consent to call up out of order a bill which is on the second reading calendar today, has he not?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the bill had not passed second reading. The motion now, as I understand it, is a motion to suspend the rule to allow him to call it up, but the order of the day is resolutions, and therefore nothing is in order at this time but resolutions, there is no rule to suspend, to permit the calling up of a bill.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman desires the Chair will state that Rule No. 14 fixes the daily order of business, and the order of the day. The gentleman from Blair wishes to change the order of the day and he has made a motion to that effect.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I did not so understand the motion of the gentleman from Blair. May I ask, Mr. Speaker, that the motion be re-stated.

The SPEAKER. It has been moved by the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Aukerman, that House Rule No. 14 be suspended for the specific purpose of considering House Bill No. 1984, Printer's No. 918, which is a bill on second reading on page 8 of today's calendar.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, with all due respect to the Chair, I do not believe that that was the motion of the gentleman from Blair to suspend the rule. He had to have unanimous consent to call up the bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman did ask unanimous consent, which was refused, and the gentleman then made the motion to suspend Rule No. 14 for the specific purpose of considering House Bill No. 1984.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow at 1:00 p. m.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring

Will the House agree to the motion to suspend House Rule No. 14?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, while the motion of the gentleman may not be debatable on the point concerning which I desire to make the statement, however, I would ask the indulgence of the House to say that the reason why I opposed the motion of the gentleman from Blair was because I understood there are amendments that some of the members on this side desire to offer to this bill. To call it up now, offer amendments and have it pass second reading would seem to me extremely unfair at this time, because apparently of the supposition of the members of the House that having reached "Resolutions", apparently at the end of the calendar, that there would be no such action taken.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, I desire to state that my specific reason in calling up this bill tonight was to secure prompt action upon it, and inasmuch as certain Democratic members, as well as Republican members, had amendments to offer an argeement was made that all such amendments should be placed in this bill in the Senate, due to the fact that it will cost considerable to have this bill reprinted, and that is why I am insisting upon my motion to suspend Rule No. 14.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, is the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Northampton. Mr. Jirolanio, now in the House?

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Jirolanio, present? The Chair believes the gentleman is not present.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I have amendments, I have had no agreement with the sponsor of the bill as to amendments, and I propose to offer them and insist upon a vote on them if the bill is called up.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to suspend House Rule No. 14?

On a rising vote eighty-six members, less than a majority required under the Rule voting in the affirmative and thirty-one in the negative, the motion was not agreed to.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1360.

An Act to amend sections two thousand six hundred and twenty-two and two thousand six hundred and twenty-six of the act approved the eighteeth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended extending the time within which appeals from auditors' reports may be taken

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House signed the same.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. TURNER. RESOLUTION No. 85.

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Whereas, There is overdue by the Commonwealth to the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh the sum of $1,162,000.00; and to all other school districts, the sum of $5,100,000.00, a large part of which has been due since February; and

Whereas, There was on May 11th, a cash balance in the General Fund of the State Treasury of over $26,000,000.00, while these school districts are in urgent need of these funds to meet payments to their teachers; therefore be it

Resolved, That the State Treasurer be requested to immediately pay to the school districts, moneys due to them by the Commonwealth as required by law.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. TURNER. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 86.

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Whereas, Reliable reports indicate that the number of persons employed at the present time equals the average number employed during the period from one thousand nine hundred twenty-three to one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine, and

Whereas, The amount of money expended for unemployment relief does not bear out these reports, and

Whereas, It is important to ascertain wherein this descrepancy exists, if in fact it does so, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that the Department of Labor and Industry is hereby directed to make a census by counties of the unemployed and in said census to specifically ascertain the number of unemployed employables and the number who are unemployable, and to ascertain such other facts as may be pertinent to the gaining of information relating to the problem of unemployment, and to publish the results of its investigation and furnish copies thereof to the public authorities engaged in the distribution of relief and public assistance.

Resolved, That an item of appropriation be inserted in the general appropriation law to pay the costs and expenses of making said census.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Labor and Industry by the Chief Clerk of this House.

By Messrs. OSTROFF and LEWIS.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 87.

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1937.

Whereas, The President of the United States has by proclamation designated May 22, 1937, the 128th anniversary of the sailing of the S. S. "Savannah" across the Atlantic Ocean, as National Maritime Day; and

Whereas, This day will be celebrated in the various ports and cities throughout the United States with representatives of local, state and federal governments participating, as well as the representatives of private industry, shipping, transportation and maritime enterprise; and

Whereas, The 150th Anniversary of the United States Constitutional Convention in the City of Philadelphia is being celebrated throughout the nation, and particularly in the City of Philadelphia; and

Whereas, The City of Philadelphia, the only ocean port of this Commonwealth, has always been associated with the maritime development and history of the United States from the earliest Colonial times; and

Whereas, The Delaware River, on which the first steamboat was built, has always been an important commercial artery of the United States, supporting important and diversified industries; and

Whereas, The Port of Philadelphia is an important naval base and shipbuilding center; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, take cognizance of the fact that the President of the United States has by proclamation designated May 22, 1937 as National Maritime Day; heartily endorse and encourage the purpose and observance of the day, in the various ports and cities of the nation and particularly in Philadelphia and throughout the Commonwealth; note the importance of its great port, Philadelphia, internationally known by reason of its colorful history and its splendid modern harbor and transportation facilities, in the economic life of the nation and the welfare and prosperity of this Commonwealth; and declare its interest in an improved and adequate American Merchant Marine; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent forthwith to the Governor of the Commonwealth with the request that he issue a proclamation calling for the proper observance of National Maritime Day.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1937. No. 60.

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 18, 1937.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. GEORGE WALKER BUCKNER, LL. D., offered the following prayer:

Our God and our Father! Thou art the eternal Spirit, and if we would be true worshipers, we know we must worship Thee in spirit and in truth.

We would seek the truth that sets men free. Thy word is truth. Make us alert to see the open door, and wise to buy up the opportunities of service.

We exult and glorify the present age, beset with menace, yet fraught with wondrous possibility. Under Thee, we would make it a golden age. In the murmurs of restlessness and discontent we hear the call of our God. Impart to us a spirit of dare, and in the audacity of honest venture, may we seek to do Thy will.

Our Father, may Thy counsel guide us in our endeavors to serve our day and generation. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. RANKIN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communications:

ASKING THAT MOTOR FUNDS BE RETURNED TO LOCAL POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

Mr. REED presented petitions from various citizens of Washington County, demanding that the Motor Fund collected from local roads and streets be returned to the local subdivisions, so that the tax on real estate for road and street purposes be eliminated.

Which was referred to the Committee on Municipal Government.

URGING SUPPORT OF SENATE BILL No. 815.

Mr. RANKIN presented petitions from employees of Baehr Brothers, McKeesport, Pa., urging support of Senate Bill No. 815, relative to the merchandising of second-hand automobiles at retail.

He also presented petitions urging support on the same bill from employees of the Boyer Motor Company, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Which were referred to the Commitee on Highways.

OPPOSING ANY BILL WHICH WOULD ABOLISH SYSTEM OF POOR RELIEF

Petitions from numerous citizens throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania opposing any bill which is to abolish the present system of general poor relief by elected Poor Directors, or to curtail or limit their powers and duties under existing law.

Which was referred to the Committee on Welfare.

An Act making an appropriation to the several fire companies of the city of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Also, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1230 (House Bill No.), entitled:

An Act providing for the creation of a trade school in cities of the first class and making an appropriation.

Mr. EROE, from the Committee on County Government, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 210 (House Bill No. 301), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one hundred eighty-two and one hundred eighty-three and to add sections one hundred fifty and one- tenth one hundred fifty and two-tenths one hundred, fifty and three-tenths and one hundred fifty and four-tenths to the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" requiring all county officers hereafter appointed or elected upon the expiration of their terms, to pay over to the county treasurer all moneys in their possession for which they are liable to account under their respective bonds together with a statement thereof and providing for the payment out of such moneys providing for the escheat of certain moneys held in the county treasury and releasing such county officers.

Also, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1117, entitled:

An Act to amend the act of the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 922) by restricting the sale and transportation of goods, wares and merchandise prepared and manufactured within and without this Commonwealth by convicts and prisoners, and providing penalties.

Also, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 764 (House Bill No. 76), entitled:

An Act to promote the safety of employes and travelers upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to man locomotive trains and other self propelled engines or machines with competent employes to provide the least number of men that may be employed on locomotive trains and other self propelled engines or machines to provide the qualifications of certain employes and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof and the enforcement thereof by the Public Utility Commission.

Mr. JACOBS, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1223, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 879) entitled "An act regulating the sale in bulk of fifty-one per centum or more of the stock of goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, fixtures, machinery equipment or real estate, by every corporation, joint-stock association, limited partnership or company; providing certain requirements therefor and imposing certain duties upon the seller and buyer and fixing penalties," providing for the payment of unemployment compensation contributions.

Mr. BUCKMAN, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1220, entitled:

An Act to validate conveyances purporting to be the act and deed of a corporation heretofore erroneously executed and acknowledged, or executed and acknowledged by persons purporting to be agents of or trustees for a corporation which has since been dissolved.

Also, from the Committee on Federal Relations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1304, entitled:

An Act for the conveyance to the United States of America of title in and to certain lands in the Township of Fairview, County of York, and ceding to the United States jurisdiction over said lands.

Also, from the Committee on Insurance re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1241, (House Bill No. 1764), entitled:

An Act relating to certain existing beneficial societies, conferring certain rights, powers and duties upon them, their officers and members, authorizing the payment of benefits by them in the event of sickness, accident, disability or death, regulating such societies and corporations and limiting the amount for which they may issue membership certificates or policies providing for reserves, imposing penalties and repealing certain existing laws and parts of law.

Mr. FREY, from the Committee on Appropriations reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 627, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for acquisition of land by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, for State Park purposes.

Also, from the Committee on Appropriations reported as committed Senate Bill No. 940, entitled:

An Act authorizing the acquisition in the name of the Commonwealth by the Department of Forests and Waters of Braddock's Park and Jumonville Park by purchase, control, and for the management and the supervision thereof, and appropriating funds for such acquisition.

Also, from the Committee on Appropriations reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1215, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the acquisition of certain lands as state forest lands.

Also, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1075, entitled:

An Act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating employment in this Commonwealth, with respect to hours and conditions of employment; providing for certain exceptions; imposing duties, liabilities and conditions on employers; defining the powers and duties of the Department of Labor and Industry and its officers and representatives; and providing penalties.

With the understanding it will be amended later.

The PRESIDENT, The Chair presents to the Senate, in response to Senate Resolution, a report from the State Emergency Relief Board, with the names, salaries, etc. of all its employees. Pursuant to custom, the report will be available for inspection in the office of the Secretary, and will be printed in the appendix of the Legislative Journal.

MOTION TO PRINT

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that two copies of this report be printed for the use of each Senator.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. May the Chair say that the reports will not be available until Monday, next. We cannot get them out before that date, but the report is in the secretary's office for inspection. It is a public document and will be published in the appendix of the Journal, in addition thereto.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman on his motion.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the Senator from Bucks insist upon his motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, absolutely.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, may I inquire from the Senator from Bucks the purpose of printing the report? It will cost considerable money for printing and as the report will appear in the appendix of the Journal, anyone who is particularly interested can refer to it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it should be printed for the use of the Senate. It is a document that we ought to have separate and apart from the Legislative Journal. Furthermore, we do not know when we will get the Legislative Journal, probably in mid-summer. It has been my experience that at the end of the Session there is so much printing to be done that the State printer cannot keep up, especially the appendix, and it probably will not be complete until late in the summer.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I saw the document handed up by the Clerk to the President, and it will probably run into hundreds of pages, and in addition to that, there are names and addresses of employees of the State contained in the report which should not be circulated freely, and there is no reason for printing these names and addresses and the information that comes to us merely as members of this Legislative Body. The printing of this matter will make it public property for circulation for any and all purposes, and it seems to me that the Senate ought to vote down such a motion, aside from the question of expense.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is that the Senate authorize the printing of two copies of the report of the State Emergency Relief Board for each Senator.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it is an incidental matter, and I am objecting to it because of the expense. We are having a tremendous printer's bill and this will cost at least $1000. It does not make any difference whether you have two copies printed for each member, you might as well say fifty copies for each Member, as it does not cost any more money. I do not think that any member should ask for that expense when we promised to give him copies of the report.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President. I have been informed that the Department of Welfare is now preparing mimeographed copies of this list at the request of the Senate, and as soon as these mimeographed copies can be prepared, that is the actual mechanics of the mimeographing, they are to be put in the hands of the Senators. I think in view of all these circumstances as related by these other Senators, and the fact that the lists are being prepared for us as speedily as they can be prepared, it is not at all necessary to impose this expense on the Commonwealth.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT, Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, can the Senator from Centre, give us any idea when we will have these mimeographed copies?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I understand that they expect to have them before the adjournment this week. It is absolutely impossible—I have taken this up myself, as I want a copy of this list—to get them out much quicker than that. Everybody knows that it is a big job to prepare this list and it will probably take the State printer all of that time or longer.

The PRESIDENT. The State Printer advises that it will take 296 hours to print it.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I think the speediest way is to direct the department of Welfare to have the list mimeographed.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to withdraw my former motion, and I now move that the Clerk be instructed to furnish at least one copy of the report to each member of the Senate, as soon as it may be found convenient.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, since the information contained in this report is so valuable in the consideration of the bills pertaining to relief now on the Calendar, I would like to ask the Senator from Centre, if he will agree to postpone action on the bill sponsored by him pertaining to relief, until a copy of the report is in the hands of the Senators, so that we may intelligently know just what we are voting for in these bills.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, as much as I would like to accede to the request of my colleague, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, I believe at this late date in the Session any such request could hardly be complied with, and at the same time pass very necessary legislation.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, of what good is the report to us after we have voted on the bills you have introduced pertaining to that subject.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the answer to the inquiry of the Senator from Fayette is simply this: as I remember this resolution, it called for information as of January 1st, and as of April 1st, and I see no reason why the sponsor of the bill should have waited until May to introduce a resolution calling for information up to April 1st. The sponsor is really to blame for any lack of information that we have suffered during this past month.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to the question of Personal Privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to make the second preliminary report of the Committee covering the tax study and comparisons by the Tax Study Commission covering the Anthracite Coal Industry which the Commission was appointed by this Legislature. The report is as follows:

SECOND PRELIMINARY REPORT OF THE TAX STUDY COMMISSION
COVERING THE ANTHRACITE COAL INDUSTRY

Senators: John H. Dent, Chairman
Frederick T. Gelder
Israel Stiefel
Representatives: Harry E. Trout, Vice Chairman
Samuel A. Weiss, Secretary
James E. Lovett

Your Commission on comparative studies in the result of taxes on Pennsylvania industry has previously given a preliminary report on the conditions surrounding the Bituminous Mining Industry. We take this opportunity to read into the records a preliminary report covering the Anthracit e Mining Industry. Your Commission spent three full days conferring with operators, miners and business men visiting colleries and breakers and touring the extensive workings in the three counties of Schuylkill, Luzerne and Lackawanna. We feel that this report may act as a guide when discussions pertaining to taxes and regulations come before this body.

The history of Anthracite is interesting and its importance was really discovered through an accident. This accident has led to one of the largest wealth producing industries in the whole world It has truly been said that Anthracite is more exclusive than gold—gold having been found and mined in every section of the world; whereas, the world's largest pocket of Anthracite can only be found in Pennsylvania. There are approximately 12,000 square miles in the Anthracite bed. It has been used to heat approximately 6,000,000 homes. It supplies more railway tonnage annually than comes from some whole states and is responsible for the prosperity of at least a dozen railroads. There are approximately 600,000 people in these coal counties who are dependent upon the activities in the Anthracite fields.

This Commission will show the increase in taxes and we shall take various exhibitions to illustrate our findings. One company called Company A, having holdings in five counties, shows a shocking increase in the local taxation. Let us take the figures: In 1908 the total assessed valuation was rated at $19,028,174. This is increased to $59,621,768. for the same land in 1936. The taxes paid in 1908 were $378,420. as compared to $2,274,841. in 1936. Those are the net taxes after taking advantage of all discounts and not including taxes paid by companies working out leases on the same property, remembering of course that practically all of this land is undeveloped, unmined land. The increase in valuation is in reality a tonnage tax on unmined coal. This Commission will in the near future break these figures down to show the amount of taxes paid per ton on unmined coal and how such taxes increase the year by year cost of mining Anthracite coal to the point that taxes amount to more than the actual value of the coal per ton. To further illustrate this picture, we will break down the taxes as paid by this Company.

In 1908, the taxes were broken down to show as compared to 1936:

Year	County	Road or Boro	School	Poor Board
1908	$103,428.	$93,494.	$ 163,345.	$ 18,152.
1936	472,482.	287,088.	1,281,686.	233,584.

We can insert at this time four illustrations to show that the method of computing land valuations in the Anthracite fields is not based on any given formula or standard scale:

1. Glentworth Tract—Blythe Township, Schuylkill County 329 acres
   1913 valuation—$ 72,704. (virgin coal)
   1936 valuation— 177,625. One-half of coal already mined—no differential set between mined and unmined lands
2. Eagle Hill—Blythe Township, Schuylkill County 325 acres
   1913 valuation—$ 71,820.
   1936 valuation— 168,125.—2/3 exhausted. Worked continuously until 1929
3. Branch Township—Schuylkill County 38 acres
   1913 valuation—$ 8,702.
   1936 valuation— 24,206.
4. Lindsay Coates Tract—Branch Township, Schuylkill County 110 acres
   1913 valuation—$22,041. or $200. plus an acre
   1936 valuation— 61,820. or 562. " "
   Virgin coal estimate—10,747,000 tons
   Mined out — 2,367,000 "

   Coal left in ground in 1936 — 8,380,000 tons

This tends to show that the industry is in a peculiar position of paying on coal lands that are no longer coal lands, in some instances paying the same taxes on land that has been completely exhausted as on land that is as yet unmined.

The Anthracite industry has paid total taxes ranging from $5,783,000 in 1916 to $10,899,000 in 1935 exclusive of the Pennsylvania tonnage tax and the federal income tax. This industry employs a total of 212,033 men in the mining operations. This work is a decrease from the figures of 1929 when there were 323,359 men employed. This decrease is partially due to a loss of markets caused by the competition from cheaper fuels and the inability of the Anthracite companies to market their coal at a lower price due to the fixed charges, rail rates, labor and taxes. It may also be interesting to note that this one company had a differential in 1913 taxes to 1935 taxes of approximately $1,896,000 in increases and yet mined 3,936,000 tons less in 1936 than was mined in 1913, which should demonstrate that the increased cost of coal is directly traceable to the increased real estate taxation due consideration given to all other tax increases. It may be interesting at this time to carry this particular argument to the field of compensation costs per ton. This Commission, with its own statistician, removed records directly from the books of companies actively engaged in the mining of Anthracite and submits for consideration at this time figures on compensation from 1932 to 1936, showing that there is a stabilized cost per ton well established within the industry. From 1932 to 1936, the following figures were true:

Year	Total Tonnage	Mined Tonnage	Disbursements	Cost Per Gross Ton (Mined Tonnage)	Cost Per Gross Ton (All Ton)
1932	5,506,161	4,754,367	$721,887.66	.152	.131
1933	5,177,080	4,150,862	614,799.97	.148	.119
1934	7,112,243	5,829,215	597,286.94	.102	.084
1935	5,937,607	4,920,884	596,782.75*	.121	.10
1936	6,804,599	4,616,543	612,436.90	.111	.09

*Excluding Gilberton Colliery Accident of 1-21-35.

Following this further, we find that by comparing the provisions of the new proposed compensation act to the present compensation act, assuming the same case records as were true in 1936, we find that the figure of $612,436 for 1936 will have jumped to $2,690,486 for the same number of accidents under the same conditions, or an increase to this one particular company of $2,084,091. Those figures, reduced to a tonnage basis show an increase from $.11 per ton to $.49 per ton if Workmen's Compensation Act, House Bill No. 99, is passed with its present provisions.

There are many other angles to the tax and regulation question in the Anthracite Industry and your Commission will make a more comprehensive report in the immediate future. However, it is sufficient to say that this Commission, as a group, was very much impressed with the magnitude of the Anthracite Industry and the tendency already in practice in some fields to close the large operations in favor of subleasing to small individuals who can circumvent certain restrictions and establish policies, thus operating cheaper and mine profitably on a small margin. Of course, we find that these small operators do not participate in the educational program of the industry which is trying to reestablish the supremacy of Anthracite in certain sections of our country. This gives them an additional advantage. It is interesting to note that these small operators as a group state that the increased cost of compensation will wipe out all their trade advantages and will necessarily curtail and eventually eliminate their operations. We insert at this time the record of a small company taken right from their books, showing for the month of March 1937 an operating loss of $7,456.75. This company states that any further increases will automatically close its operations, thus depriving the community of a payroll of $123,488.34 per month.

An interesting set of figures showing the importance of this industry indicates that for the years 1935 and 1936 the following earnings were true of the Pottsville region in the actual mining operations:

Year	Gross Earnings Before Deductions	Wages Paid in Cash
1935	$15,626,547.	$14,559,753.
1936	15,720,257.	14,599,273.

These figures prove that the industry has one of the largest payrolls in Pennsylvania and that payroll taxes are necessarily a greater burden than taxes based on profits and other forms of taxation.

Your Commission notes that the same is true of the Anthracite as has been said of the Bituminous coal industry—that it is a declining industry and unless this group of men work to an end that aid is given to this field of employment we may see the unemployment of many men in the near future.

Senator Joseph F. Guffey is to be complimented for his untiring efforts to stabilize the soft coal industry and thus help to place our basic industry back on a sound footing. However, his efforts will have little or no effect on the hard coal problem because of the fact that the industry is exclusively a Pennsylvania activity and therefore the direct responsibliity of the State Government. We also wish to state that the Governor is to be commended for establishing a commission to study this valuable asset to Pennsylvania and this Tax Study Commission wishes to offer its findings, services and cooperation to this Anthracite Commission in trying to solve an intricate and pertinent question.

We also acknowledge with thanks the cooperation of all the operators, the merchants, the tax commissioners and the officials of the United Mine Workers who gave so much of their time and information.

We also acknowledge gratefully the assistance given to the Commission by the Senators from the Anthracite region—Senator Dando of Schuylkill, Senator Howell of Lackawanna and Senators Sordoni and Mundy from Luzerne.

The PRESIDENT. The report is received and will be made a matter of record in the Journal.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, at the request of Dr. Bogardus, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 776, on final passage, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and precribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" as amended by modifying the procedure for the sale of unserviceable property and enlarging the scope of the appropriation of the Manufacturing Fund clarifying the provisions pertaining to the furnishing of State automobiles from the temporary fleet authorizing the purchase of liability insurance covering State officers or employes operating vehicles loaned by the Federal government prohibiting contractors with the Commonwealth from requiring or receiving refunds of part of any premium wage or wages required by their contract to be paid to their employes providing for the demolition or destruction of certain military stores in certain cases authorizing the transfer of surplus products between State institutions further defining the working hours and duties of State employes amplifying the supervision of the Department of Welfare over inmates in(and the transfer of inmates from State

REPORT FROM STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

The PRESIDENT. The Chair presents to the Senate, in response to Senate Resolution, a report from the State Emergency Relief Board, with the names, salaries, etc. of all its employees. Persuant to custom, the report will be available for inspection in the office of the Secretary, and will be printed in the appendix of the Legislative Journal.

(For report see Appendix).

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 485, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (P. L. 365), entitled "An act to encourage and authorize the formation of cooperative associations, productive and distributive by farmers, mechanics, laborers, or other persons," by extending and changing the provisions thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, will the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden, kindly state the purpose of these amendments?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I want to vote for this bill, and before I vote for it I want to be sure that the cooperatives pay the same taxes as other corporations, and I have just inserted on page 3, a strike out amendment and added "not for profit", because this is a non-profit cooperative, and then specifically on page 25, I said, that these cooperatives pay the same taxes as other corporations. That is all these amendments do.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, if that is the case I object to these amendments because I think the bill as it now stands already places these cooperatives under any tax law in the same way as any other business enterprises or corporations may be placed. The original objections to the bill concerned the provision by which these cooperatives were exempted from taxation. In committee that exemption was stricken out; furthermore, the exemption of cooperatives from being controlled by the State Utilities Commission or the State Securities Commission was also taken out. This bill as it now stands is purely and simply a cooperative bill. Cooperatives are now subject to the same taxes as any other business enterprises and if we want to find out what taxes corporations pay, we do not go to the corporation, we go to the tax measure that imposes the tax on corporations. Now, cooperatives may be subjected to the same taxes that are imposed on corporations. My opinion would be that they would be subject to the Stock Transfer Tax, and they might even be subject to taxation under the Net Earnings Tax Law and the Stock Tax Law. However, those are judicial opinions, it is a matter of judicial interpretation, and we are here making laws, not interpreting laws. It seems to me that these amendments are entirely unnecessary, and It seems to me that Senator from Indiana, should be entirely satisfied with the bill as it now stands, without his special amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the reason I put in these amendments is because the Capital Stock Tax is ambiguous in my opinion, on that point. It states:

"Every domestic corporation other than corporations of the first class and cooperative agricultural associations not having capital stock, and not conducted at a profit, and so on, shall not be subject to the tax."

Now, I do not know the judicial interpretation of that would-be, and to make sure that these cooperatives will come in on a fair basis, and to avoid any entanglements, these amendments are being offered, and I want to take this opportunity to compliment the sponsor of the bill on the provision he put in there.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I rise to a point or order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, will state his point of order.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, the Senator from Indiana is speaking on the amendments, and in view of the objection, there is nothing before the Senate for action.

The PRESIDENT. The bill is before the Senate, not the amendments, and he is speaking on the bill.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, may I suggest to the Senator from Indiana that the proper way to have these amendments effective in law is to put his amendments in the tax imposing laws and not in this bill; in other words, he should amend the Capitol Stock Tax, the Net Earnings Tax, and the other tax laws.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, as I said, I want to compliment the sponsor of the bill for the protection he has thrown around these cooperatives. He has clothed them with the same protection that we give to the banks; in other words, it is a proposition that makes any one who gives out malicious and false reports subject to a fine. That is all right and I have no objection to that, but having given them this special protection, I do not think there should be any question of doubt that they should be subject to the taxes to which any other corporation is subjected. It is only declarative of the intention of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I suggest to the Senator from Indiana, that while his amendments may be excellent in this particular measure, he is creating a situation which will be unfair and will make for bad legislation. With this provision that he proposes to insert by means of reconsideration of the passage of this bill on second reading, that this particular kind of cooperative will be punished by attacks, whereas, cooperatives which had existed prior will be exempt from taxation under the previous tax act, I think the suggestion of the Senator from Dauphin is a proper one, that if we are to tax cooperatives they all should be taxed under a special act. The taxing authority given under the Act referred to by the Senator from Indiana, provides that when a cooperative is not a cooperative, which means when it makes profits it should be taxed, the theary being that those cooperatives that do not make profits are real cooperatives in the true sense of the word, and there never was a cooperative which could be properly called such if it made a profit. The intent of a cooperative is not to benefit and not for the purpose of making a profit, but more beneficial for the members of the cooperatives by way of purchases and distribution, and under these circumstances it seems to me it would be a bad law and a bad precedent to begin firing at the various kinds of cooperatives as they come up before the Legislature. I think, if the Senator will read the Act again very carefully he will find that this cooperative will be taxed to the extent on which it makes a profit. What this means is this: that not only will this corporation be taxed by the state laws and the federal profits tax, which amounts to 13½% but it will also be taxed by the Pennsylvania State Corporate Income Tax which amounts to 6% now, if the bill goes through reducing it from 10%.

Under these circumstances, I think we had better leave the situation as it is and attempt to make any modification we can in the law through a general tax act.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I hesitate to draw out this discussion, but the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, hit the nail right on the head. We are now launching out into a new kind of cooperatives; this is a new field. All cooperatives heretofore, have not been cooperatives in fact, the Members themselves of the Association share its profits with non-members, and I think that they should be thrown on the same competitive basis as other business. I repeat that I want to vote for this bill, and I see no reason why these amendments should not be incorporated in the Act, which, for the information of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, were drawn up by Mr. Fertig.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I just want to make one other statement to dispell the misinformation in the mind of the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden. A mere glance at the title of this bill shows that it is the re-enactment and an amendment to the law of 1889. Cooperatives existed under the Law of 1889, and have existed for decades, and when he said that this is new and experimental, he is absolutely misinformed concerning the entire subject.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to correct the misapprehension of the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden, about non-members participating in which is called 'patron' dividends. They do not, is the answer, if they buy at the store, the store would pay the dividends, it is put in their reserve fund until such times as a reasonable amount accumulates, and amounts to the price of one share; he automatically then becomes a member, but he does not participate in the 'patron' dividends, and therefore, the Senator from Indiana is wrong.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constiution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 561, on third reading, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I call up for consideration at this time Senate Bill No. 1014, on third reading, on page 16 of the calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1014 (House Bill No. 1358), entitled:

An Act abolishing the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and transferring actions, books, records, documents and papers in the possession of said court to other courts of the County of Philadelphia.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator whether in his judgment this bill rips out of office the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has the last guess on that.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am asking the Senator from Philadelphia whether it is the intention of the sponsor of this bill by the passage of it to rip out the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, whether or not that is the intention of the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the answer to that question is emphatically 'no'.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia explain the object of the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the purpose of this bill is to transfer jurisdiction of pending actions and records concerning pending actions from the Municipal Court to the Court of Common Pleas, in cases dealing with the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the court, which has already been transferred to the Courts of Common Pleas by previous legislation passed by this Senate.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator, then, if the provisions of the Act which abolishes the Municipal Court of Philadelphia is surplusage.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is not surplusage, the Court now has no jurisdiction as a Court with the passage of this last bill, it has no jurisdiction of any kind, and, therefore, in order to trasfer properly the jurisdiction of the Court and be sure that all cases are transferred to the Common Pleas Court, the jurisdiction of which previously vested in the Municipal Court, that is the answer.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I then want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this bill wipes out, or abolishes the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, that is, the 11 judges of that Court who were elected by the people of that City.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Ealy,	Mallery,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call up for consideration at this time, Senate Bill No. 877, on page 12 of the calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 877, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" as amended by establishing a Department of Public Assistance and a State Board of Public Assistance and defining their powers and duties providing for the employment and removal of all persons employed by the Department of Public Assistance by the State Board of Public Assistance and by any board established by law and authorized to provide assistance in one or more counties only and by changing the powers of the Department of Welfare.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO PUT BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that this bill go over in its order until we have an oportunity to examine the report which we discussed earlier in today's session.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I object.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON POSTPONED CALENDAR

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar until we have had an oportunity to examine the report.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette state if it is not true that the information contained in the report has been furnished to the Senate, and is it not a fact that the report itself will be available by the end of the week, and possibly before that time we can have copies of that report.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, that is true, but I would like to have an opportunity to look at that report as soon as we adjourn today, as the bill may be acted upon tomorrow.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the Senator from Fayette realize that there are only a few days left of this Session until adjournment, and that action may be delayed which might prevent passage of this Act.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, these bills have been in Committee for a sufficient time to be placed on the Calendar so that we would have been permitted to have an opportunity to examine them.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is the Senator from Fayette a member of the Welfare Committee?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, no.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

THE PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette tell the Senate the nature of this bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I think I can probably tell more about this bill than the sponsor can. Mr. President, this bill amends the Administration Code by a new Department of State, known as the State Department of Public Assistance, and another department known as the State Board of Assistance, and another State Board known as the State Employment Board, and it undertakes to give them duties and powers to administer matters that are now administered under existing laws, and what I mean by that is this: we have on the statute books of this Commonwealth laws that deal with the administration of relief to indigent persons in the various municipalities. They also have another body of laws that deal with Mother's Assistance; we also have a body of laws administering other forms of relief. Now, those laws are still on the statute books, yet this bill here now creates another department of state and prescribes its duties and powers and no law has been yet enacted upon by this body abolishing these other laws, and I say there is a diabolical scheme behind the sponsors of this bill in reporting this bill out which, in effect, putting it in popular language, means putting the cart before the horse. They are going to create a department of public assistance and then, after they have done that, they will come around and ask us to abolish these boards. I say, if these gentlemen are fair and are sincere in their efforts, they should put these bills back in committee and report out of that committee those bills abolishing these boards. Let us fight it out on the floor of the Senate whether we want to abolish the boards or not, and after we have passed the bills abolishing these boards then we will consider this bill which creates a new state board to administer the functions and powers now administered by these local boards.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, while I did not ask in my interrogation to have the Senator from Fayette, Senator Cavalcante to make a speech, but I did want to ascertain from him what good it is going to be to postpone action on this bill and its companion bill, the bill following, in order to receive this information about which he speaks. If the Senator had read the companion bill which follows, and which, if he so desires, I will be glad to call up first, he will find in that bill the very repealers of which he is speaking. Mr. President, I would like to know whether the Senator has a choice between these two bills as to which one of the bills he wants to vote on first.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, both of these bills ought to be sent back to committee and the bills abolishing the poor boards, the mother's assistance boards and the other boards first acted upon, and after we have passed on these bills, then these other bills come logically in order.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, does the Senator know that neither of these bills have anything to do with the structure of the poor boards.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, but they do transfer the powers of the poor boards to this newly created board without first abolishing the poor boards.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, will the Senator point out in either of these bills where they do that?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, these are the bills presented by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, and I had trusted that he had read his own bills that pertain to the same subject.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, if the Senator will just point out those provisions to me. I think, Mr. President, the hesitancy of the Senator from Fayette indicates very definitely that the charges he makes cannot be substantiated by an examination of the bills. I say, if we are going to vote upon legislation of this sort, if we want to modernize our assistance, it is time to vote on these bills and dispose of them. There is nobody attempting to dictate anything to this Senate, in any manner, shape or form respecting legislation, or affecting the councils of any municipal body or any agency of this State Government. I do say this, Mr. President, along with other members of the Senate and the House, I sat for weeks and weeks at public hearings, I heard poor boards say that we should consolidate the agencies of assistance; I heard every class of persons of this Commonwealth who are interested in any way in welfare measures come in and ask what these two measures contain, and if the Senator from Fayette had taken the trouble, Mr. President, to make an examination and study these bills, I am confident, he would not make the charges he makes now and asserts on the floor of this Senate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Centre yield to an interrogation?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, gladly.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask the Senator to turn to page 19, section 2502A of his own bill, and tell me what that means?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, may I ask the Senator from Fayette to repeat his interrogation?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Centre explain section 2502A, on page 19 of the bill?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, I will read the section to which the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, refers. The Senator might read it himself, but as I said I am not reading it for his information but I am reading it for the information of the Senate: "To administer and carry out the provisions of the Public Assistance Law and in so doing to supervise local boards and to allocate to them, on the bias of need, funds with which to provide assistance and funds for administrative expenses".

Now, it seems to me, that the language of that is simple enough for even the Senator from Fayette to comprehend its implication.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, no, the gentleman from Fayette knows nothing about any public assistance law because he has not been asked to vote upon any such law on the floor of the Senate, and that the Senator from Centre will appreciate from that that he is asking us to vote for a bill that infers that we are going to pass another law that we have not yet acted upon. How does the Senator from Centre, know that we are going to favorably pass the public assistance law.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I asked the Senator from Fayette only a few moments ago if he had any preference as to which of these two bills he would rather vote on first, and I still say to the Senator from Fayette, if he would rather vote first on No. 883, and he will withdraw his motion, and the Senator from Washington will withdraw his second, I will be pleased to call up No. 883 and act on that bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would yield to the Senator from Centre, if the gentleman will call up first his bill that abolishes the poor boards and other local boards for our consideration.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the request of the Senator, of course is impossible to be complied with, in view of the fact that the committee in charge of the bill to which the Senator refers has not reported the bill out for action by the Senate, and it is, of course, impossible to call that bill up, and the Senator knows that when he makes that request. Now, Mr. President, if the Senator will not try to confuse the Senate by referring to a bill that has no connection with these two bills, he can understand himself that these bills do not depend upon any action that this legislation wants to take upon this other bill to which he refers.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Centre state whether the bill that is now up for action has any reference to the bills that are still in committee and that aim at the abolition of these local boards.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I think if the Senator would take the trouble as I have stated before, to examine these bills, he will find that the two bills now on the Calendar do not refer to nor have any dependence upon the poor board bill, which is still in committee, the systems are in no way connected, and the disposition of these bills is not in any wise hinged in any practical effect or unpractical effect upon any action that the House and Senate want to take in connection with this poor board bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Centre, inform us if there is a bill introduced by him still in committee that abolishes the Mother's Assistance Boards?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I say again, if the Senator from Fayette had read these two bills, he would find that the Mother's Assistance Boards in their present form are altered by the following bill, No. 883.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Centre know that included in this bill which he has called up for action is a provision transferring the powers of the Mother's Assistance Boards, of the boards of trustees of the Pennsylvania Fund for the Blind, to the new board here, the board created by his bill, without first abolishing the Mother's Assistance Board and the Boards of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Fund for the Blind?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the matters to which the Senator from Fayette, refers are not included in this bill, but are jointly in this bill and a companion bill, as I have insisted time and time again, and the companion bill which follows, Senate Bill No. 883, in which it is provided for the alteration of the Mother's Assistance Boards.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in view of what the Senator from Centre has said, I still insist upon my motion that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar until the Committee on Welfare reports to the Senate these other companion bills that fit in with the scheme and design set up in this Senate Bill No. 877.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the request of the Senator from Fayette is to the highest degree unfair in disposing of these two bills. These two bills probably less than any other phase of our assistance laws are non-controversial. As I say, I spent weeks and weeks in hearings and I have listened to every single interest in this State interested in Welfare matters who came before this joint legislative committee and asked for the consolidation of out-door assistance agencies, and it is unfair to the administration of that form of our State Government, it is unfair to this Legislature to hinge the disposition of this Legislation on the outcome of the Poor Board Bill. Now, Mr. President, I realize without the Senator from Fayette telling me, the peculiar interest that he has in retaining the organizations of poor boards in the counties which he represents. I do not quarrel with the Senator's opinion in that connection, he is entitled to that opinion, and, Mr. President, these two bills do not affect the poor board organizations in the county from which he comes. I say to you, Mr. President, that it has happened gratuitously that these bills have gotten on the Calendar without having some other bills being reported out. If I had had my choice, I would have had these bills presented to the Senate weeks ago for action and not hinged upon these other considerations, it has happened that these bills have come out, and I think properly so. The system provided in these two bills has nothing to do with the poor boards and should be divorced from it by the consideration of these bills, so, therefore, I ask that the motion of the Senator from Fayette be defeated so that we may act upon these two bills on their merits.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. REED and were as follows, viz:

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent that the bill go over in its order temporarily.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 883.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeaby to order.

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 883, entitled:

An Act relating to public assistance providing for and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons designated and defined as dependent children aged presons blind persons and other persons requiring relief providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States government for assistance to such persons providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Board Boards of Trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund and Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind and repealing laws relating to mothers' assistance pensions for the blind old age assistance and the State Emergency Relief Board.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the amendments that I am about to offer to Senate Bill No. 883, I hope will not provoke much debate. The amendments that I am going to present, and I am asking unanimous consent, call for the Governor to appoint one more than a majority in each of the counties except the first and second class counties, where he will appoint four, and the county commissioners will appoint three, and in all of the first and second class counties they will have eleven members, the Governor will appoint six and the local taxing bodies five, and you can readily see that if the commissioners are not of one political party the set up in most counties, as a matter of fact, the Democrats would appoint five or six, and possibly six out of seven through my amendment, and I feel that the local bodies ought to have something to say about the running of this relief set-up. Therefore, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendments: amend sec. 5, page 5, line 17, by striking out the words "two members" and inserting in lieu thereof "one member"; amend sec. 5, page 5, lines 18 and 19, by striking out the words "two members" and inserting in lieu thereof "one member"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 21, by striking out the word "three" and inserting in lieu thereof "two"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 22, by inserting after the word "forty" the following: "and the county commissioners shall appoint one member to serve for the term ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, one member to serve for the term ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and one member to serve for the term ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and forty"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 24, by striking out the word "three" and inserting in lieu thereof "two"; amend sec. 5, line 26, by striking out the word "four" and inserting in lieu thereof "two"; amend sec. 5, page 5, lines 27 and 28, by striking out the word "four" and inserting in lieu thereof "two"; amend sec. 5, page 5, line 29, by inserting after the word "forty" the following: "and the tax levying body in counties of the first class, and the county commissioners in counties of the second class shall in like manner appoint one member to serve for the term ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, two members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and two members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and forty"; amend sec. 5, page 6, line 2; by inserting after the word "appointment" the following: "by the appropriate appointing authority".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I object to these amendments and I would like to state the grounds for my objection. I think if the Senator from Indiana would just stop to think of the nature of these amendments which create a board that is partly state and partly municipal, and the funds which would be administered by the boards as set up in this bill as it is on the calendar, come entirely from the state treasury. I think it would be to the highest degree unconstitutional to make this partly state and partly local. I think it would destroy the whole structure of the bill, and it is impracticable from the standpoint of drafting legislation.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for twenty Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty-nine in the negative. Whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 3, section 4, clause (c), by striking out all of lines 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Luzerne state for the information of the Senate just what effect the strike out amendments have on the bill as it is now written.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, we want to bring this bill up to the form of the Administration Code, to have these checks, instead of being sent out by the various offices, to be sent out by the office of the State Treasurer.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none. For the information of the Senate, these are strike out amendments and the bill can be considered on final passage.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, will the Senator from Centre tell the Senate in what respect this bill changes the administration of relief in the local communities?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, in answer to the interrogation of the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, I would say that the principal manner in which this bill changes the administration of relief in local communities is, in the first place, the organization of all forms of direct assistance as made in the county board, as it is created by this Act is such that all forms of assistance are under the same identical plans. The counties are relieved from the payment of all administration expenses in connection with the administration of mother's assistance, blind pension, and old age assistance and the bill is calculated to confer on the new board in the counties the duties of administration of direct relief. The county board as created by this bill has the power of the selection of its personnel and passes upon the eligibility of its applicants.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, the board which the Senator from Centre refers to, do the local authorities have any say in its appointments?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, under this bill the Governor in the same manner that he now appoints the Mother's Assistance Board appoints the members of the County Board as provided in this bill.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, how are the salaries of the executives and other employees fixed in this bill.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, under this bill and a companion bill which was passed over, the salaries of all employees in the department of assistance and the local county boards are fixed in exactly the same manner that all other persons on the state payroll are fixed today, namely, by the Executive Board of the State, which is mainly comprised by the Governor's Cabinet.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, will the Senator tell us if the board has charge of out-door relief only.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, no, under this bill the board has charge of out-door relief as we know it under the existing law, mother's assistance, old age assistance and blind pensions.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, does this board have any power over determining the settlement of a person seeking relief in the local communities?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I would say that this board has no power to determine the settlement of a person in the local community other than as it exists under the present law in this State. The settlement end is governed by another bill which is in the Committee on Welfare, and which is made up to conform to these two bills that are up for passage, but it does not change the substance of the present existing laws of the Commonwealth on the question of settlement.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, under this bill from whom does the local board derive its power and instruction?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, under this bill the local board possesses its own powers. These powers were enlarged by amendments that were put in the bill by the Senate Committee. To my mind the board as created has much broader powers in the bill today than the mother's assistance board has, and certainly much broader powers than any local county relief board has at the present time.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, does the board have power to make its own rules and regulations governing relief in local communities?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, it does.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, as the Senator from Centre is showing signs of fatigue, I would like to interrogate his coadjutor, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, whether or not there is any civil service provision in this Act.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, a very good civil service provision?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, yes, very good.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to ask if the administration costs are entirely on the State, or whether the county participates in the costs of administration?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will leave the answer to this question to my colleague, Senator Thompson.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I thought he was fatigued. The question is, in my opinion administration costs ought to be borne by the county.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, in answer to the interrogation of the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, I will say that all administration costs under this bill are borne by the Commonwealth.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, that is very bad.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in answer to the interrogation of the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, stated that the local boards had the power to make rules and regulations governing the administration of relief in the counties. Now, I had assumed that the Senator knew his bill well, but under the heading "Powers and Duties of County Boards", we find this "to approve or disapprove rules, regulations and standards consistent with law proposed by the Department of Public Assistance." I imagine that the Senator from Centre regards that as giving the local boards authority to make their own rules and regulations.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I reiterate that the Senator from Fayette has neglected to read the bill. If he will read the bill, page 7, clause g, he will find the working of the bill as follows: * * * "to make recommendation to the Department of Assistance as to the standards of assistance and to set up under the law and to promulgate rules and regulations as to the nature, extent and eligibility therefor."

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, to make recommendations of this kind, but is there anything in the bill which says that the recommendations of the board will be accepted?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, again I read, the words are: "to set up under the law and promulgate rules and regulations as to the nature and extent of assistance and eligibility therefor.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, on page 2241 of the Senate Journal when this bill was introduced by the Senator from Centre, he arose to a question of personal privilege and in so doing made this statement:

"Mr. President, I have here a number of bills, which I am about to introduce, pertaining to the problem of relief and assistance legislation. These bills, as may be observed from the covers, have the blessing, so to speak, of the Administration. This morning they were before the Joint Legislative Committee on Relief for hurried consideration, and while the committee at that time did not want to indicate their approval or disapproval of any one of them, because they have not been before the committee for close inspection, the committee did want the bills introduced, in order that they might be printed and distributed to those interested."

At the first Special Session of 1936, the Assembly passed a joint concurrent resolution, introduced by the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, in which the first "Whereas" clause, it read as follows:

"Whereas a centralized administration of relief is unsuited in some respects to a protected program of dealing with the consequences of unemployment."

Then, further in the resolution, in the first "Resolved" clause, it reads as follows:

"Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the President, pro tempore of the Senate appoint three Senators and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House of Representatives to serve as a committee whose duty it shall be to prepare a plan of permanent administration of unemployment relief, which plan shall coordinate the activities of the Commonwealth and its municipal subdivisions, and to draft legislation which incorporates such plan, or plans and to report the same to the regular session of the Legislature in 1937."

At the end of the resolution the third "Resolved" clause is as follows:

"Resolved That the Senate and House of Representatives will appropriate the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) to pay the expenses of the Committee in prosecuting its study of such legislation, the summoning of witnesses, postage, secretarial and clerical hire, the attendance of members at meetings and other expenses."

Now, Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, in view of all that, I would ask the Senator whether he still thinks we ought to act upon that bill before that Joint Legislative Committee makes a report to the Senate so that we may study the report and see what recommendations they make.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I do not hesitate to answer the interrogation of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante. Mr. President, as this Senate well knows, this Joint Legislative Committee appointed in pursuance to this resolution was appointed from the old House and from the old Senate, and being appointed as it was, it contained two Republican members of the Senate and one Democratic member of the Senate, and two Democratic members and one Republican member of the House. The personnel of this Committee was divided evenly 3-3. We held meeting after meeting. I requested the members of this committee to propose legislation in this, that or the other, and we held meeting after meeting and we were simply divided 3-3 on every question, and in order to conform to the mandate of this resolution it became incumbent upon someone of the committee to offer legislation affecting the duties of the committee, and that is what I did. I have not seen any member of the committee in this Senate introduce any other bills affecting this matter. Mr. President, it is not important at all whose bill affecting matters of this kind passes the Assembly; that is not the important feature. The important feature is that we do as a duty what this Commonwealth demands, a coordinating of these forms of assistance activities, that we get away from this jig-saw puzzle of organization which has been brought about and has impeded the satisfactory administration of assistance in all forms of relief in this Commonwealth, namely, this system of local contribution, and I say to you, Mr. President, these bills do exactly what the Senator from Fayette says they do not do; in other words, they localize the administration of direct relief, something that has never been done in this State since the State Emergency Relief Board was created. They coordinate the various forms of public assistance, which I said in meeting after meeting, and hearing after hearing, of this joint legislative committee. We had witnesses from every element of this Commonwealth come before the Committee and plead with us to consolidate these assistance activities and to localize direct relief, and I do not care who is prompting the Senator from Fayette, when he is making his interrogations.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will tell the Senator from Centre that I am not being prompted by anyone. After reading the bills and having studied the Goodrich plan, I know whereof I speak. Will the Senator from Centre state, since he has told us that these bills have the blessings of the administration, so to speak, how much of the Goodrich plan is contained in his scheme or design here set up in these bills.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the Goodrich plan is such that I must confess that I do not know much about it. I listened to the testimony of Dean Goodrich and the other members of his committee and others on the floor of this Senate one Tuesday night, just the same as any other member of the Senate could have done if he had come to the public hearing. Further than that I do not know anything about the Goodrich plan. If the Goodrich plan recommends consolidation of assistance activities in this state, as every other element and all Poor Boards asked for it—the Association of Poor Directors came before a meeting in the Senate Caucus and asked for consolidation of assistance activities—if the Goodrich Commission asks for this, and it is right, I would not hesitate to be for it because the Goodrich Commission asks for it. After all there may be something right about the Goodrich plan. I say, Mr. President, that these bills are nobody's plan excepting the plan of those who have worked on it, not only the sponsor, but the balance of the members who have worked on that in the Senate Committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, do these bills contain in any wise a recommendation that resulted in the expenditure of this $5,000.00, to the Committee of which the Senator from Centre is Chairman?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, yes, they do, and if the Senator from Fayette would take the time to read some of the testimony to which I refer him, I mean the direct testimony and the remarks of the different persons as to what we need in the relief distribution in this State, he can see where the expenditures of this committee went.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, is this bill intended to abolish the Poor Board Homes?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, this bill has nothing to do with the poor board homes.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does it take any powers and duties away from the directors of the poor in any counties?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, yes, it takes away from the poor directors the administration of outdoor relief, or is calculated to do so. We believe, Mr. President, that the people in the different counties and the different poor districts will not mind having the burden of $6,000,000.00 worth of taxes every year taken from their shoulders.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, who employs and fires, or dismisses the employees of the county boards under this bill?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the county boards do that.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would recommend that the Senator from Centre read his own bills; he will change his opinion about that.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, it is perfectly obvious that the Senator from Fayette and myself do not see the same things in this bill, and I do not believe there is any necessity of quibbling over it.

The PRESIDENT. So that you finally have agreed?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I presume that since this bill creates a county board and gives the Governor the power to appoint with the advice and consent of the Senate—two-thirds of the members of the Senate—that the removal of these officers will have to follow the same course. I have been wondering since the bill does not say anything about removal, that if we should brand one of the appointees, who must serve without compensation, with embezzling a few of the funds and misappropriating them, or violating some of the provisions of the Act, I would like to just pause for a moment to inquire of the members of this Senate whether they find in the bill a provision that makes it unlawful for the boards to do that, or if they do violate any of the provisions of the Act, since it does not make it unlawful and there is no penalty involved, how are we going to get rid of those members of the boards? There is no provision made and no penalties provided. The salaries of the employees of the board are not fixed by the local boards, but they are fixed by a board here in Harrisburg, under a bill that is companionate to this bill, and not yet acted upon by this Senate.

This bill here contains provisions relating to other matters in other bills now pending in this Senate, and if we have some good sense and good judgment and defeat the other bills, this bill we are acting upon now will confuse the whole system of administrating relief. This bill, as we have quite often tried here, is intended to wipe out the poor houses, yet it does no such thing. Notwithstanding that no other bill introduced by the Senator from Centre does that; it merely takes away from the poor boards the clean relief, the outdoor relief and puts it in the hands of professional debutante welfare workers just out of schools, and the dirty work, the institutional work, the work of taking care of indigent people who cannot help themselves, the men and women who are beyond the age of employment and have to go to the poor houses. These pink tea debutantes do not care much about these people, they are not so much interested about putting them under the Department of Public Assistance, but under the guise, under the ruse here that they are going to abolish the poor boards, they strip away from the poor boards the outdoor relief and abolish the boards and put the same institutions in the hands of the county commissioners, because, as the Senator from Centre believes, it will be removed from politics by giving it to the county commissioners. The property of the poor directors, including the county home, is given over to the county commissioners under the same law, the same poor board law that we have in force now and reenacted in these bills, giving the commissioners power to maintain and keep these poor houses, levying taxes, and incurring indebtedness, and the only addition that the Senator from Centre includes in his bill is that when the county commissioners want to do any such things as that, they must first get the permission from the Department of Welfare here in Harrisburg. But it does not abolish the county home, it preserves it, it gives it to the county commissioners, and they conduct the poor houses, and almshouses and dispensaries. These interests have been with us for centuries and centuries and they cannot be abolished, and common sense and judgment indicates that we cannot abolish these institutions, because we are going to have aged and those who will become to old to work and who have no home to live in, who will go out into the streets, and we must take them into the county home, which will always be with us; but this group of social workers, and I am indeed sorry that the Senator from Centre has precipitated and yielded to their movements in this State, they have directed all their efforts to abolish the poor boards, because the poor boards have stood like the rock of Gibraltar against the employing of them on the poor boards or under the poor boards; and now this comes under this bill, the changing of the name poor house, changing this name to 'institution'; that is all this bill does. All of these bills pertain to the same subject; they merely change the name 'poor house' to 'county institution,' and then in another provision they have in mind taking it out of politics by taking it from the poor directors and giving it over to the county commissioners, and the burden of maintaining the institutions with their local taxes, is still their's, as is the work of handling the indigent people; and the clean work, the outdoor relief, is turned over to social workers, who have formed their organization and who control this administrative work from Washington, D. C., and have taken it away from the counties, and this bill is aimed at preserving the dynasty of these people, whether the Senator from Centre likes it or not. It is incorporated into, as recommended by the report of the Goodrich Committee, and it is absolutely devoid of anything that was brought out before the joint legislative committee created by this Act of Assembly, and for which we intrusted the Senator from Centre and his committee, the sum of $5,000 of taxpayers money. That committee, under this resolution, was to report at this 1937 Session with specific recommendations on this subject, and now the Senator from Centre comes along and introduces the Goodrich plan here, and I do not know when he intends, as chairman of this joint legislative committee, to render to us a report of the committee which was appointed under this resolution.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, may I again remind the Senator that he is still talking about a bill that is still in committee.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is a very important subject to Philadelphia, at least, and I think to all the counties of the State, and I think we should drop our personal feelings in considering the matter and remember that this involves a great many people in the State of Pennsylvania. I should like to just review for a moment, if I may, what these bills really do, so that none of us will be confused by the statement of the gentleman from Fayette and others.

I want to say at the start, if the gentleman from Fayette wants to know what happened to the Goodrich Plan, I can say to him if he had been on that committee and worked last night, he would have found that we took the 'rich' out and kept the 'Good' in.

We find two bills on the Calendar today, one of them was first on the Calendar and set up an administrative code, so that there may be created a Board of Public Assistance instead of a Department of Welfare and the Department of Public Assistance is necessarily in the first bill, and in addition to the Department of Public Assistance a State Department of Public Assistance, to supervise and have control over both the Public Assistance Department and the local boards.

Senate Bill No. 883 is a bill which prescribes and creates and sets up the Department of Public Assistance, and provides a method for liquidating various agencies for distributing the various forms of relief in the different counties.

Now, there are two major problems involved in this general plan and the most difficult one to decide is the plan which involves the administration of the poor boards, and that is subject to a great many controversial and conflicting problems. There are communities which join together in one poor board, some of them, all of them have paid toward the construction and maintenance of poor houses and anyone who wants to approach this problem properly knows that it would be unwise to confuse both these problems in one bill, and so in dealing with the subject the sponsors of these bills have separated them so that an intelligent and proper approach may be made to each individual problem, separately and distinctly. From what the Senator from Fayette has said,—I feel that he has said it in all sincerity,—has tended merely to confuse the picture, and I propose, if I may, to again suggest what these two bills do, and upon which bills we are about to vote. When we received the two bills in question and established the particular set up as we believed in the theory of centralization of the distribution of all forms of relief, but the control which was given to the local boards did not satisfy the boards or the members of the committee. The bill provided for a State Assistance Department and a State control over the State Assistance Department, but it gave a set up by way of local boards chosen by the Governor. It also provided that a department of Public Assistance shall take over most of the members, and most of the present employees of the Welfare Department in the local communities who were employed under the Emergency Relief and Mothers' Assistance Funds. In order to establish more control in the local boards, the provision to which the Senator from Fayette referred, which originally was that the local boards should have the right to establish, with the approval of the State Board of Public Assistance, rules and regulations and standards consistent with law as to eligibility for assistance and as to its nature and extent as provided by law. The committee came to the conclusion that with regard to the standard of assistance the State rightly should control those, because the State was paying the money, and it would be necessary for the State to determine what standards should be set up, measured by the appropriation allocated by this legislature to the particular board, and in order to determine eligibility, and the extent of the assistance we felt that the local board, knowing local conditions, was best fitted and best suited to determine that question, and we felt that the bill in its then form did not give any control, or not enough to the local members and made them merely rubber stamps, and we think that a careful reading of the demands which were made in the Committee will convince those members of this Senate who want to approach this problem fairly and without bias, that we have accomplished a real control in the local board, so far as it is possible, if not so far as is necessary, and it reads now "To establish with the approval of the State Board of Assistance, standards consistent with law for assistance is the function of the State Board, but the function of the local board is to establish rules and regulations for assistance and the nature and the extent of the assistance. and when it came to the question of the employment, we felt the new board should not be saddled with what the Senator from Fayette erroneously called the union of Social Service Workers, we eliminated from this bill the provision which permits them to take over these employees wholesale, and also eliminated from the provisions of the bill the section which gives them the right to choose themselves who were dropped from the roll by non-competitive examination. Answering the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, there is a set up in this bill a provision for civil service, perhaps not as good a one as can be set up. There is a board of three appointed with a salary. They are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, and they set up qualifications and these men may hold examinations. The local boards are given the right to appoint provisionally from the locality in which they are functioning, employees until the rules and regulations and qualifications for the examinations have been made and the examinations held, and the bill provides that by January 1, 1938 there shall be no further provisional appointments, but appointees must be chosen from the list as the qualifications are set up and as the result of the examination shows, and we think, so far as can be for the present and with the knowledge and experience that we have so far, we have made a step forward in the right direction to install civil service and break down the throttle hold which some of these social service workers had upon the Welfare Department as well as the Emergency Relief.

The second and only controversial question about which there should be no argument at this time, and which should not be confused with these two bills is the question of the poor boards. Certainly the outdoor relief, under any system of public assistance, must come in under the Public Assistance Department, but the administration of institutions for incurables and for mental defectives certainly does not come under public assistance where the county has the poor boards. Eventually it may be that another system may be worked out, but with a million of dollars that each community has separately invested in poor boards it would be unfair that they should at this time be taken over by the State, which is in no condition to make compensation to the localities for those institutions. Therefore, there is a third bill, which deals with the problem of first class cities and counties, and attempts to make provision for the condition that exists in each one of those municipalities. The bill did not come out because in committee it developed that there were one or two counties which may not be properly provided for by that bill, and that is being studied by a sub-committee for the purpose of making such corrections as are necessary, and then to be reported to this floor.

It seems to me that if we mean to be fair and honest about the proposition which confronts us, we must be fair in the attempt to solve the problem, and we should approach it without intending to confuse the poor boards with these two bills, which are of such vital importance, and I suggest to the members of this Senate that if these bills have been read carefully in the long time that they have been on the Calendar,—if not on the Calendar at least on the desks, that the members should have taken the trouble to read these amendments, and there were many of them inserted. Last week I explained the three major amendments made, and you will find that there was no one in the Senate who believed in the centralized distribution of administration of the various forms of relief. Again I suggest, a plan which will more nearly solve the problem on that basis—I am unwilling and unable to say now whether in the long run the centralization of this relief problem is better than local—one thing is certain, every local community is so poor and burdened with taxes at this time that the taking from their shoulders of a six per cent administration cost of administrating a fund involving $150,000,000 at least which means $9,000,000 in the local community, is a step forward in relief to the local communities and everyone must know that in any particular cities the administration of our relief cannot be entrusted to them.

I take great pride in my city, but I do not allow my pride in my city to carry me away with my reason and permit me to ignore those defects that exist in the city. Every Senator from Philadelphia knows that the City of Philadelphia has wholly neglected to take care of its relief problem, so much so that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has spent at least $600,000 every year since the Emergency Relief Board was created to take care of people who were not properly termed, and could not be termed unemployable, but unemployable who normally should be on the poor boards shoulders and shows that the community has been supported by the State to a complete extent in Philadelphia and in Pittsburgh.

At the last session of the legislature there was an attempt to throw the burden of Philadelphia unemployed upon the City and the Mayor came here in great alarm because he knew very well that the addition of $50,000 upon the City of Philadelphia to support these unemployables could not be carried out. In addition to that the administration of five or six different methods of relief in five or six different offices should be stopped, and this bill permits each person who comes for relief to a local and central office to be directed into that department of the one office to which he belongs. The man who is unemployed or unemployable can be characterized and designated and directed by that board, something which cannot be done now, and I suggest, Mr. President, that when the members of the Senate want to do their duty in this respect they should consider this bill on this basis, and these two bills passed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of interest and I want to say that I am very thankful for one revelation that has come about. I have always been suspicious of high sounding names and commissions with large appropriations, and I think this Senate and the people of Pennsylvania ought to take note of the men entrusted with the legislative duties of Pennsylvania. Here we have a joint committee with an appropriation of $50,000, and although the committee is made up of two parties with different interests and different views they will come forth with a direct recommendation for this Senate to take into consideration, whereas, another commission, namely the Goodrich, which is supposed to have spent approximately $85,000, leaves us nothing and gives us nothing. As I said before, I have been suspicious for many years of these high salaried commissions taking $50,000 or $100,000 to study problems which are probably the duties and within the province of the legislature, and which commissions should not be created. I think, as I listened to all that was said here, that the duties can be handled by the Senate and the House, and I want to compliment the chairman of the joint legislative committee for coming forth with such a noble program at this time for the relief of the citizens of Pennsylvania.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, in view of the remarks made by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, I feel that it is incumbent upon me as a member of the commission, which we have heard so much about, and which was appointed in the last Special Session to say a few words. Our Chairman, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, sometimes deals in half truths that are rather misleading. He has told you that the commission that was appointed—first, he tried to tell you that it was a Republican commission, with four Republicans and two Democrats. Then he qualified that when one of the members of the Senate near him said "no, no", and he then said it was equally divided between three Republicans and three Democrats, which is the truth. There were two Democratic members from the House and one Republican member, and two Republican members and one Democratic member from the Senate. The commission was instituted first because of a resolution which was introduced by the Senator from Centre. He appeared to be very anxious to study this relief problem, and there was no member of that commission more zealous than the Senator from Centre in probing the worth of the so-called social workers, and no Senator made more public declarations in which he seemed to view with alarm the trend of welfare work, than those expressed by the Chairman of that committee. Now, when the Senator says that the Commission was divided along political lines, I want to say that is not a fact. Time and again the House members came over and wanted to know why that commission could not meet, and felt that there should be a report, and they were referred to the Chairman of the Committee. Twice, I think, the Chairman called meetings during the Session, and both times on a Tuesday morning, at 8:30 o'clock. All the members of the Senate know what that means; there was not a full attendance of that committee. Then, much to the surprise of the members of the committee he called a meeting of the committee at a time on a little more reasonable basis, and he had these pink covered bills which indicated, as he said in his talk on February 7th, had the blessing of the administration. Of the four members of the committee who were present at that time, three were Democrats.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, will state his point of order.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, is discussing the actions, meetings, and conduct of the legislative committee and is not talking on the bill.

The PRESIDENT. That is true, but we have already gone far afield. The Senator from Susquehanna will confine himself to the bill.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, when the Senator from Centre suggested that he would introduce these bills, the impression of that committee, the majority of whom were Democrats, was that the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson would introduce them, and it was the thought that those bills would be given at least the blessing of the members of the committee, and they told him if he introduced these bills, and that they did not carry with them the approval of the committee, so, following the remarks of the Senator from Centre on the seventh day of April, I feel called upon to say to the Senate: "it having been impossible for some of the members of the committee studying relief to hear just what the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, said, we would like it understood that they are not in any way the act of the committee, because the committee has not had an opportunity to read those bills, and there has been no action by the committee. I think, perhaps, the Senator made that plain, but we were not able to hear what he had to say. The committee did not, as a committee, direct him to introduce the bills."

Furthermore, Mr. President, the chairman of that commission has said that no bills had been introduced by any members of the committee. Bills have been introduced on that subject by members of the committee and are now in the committees of the House. They were introduced by Democratic members of the committee. Other bills which are very much more in keeping with the ideas of the majority of that committee are in Senate committees, but I simply want to make it clear to the members of this Senate that if there is any reason why that committee has not enlightened you on the subject, it is not the fault of the majority of the committee, and neither was this committee at first divided on political lines. I say that the majority of the members of that committee are not in favor with the idea of the Goodrich report.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I promise to take only two minutes to come to the rescue of the Governor. It seems to be left to a Republican Senator to come to the rescue of the Governor. I refer to a meeting in the Governor's office last week, I think, when the Senator from York, Mr. Lanius, and his friends, appeared protesting against the combining of the blind pension with all the other beneficiaries in this set up of Senate Bill No. 873. I sent an agent to listen in at the conference and the agent reported to me that Dr. DeSchweinitz then and there, because the Governor promised to the Senator from York, Mr. Lanius, to prevent the very thing that happened to Senate Bill No. 883, namely, lumping the blind pension fund with all the other beneficiaries. Pensioners of the blind fund are perfectly satisfied with the present arrangement and protested to the Governor, and the Governor stated at his meeting that he would support them in defiance of this Goodrich Plan. I, therefore, think it is inspiring to know what the Governor's views are, if nothing more.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I was interested in the remarks of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, because it comes from a first class city. In his statement he mentions the fact that he was interested very much on behalf of Philadelphia. In looking over some of the provisions of this set of bills, in one of them, under definitions, we find this: County means every county in this Commonwealth except a county of the first class. I do not know how many there are, but the record shows that there is only one county and that is Philadelphia County. "Counties shall not be deemed to exclude territories within any city of the second class." Therefore, the Pittsburgh delegation is well taken care of. "Independent poor district is a poor district which is not of equal terminus with the counties, but shall not be construed to apply to a poor district of a county of the second class, or city of the second class," making doubly sure that Pittsburgh would not be included under the provisions of this mill. After defining municipalities, "means any city except a city of the first class and second class".

Now I appeal to the members of this Senate who come from the rural counties, that when they have studied these bills as carefully as I have, and a few others, they will see that these bills set Pittsburgh and Philadelphia aside and then give the Department of Public Assistance here, created in Harrisburg, the complete domination, it wipes out all vestige of home rule in the administration in the rural counties, but retains the principle of home rule in the cities of the first and second class. And then in addition to that we who come from those rural districts know and know positively the Department of Welfare is dominated at this very day by appointees from those two centres of this Commonwealth, the City of Philadelphia, and the City of Pittsburgh, so that this set up, after having excluded the cities of the first class and the cities of the second class, there remains no form of legislation for rural counties of this Commonwealth, then the Department of Public Assistance as appointed under this bill have to be dominated by Philadelphia.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my point of order is that the Senator from Fayette is not speaking on Bill 883. I am quite sure he is speaking on the poor board bill. Mr. President, I insist on my point of order. The Senator from Fayette is not speaking on bill No. 883.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette will confine himself to the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia if this is the bill that does contain those definitions, as part of the design of which this bill 883 is a part?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is not correct, and the bill that you are reading from does cover second class cities and merely makes provisions for that. It creates county institutions for counties and creates city institutions for cities, the only difference being the method of appointment, because of the difference in the local form of Government.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in the cities home rule is maintained, and the cities make their own regulations and all that, and we who come from rural counties must be under the domination created by the Senators from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh to dominate the rest of the state.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if that is an interrogation, my answer is that it is not so.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I am a member of the joint legislative committee. The Chairman of this committee, the Senator from Centre to my knowledge, has not called a meeting of this committee within the last month. In reiteration of what the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr.

Gelder, has said, I feel that perhaps five of the committee are absolutely opposed to this system which is advocated in these bills. Leaving aside all of these bills, this is a part of the scheme for the centralization of relief. There were eight bills in the original Goodrich Plan, as introduced into this Senate, and they all together fit in dovetail and we cannot, as the Senator from Fayette has said, intelligently discuss these piece-meal, they all are part of the same general scheme, to centralize this administration of relief. Now, today I received a resolution adopted by the State Convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women. It is not often that I can find anything in the activities of this organization to approve, but here is one which I do approve heartily. They say that

Whereas, the bills introduced at the request of the Goodrich Committee would centralize or control relief and assistance in Harrisburg; and

Whereas, the intention of these bills is to place control of all assistance and relief in the hands of one person in Harrisburg, and whereas, it has not been proven that these bills, because of the greatly increased personnel, will tend to concentrate political control; therefore, be it

Resolved, "That we the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women, in convention assembled at Williamsport, May 16, 17th, 1937, go on record as favoring the retention of local control in matters of relief and assistance."

I heartily agree with that. This so-called Goodrich Committee, according to some figures which I have here, have spent over $80,000 in trying to propagandize this plan over the state. A large amount of that money was contributed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and there was, as I understand, $6500 of that money taken from the community chest of Philadelphia to enlist support of this proposition throughout the Commonwealth. There was an almost total absence of enthusiasm for the plan, despite the great efforts which were put forth, and this result, of course, should have been anticipated. I cannot understand the real purpose of these eight bills which were introduced here into this legislature, altogether being called the Goodrich Plan. Surely it is not intended to lessen the amount of money which was to be spent for relief, and we all know how that was accomplished, and if we do not cut down and lessen this and put this plan on a better basis, everybody will be involved in the same financial ruin. He seems to be very innocent of the bureaucratic government, if he thinks the establishment of a new department in the bill, with all this swivel chair machinery that goes with it, will lessen this cost of relief. The only thing I can see from this is either to keep the greatest number of people on relief, in order to obtain more political control, or else the system is so strongly established that no one has the courage to break it.

Now there are bills in this session of the legislature that will take care of this thing in the proper manner, a bill introduced by the Senator from York, one introduced by the Senator from Philadelphia, and bills introduced in the House. I can propose a system which will give local control, which, I think would be much better, if the Chairman of the joint legislative committee can get this committee together, they could make a recommendation which would put this administration of relief on its proper basis. A part of this system is the outlawing of the so-called poor board system. I do not care what name you call it by, but the poor board system is not outmoded, it is based on sound principle and that is the reason it has lasted for all these years. Until you go back to the principles and fundamentals of administrative relief, you are going to have this load go up and up and up, until all are burdened so much with taxes for relief that we will all be involved in a common ruin. I say that this bill ought to be held over until we have the whole picture; if that is not done then it should be voted down.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I want to congratulate the Senator from Centre for the masterful way in which he has defended his bill, but I cannot agree with him in all he states in his interpretation of them. I believe, from the reading of the bill, that this plan will tend to centralize the relief instead of localizing relief. The bill that I have before me is Bill No. 877. In that bill, where it provides for the powers and duties of the Department of Public Assistance and the State Board, you will find this language;" Powers and duties of the Department of Public Assistance. "To administer and carry out the provisions of the Public Assistance Law and in so doing to supervise local boards and to allocate to them on the basis of need funds with which to provide assistance and funds for administrative expenses."

And further, in speaking of the powers given to the State Boards, on the same page 19, "To establish with the approval or disapproval rules, regulations and standards consistent with law, proposed by the Department of Public Assistance to local boards as to eligibility or assistance and as to its nature and extent is provided by law."

Now, I argue that those provisions throw back to the local community the almost complete control of this big problem, and if that is so then I further say that this problem of relief under such a system will grow in our local community instead of decrease. Ever since I have been in this body, Mr. President, I have given much thought to this question of relief. I have always maintained that it must not be permitted to grow to such an extent that it will ruin the initiative that is imbedded in every young man and every young woman that is born in this great Republic. I have always maintained that this system can be best controlled by submitting it to the control of the local community. I have consistently adhered to that rule in my voting since I have been in this chamber, and I propose to do that today when these bills come up for final action. This is not a matter of politics, it is a matter that lies deep in my mind as to the future of this great Republic. I still maintain that relief left to man uncontrolled will destroy the ambition that exists in every American boy and every American girl born in this great nation. We cannot permit this great system of relief to grow to such an extent. We must control it and I have said many times that the way to control a system is by putting it in the control of our local people. I come from a rural section, where relief generally is frowned down upon. Our people do not want to give relief where relief is not needed; our people do want to give relief where it is definitely needed. Now that is the big problem, it is an American problem, it is a problem that concerns us all, and as has been said here today, no subject before this body should be given more careful consideration, more serious consideration than the subject that we have before us at this time, and I say in closing that the members here should carefully consider every phase of these Government bills, because they are in a measure linked together and you cannot separate the one from the other in this big problem. We want to do what is best for the people of this State, and in so doing let us carefully consider these measures and go over every part of each bill, because they are all very important. I propose to follow out my past action in this Senate and vote against these bills.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call up at this time for consideration Senate Bill No. 782, on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 782, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined", by consolidating the Pennsylvania State Police and the State Highway Patrol, and their powers and duties, into one agency to be known as the Pennsylvania Motor Police, and establishing as part of such agency a Motor Police Force; and making provision for the number, selection, qualifications, promotion, training and discipline of the members of such force.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, before we rush hurriedly over this bill and the next bills that cover the same subject, I want to first warn all the members of this body that this and the other bills call for the merger of these Highway Patrol with the State Police.

The Committee that handled these bills had a public hearing some time ago, at which time the interested citizens of the State of Pennsylvania clearly and convincingly presented their arguments as to why these bills should not be enacted into law, and they showed very clearly what would happen, not only as to the inefficiency of the State Highway Patrol but the State Police as well. We heard former members of the State Police testify at that hearing what, in their opinion, these bills would affect, how they would affect the State Police. In addition to that, we heard from the various Motor Associations in the State of Pennsylvania how this would amount to nothing more, pure and simple, than another diversion of our motor tax.

There is no reason that I have heard given by any proponents of these bills why the motorists of Pennsylvania should once more be called upon to support the State Police, why he should once more be called upon to contribute out of his gasoline tax for another function of our State Government. The motorist today has borne the greatest part of the relief burden. He is paying in many ways, in small amounts, for the Department of Aeronautics, for other departments from which he, the motorist, derives no immediate benefit. Here once more he is called upon to make another contribution, which has no association whatsoever to his use of our Highways. Just last week the Senate passed an amendment to the Constitution, which I proposed, that prevented the diversion of tax paid by the motorist that was dedicated to the construction, maintainence of highways, bridges, etc., in the State of Pennsylvania. That they passed. We cannot be consistent this afternoon if we vote for a diversion of these motor funds, and I ask the Senators in this body to defeat this bill and the other bills covering the same subject.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the bill on consideration is a companion bill to Senate Bill No. 770, and as one without the other would be useless. So that the members of the Senate would know what they are doing and how they are endangering the motor funds, if they pass this series of legislation, I want to read to the Senate a letter from Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief of the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., which was written on the date of April 12, 1937. He says:

"Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of April 7 enclosing a copy of Senate Bill 770 which proposes to consolidate the Pennsylvania State Police and the State Highway Patrol and finance the new organization entirely from the motor license fund.

"You call attention to the fact that heretofore the State Highway Patrol has been supported by continuing appropriations from the motor license fund while the Pennsylvania State Police has been supported by a specific appropriation from the general fund. You, therefore, inquire whether the proposed consolidation of the two forces to be financed entirely from the motor license fund will constitute a diversion of highway revenues under Section 12 of the Hayden-Cartwright Act. You point out that this new organization is proposed to be maintained by an unlimited appropriation from the motor license fund now estimated to amount to about six and a quarter million dollars.

"It is our judgment that should the pending bill be enacted in its present form it would have to be held as constituting a diversion of the highway revenues derived from special taxes on motor vehicle owners and operators."

Very truly yours,

Mr. President, not only because we perhaps are faced by losing a considerable amount of money received from the Federal Government for highway purposes should this bill be defeated, but I believe with the Senator from Lehigh, that there is no reason for this consolidation at this time. In the early stages of the Highway Patrol it was a part of the State Police, and the legislature saw fit to support the two. The functions of the two organizations are entirely different; one is the ferreting out of crimes and to keep the general peace, the other is to maintain safety on the highways, and I contend that the Motor Patrol does its best job when, instead of seeing how many arrests it can make, it sees how many times it can caution those who are exceeding the speed limit, and keep safety on the highways. When we merge these two bodies, we are going to have jealousy within the organization, we are going to upset the status of some of those who have rights in the two organizations at the present time, and there appears to be no real reason for the bill, and there has been no call, that I know, from the general public to have it. I have been pointed out in the hearing recently held, everybody that appeared there, outside of the administration, are opposed to the bill. I think we will act wisely if we vote down this and the other measures.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, these bills, as I see it, are in line with modern tendency of government, to combine duties that are similar under one head. There has been a demand in Pennsylvania for a number of years, especially from the motorists and motor clubs, that our highway patrol was not sufficient, that it ought to be bettered. There were petitions and we have heard the discussion throughout the State, of both motorists and motor clubs that are interested in our highways and the safety of our highways, that today we do not have half enough highway patrolmen on the highways. As I understand it the Highway Patrol and the State Police are about equally divided in this state, but the State Police were able to handle conditions at its peak. In other words, we have a force that handles the situation in this State under the worst conditions. Therefore we have a State Police that is only working a part of the time, a great deal of the time our State Police are kept up in barracks doing nothing, in waiting for a call. When they ought to go on a call they travel our highways. I cannot tell the difference between a State Policemen and a Highway Patrolmen on the Highways. They are all good looking men, smart men, I want to say this, above the average police force in the State, that is above the police forces of the municipalities. I think they are both a credit to the State of Pennsylvania and I feel that it would be a good thing to have the State Policemen given the authority that when they go out on the highways—and they travel the highways a great deal, travel over the same roads that our Highway Patrolmen travel,—that while they are out on those duties they should have the same power, and when they are not on the highways that they can be called out and do highway patrol work, instead of loafing around the barracks. When there are emergencies they can be called out under these bills, as they were under the old, to meet any emergency. In the state of New York they have this combined force and it is working very satisfactorily. I see no reason why these two forces should not be combined. Now I have heard that these men are trained, the State police are trained in crime detection and the Highway Patrolmen are trained in traffic violation and I cannot see why both bodies cannot be trained in both. I cannot see why a highway patrolman cannot be made a crime detector and he is traveling over the road great distances most of the time. I can see no harm in giving him the power of a state policeman, I can see no harm in giving the power of a state policeman the power of a patrolman; therefore, I feel that in the interest of economy, in the interest of consolidation and supervision and of more highway patrolmen on the highways, on account of the accidents that have gotten to be a great problem, these bills should pass.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, how much money is to be appropriated from the Motor License Fund under the companion bill 770.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, in the neighborhood of three million dollars.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I presume all the members of the Senate know the effect of the passage of this series of bills upon our Highway Fund. I presume most all of us know that there is such a bill known as the Hayden-Cartwright Act of June 19, 1934, which very clearly provides that any diversion of Motor License Fund, Gasoline Tax Fund by the various states from the laws then existing will bring down upon the heads of those states a penalty of losing one-third of our federal appropriation, I do not have the exact figures before me of what these bills will cost us in the way of loss of Highway Funds, but I am told it is in the neighborhood of nine million dollars for two years. Do we want to go ahead and force these merger bills and divert the motor funds for the purpose of supporting crime detection under the state police and therefore have visited upon us the penalties provided by the Hayden-Cartwright Act of losing our federal appropriation to the extent, as near as I can find out, of about nine million dollars in two years? That is what I call penny wise and pound foolish. Now there is no reason whatsoever why these bills should pass and I think it is in the interest of the people of this state and the public in general that these bills should all be defeated.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am advised by the Secretary of Highways, who has had a number of conferences, having had a conference only yesterday with the Federal Administration, after going on the figures and the entire situation in this state, he has assured the Secretary of Highways that there will be no penalties if there is a merger of the Motor funds for this purpose, for this reason that nearly a million dollars that have been collected in funds for violation of the highway regulation that is not strictly a motor fund. In the State of Pennsylvania we have collected a gasoline tax, which has gone into the motor fund, from drug stores, farmers, from aeroplanes, and used in highway construction, cleaners and dyers, which has satisfied the authorities at Washington do not belong in the motor fund. Therefore, the federal government has assured the Secretary of Highways and this administration that there would be no penalties because of diversion of funds if these bills were passed.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is not centralization, but this is consolidation, and I would like to see it followed out further by the creation of a department of conservation in forest and waters, game and fish. I used to drive around the State and in certain places I would see on one side of the street Highway Patrol and pretty near on the other side of the street there would be a State Police Headquarters. I wondered why we should have the expense of the two like that and I put in bills here in 1929, 1931 and 1933 to do this very same thing. I simply want to congratulate the Democratic Administration in doing what I have so long tried to do.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Senator McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis informs us that he cannot tell the difference between a state policeman and a motor patrolman, notwithstanding he says that the one is dressed in a certain way and the other one has a State uniform. I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether or not he can tell the difference between a game warden and a fish warden.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I cannot.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, then I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether or not if the consolidation of these two bodies were a good thing it would not be well to go farther than these bills and follow the suggestion of the Senator from Philadelphia now and incorporate the game warden and fish warden and all those with the forests and waters.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, we can do that by a separate bill. I do not think the game and fish wardens ought to be in the Highway Patrol and Highway Police.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, promise that he will introduce such a bill?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, if the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, will introduce such a bill as that I will vote for it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, May 18, 1937.

The House met at 1:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Rev. Dr. JOHN S. TOME, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Hanover, Pa., offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, deep beyond our understanding and high above our imagining, we worship Thee. We glory in Thy greatness and Thy depths beyond our understanding.

Be to us a refuge. Throw Thy greatness around our littleness. Humble us with some fair vision of loveliness in character and in deed that will shame us from our self-contentment.

Be to us a friend, not far off but close at hand, available for every day's most common need so that we may but part the inward curtain of our souls and find Thee there. Make us aware of Thine abiding presence and be to every one of us henceforth the inner friend, the unseen companion.

Be Thou to these, Thy honored servants, a guide. May light fall upon their souls as they plan for the citizens of our Commonwealth. Help them so that they may not be confused amid the perplexities of life. May they see the road that should be taken in private and public living. Come Thou beyond our power to pray for them close to their souls. Bless and keep these Thy servants in Thy constant care we beseech Thee. In the name of Christ we ask these blessings. Amen.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1043, Printer's No. 943, entitled "An Act to re-enact and amend the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred fourteen), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment, collection, and lien of the same, and the distribution of the proceeds thereof; imposing duties on executors, administrators, registers of wills, recorders of deeds, prothonotaries, and court clerks, and on persons, copartnerships, associations, banks, national banks, trust companies, and other corporations receiving deposits of money, and on certain corporations and limited partnerships; conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments; imposing penalties; and making an appropriation", as amended, by imposing annual taxes for State purposes for two additional years imposing taxes on ground rents making further provisions for filing of reports and for the assessment and collection of said taxes and penalties and interest thereon modifying and further defining certain exemptions from said taxes.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

BILLS TO BE READ FIRST TIME

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I move that all bills which are reported out from the Committees as committed be read for the first time, for the remainder of this session.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the Speaker whether this motion pertains to all House bills reported from any committee, or does it pertain only to bills from the Appropriations Committee?

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that it includes all House and Senate bills reported from any committee as committed shall be given first reading when reported.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in the Appropriations Committee this morning we agreed that all appropriation bills where there were no amendments of any kind should be, especially these bills pertaining to the institutions, read for the first time. I do think that they are all right. I see no reason why we should agree to allow the Senate bills that are reported from the committee to be read for the first time, and I certainly would object to having all House bills read for the first time. I think that if there is some particular reason why a House bill should be read for the first time, that if the gentlemen on the other side will come to us with an explanation, we can readily get together on it.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I will amend my motion to have it apply only to bills coming out of the Appropriations Committee as committed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 59, by inserting between lines 11 and 12 the following section:

"Section 710. Reduction of Registration Fees in Certain Cases. The fee for registration of a motor vehicle trailer and semi-trailer when registration is issued on or after [August] July first but prior to [November] October first shall be one-half (½) of the fee for annual registration: Provided, That the fee for registration of any such vehicles when registration is issued on or after [November] October first shall be one-fourth (¼) of the fee herein specified."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I object to the amendments.

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendments which I have submitted for your consideration are very simple and I think you understood them as they were read by the clerk. They merely provide for the correction of a condition with regard to the time for issuing licenses at the mid-year and at the close of the year and the fees therefor.

At present, you know, if you desire to secure a license during the middle of the year, you can secure a registration license and license plates the first of August. These amendments provide that licenses may be issued by the Department the first of July and are good for the balance of the year, at a cost of the half-year's license fee and the same thing is true for the last quarter of the year. The time is shoved ahead one month to October. It provides that one may secure a registration license good for three months beginning with the first of October at one-quarter of the regular yearly fee.

I have made considerable study of the laws of other states pertaining to this matter and I have failed to find a single instance of a state which does not give a full half-year's license for a half-year's fee and the same thing for a quarter. It would seem to me that Pennsylvania should not stand alone in this particular matter and it would also seem to me that it would be very unfair to charge, or, rather, only to give a five months license and yet charge a six months fee.

There are a great many farmers in this State who do not use their trucks the first half of the year. Most of their work, the heaviest time commences about the first of July and this amendments would provide them with an opportunity to secure a half year's license at a half year's fee. It is a simple amendment. This bill in many respects aims to liberalize the laws pertaining to motor vehicles. and this amendment goes just a step further and corrects an injustice.

I hope that every member of the House will vote for these amendments.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, regarding the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Van Allsburg, there is something exactly identical with it now in the Senate. It originally was House Bill No. 662. It has passed the House and has passed first reading in the Senate. I do not think at this time we should be burdened with this additional amendment because, as I say, it is already in the hands of the Senate and they will pass upon it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 713), page 60, line 21, by inserting after the word "year" the following: "and the next two succeeding license years."

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 713), page 60, line 23, by striking out the words "one ($1) dollar" and inserting in lieu thereof: "two ($2) dollars which shall entitle the operator to a license for the current year and the two next succeeding license years."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I object to the amendments as proposed by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment which I propose to this bill provides that an operator's license shall be issued for a period of three years rather than one year. The cost for the issuance of this operator's license shall be two dollars. Thus under the plan which I propose a fee of two dollars would be paid which permits a person to operate a motor vehicle in the State of Pennsylvania for a period of three years. Under the bill as it now exists, an operator's license would be issued each year at a cost of one dollar. Thus I propose a saving of one dollar in every three years or of thirty-three and one-third percent to operators of motor vehicles in the State of Pennsylvania. This would not mean, however, that there would be a thirty-three and one-third percent reduction in the amount of money which would be applicable to highway purposes, because while the cost of issuing the license would be substantially reduced, the Department of Revenue would not have to pay as much for clerical help, would not have to pay as much for printing, would not have to pay as much for postage as it would under the plan which is proposed in the bill as it now exists. In addition to that it would be a saving to the people who are applying for licenses both in time and in money. I think that it should be our purpose to secure the greatest amount of service for the money which is paid by our motorists. Under the plan which I propose there would be almost as much money for use on the highways from the money that is paid by these operators as there would be under the plan which is suggested and for this reason I think we should adopt this amendment. I believe that this House is more interested in rendering service to the motorist and seeing that they obtain a fair amount of road repairs for the money which they pay—I believe that the House is more interested in that than they are in merely creating new jobs in the Department of Revenue. Therefore, in the interest of the motorists, who must pay their money, in giving them a reduction in their motor license fee and at the same time not substantially reducing the amount which will be applied for highway purposes, I think this amendment should be adopted.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this amendment for the following reasons: in the first place, the Governor, among his recent messages, specifically promised motor vehicle operators in the State of Pennsylvania a one-year license for one dollar and that is what the people are looking for, not for something in a different dress that will not accomplish the same purpose. In addition to that I might state, as chairman of the sub-committee which studied this bill very carefully, that such an amendment was considered in that sub-committee but was voted down because it removed a certain check that the Department of Revenue now has over operators of motor vehicles and particularly over criminals and people of that type. That check would be removed by a provision such as this amendment would create.

I ask the membership of this House to vote down these amendments.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WOODSIDE and Mr. SCHROCK and were as follows:

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Motor Vehicles for a public hearing.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the gentleman is out of order when he asks that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Motor Vehicles at this time because the bill has not as yet passed second reading.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. A motion to recommit is a privileged motion and precludes the original question.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this motion to recommit this bill for the purpose of a public hearing for the following reasons: in the first place, this bill has been in committee since the latter part of March and the membership of this House has had ample time to study it. The membership of the Committee has given it more than usual consideration, and I might state that various interested parties, such as the Federation of Motor Truckers in the person of its President and others have been called into the Committee to give their testimony, which testimony amounted to a public hearing upon the bill. In order to speed this bill along, I ask the membership of the House to vote down this motion and if a public hearing is to be granted and is necessary, it can be granted and held in the Senate.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize that it is getting late in the session, but on the other hand we are attempting to pass here a very extensive piece of legislation without giving the public, which will be greatly affected by it, an opportunity to come before us and publicly express their views. There are so many provisions in this bill that it is very difficult for any person to cover the field carefully and to vote intelligently upon it. I know that in reading it over I discovered a number of things which would affect a great number of different people. School boards are interested in many of the phases of this legislation, truckers are very much interested as well as all the rest of the motoring public. There are some radical changes made in this bill and I think it is no more than fair to give these people who will be seriously affected by it and those businesses which will be seriously affected by this measure an opportunity to come before the Committee and express their views and suggest any amendments they may have to submit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, fifty members having voted in the affirmative and one hundred twenty-nine in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

The second to the twenty-first sections inclusive and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 That the penalty clause of section nine hundred three of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Penalty Any person [violating any of the provisions of this section] operating any vehicle upon any highway with a gross weight exceeding by more than five (5) per centum the maximum gross weight allowed and not exceeding by more than ten (10) per centum the maximum gross weight allowed shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of [fifty ($50)] twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than [ten (10)] five (5) days and any person operating any vehicle on any highway with a gross weight exceeding by more than (10) per centum the maximum gross weight allowed shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty ($50) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 3 That sections 904 1001 1008 1012 1013 1015 1023 1025 1101 1201 1202 1204 1206 1207 and 1211 of the said act are hereby amended or further amended as the case may be to read as follows

Section 904 Officers May Weigh Vehicles and Require Removal of Excess Load Any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to weigh the same either by means of portable or stationary scales or may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest stationary scales in the event such scales are within a distance of two (2) miles The peace officer may then require the operator to unload immediately such portion of the load as may be necessary to decrease the gross weight of such vehicle to the maximum gross weight specified in this act except as herein provided for special permits And further provided That no arrests shall be made or information brought in cases where the maximum gross weights provided in this act are not exceeded by more than [ten (10)] five (5) per centum thereof

Penalty Any person [refusing to unload excess weight when so ordered] violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 1001 Reckless Driving Reckless driving is unlawful and for the purpose of this act is construed to include the following

(a) Any person who drives any vehicle or street car or trackless trolley omnibus upon a highway carelessly and wilfully or wantonly disregarding the rights or safety of others or in a manner so as to endanger any person or property

(b) If investigation into an accident arising from the use and operation of a motor vehicle discloses that the accident occurred due to the front seat of the motor vehicle having been occupied by more than three (3) persons Provided That this provision shall not apply to a motor vehicle the front seat of which has been constructed to accommodate more than three (3) persons And further provided That there is sixteen (16) inches of seating capacity for each passenger or occupant so accommodated on said front seat

(c) Any person who shall participate in any physical endurance test or any race or speed contest with a motor vehicle on any highway

Penalty Any person charged with reckless driving shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than ten ($10) dollars nor more than twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 1008 Limitations on Privileges of Overtaking and Passing

(a) The driver of a vehicle shall not drive to the left side of the center line of a highway in overtaking [and] or passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking [and] or passing to be made in safety

(b) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake [and] or pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction when approaching the crest of a grade nor upon a curve in the highway where the driver's view along the highway is obstructed within a distance of three hundred (300) feet ahead except on a highway having two (2) or more lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake [and] or pass another vehicle Provided That on a highway within a business or residence district having two (2) or more marked lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake [and] or pass another vehicle on the right

(c) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake [and] or pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction at any railway grade crossing nor at any intersection of highway unless such intersection or crossing is controlled by traffic signal or unless permitted so to do by a watchman or peace officer except on a highway having two (2) or more lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake [and] or pass another vehicle Provided That on a highway within a business or residence district having two (2) or more marked lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake [and] or pass another vehicle on the right Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit a driver overtaking [and] or passing upon the right another vehicle which is making or about to make a left turn

(d) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake [and] or pass or attempt to pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction between any points indicated by the placing of temporary warning or caution signs indicating that men are working on the highway

(e) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake or pass or attempt to overtake or pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction in any "no passing zone"

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 1012 Signals on Starting Stopping or Turning

(a) The driver of any vehicle upon a highway before starting stopping or turning from a direct line shall first see that such movement can be made in safety and if any pedestrian may be affected by such movement shall give a clearly audible signal by sounding the horn and whenever the operation of any other vehicle approaching or following may be affected by such movement shall give a signal as required in this section plainly visible to the driver of such other vehicle of the intention to make such movement

(b) The signal herein required shall be given either by means of the hand and arm in the manner herein specified or by an approved mechanical or electrical signal device except that when the secretary finds that a vehicle is so constructed or loaded as to prevent the hand and arm signal from being visible to the front and rear the signal shall be given by a device of a type which at the time of its use is approved by the secretary

[1] (c) Whenever the signal is given by means of the hand and arm the driver shall indicate his intention to start stop or turn by extending the hand and arm horizontally from and beyond the left side of the vehicle or if he is driving a closed vehicle by his hand and arm in such a way as to be visible through the window in the rear of the vehicle

(d) The secretary is hereby authorized and it shall be his duty to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act for the efficient administration of this section excepting that he shall make no ruling relating to mechanical or electrical signal devices under this section affecting vehicles which measure less than thirteen (13) feet from the center of the top of the steering column to the rear end of such vehicle or when the body of such vehicle extends less than twenty (20) inches to the left of the center of the top of the steering column

(e) All mechanical or electrical signal devices shall be maintained at all times in good working order

(f) No driver of any vehicle upon a highway shall give a signal indicating a stop start or turn unless such signal is required by this act

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of sub-sections (a) (b) (c) (e) or (f) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 1013 Right of Way

(a) When two vehicles or two street cars or two trackless trolley omnibuses approach or enter or when any vehicle street car or trackless trolley omnibus approaches or enters an intersection at approximately the same time the driver of the vehicle street car or trackless trolley omnibus on the left shall yield the right of way to the vehicel street car or trackless trolley omnibus on the right except as otherwise provided in this act The driver of any vehicle street car or trackless trolley omnibus traveling at an unlawful speed shall forfeit any right of way which he might otherwise have hereunder

(b) The driver of a vehicle street car or trackless trolley omnibus approaching but not having entered an intersection shall yield the right of way to a vehicle within such intersection or turning therein to the left across the line of travel of such first mentioned vehicle provided the driver of the vehicle turning left has given a plainly visible signal of intention to turn as required in this act

(c) The driver of any vehicle street car or trackless trolley omnibus upon a highway within a business or residence district shall yield the right of way to a pedestrian crossing such highway within a crosswalk except at intersections where the movement of traffic is being regulated by a peace officer or traffic signal Every pedestrian crossing a highway within a business or residence district at any point other than a crosswalk shall yield the right of way to vehicles upon the highway

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 1015 What to do on Approach of Police or Fire Department Vehicle

(a) Upon the approach of any police or fire department vehicle or ambulance giving audible signal the driver of every other vehicle shall immediately drive the same to a position as near as possible and parallel to the right-hand edge or curb of the highway clear of any intersection of highways and shall stop and remain in such position unless otherwise directed by a peace officer until the police or fire department vehicle or ambulance shall have passed

(b) It shall be unlawful for the driver of any vehicle street car or trackless trolley omnibus other than one on official business to follow any fire apparatus traveling in response to a fire alarm closer than five hundred (500) feet or to park such vehicle within five hundred (500) feet where fire apparatus has stopped in answer to a fire alarm

(c) Upon the approach of any police or fire department vehicle or ambulance giving audible signal the operator of every street car or trackless trolley omnibus shall immediately stop and remain in such position unless otherwise directed by a peace officer until the police or fire department vehicle or omnibus shall have passed

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Amend Page 2, Line 2, by striking out of said line, after the figure "2" and all of lines 13 to 17 inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"The Legislative Council shall meet at least sixty days prior to each regular session of the General Assembly and as early as may be prior to each regular session at the call of the chairman. It shall have power to meet at such other times as may be deemed necessary by a majority of the members thereof and shall meet at least once in each three months. The council shall prepare for submission to each such session of the Legislature tentative drafts of Legislation which it believes should be considered and where feasible submit preliminary reports and drafts of bills to members of the Legislature before it convene. The council shall collect information concerning the government and general welfare of the State and local governments and the system of local governments examine existing statutes and recommend amendments thereto, study questions of state-wide interest, prepare Legislative programs for submission to sessions of the Legislature and cooperate with the administration in devising ways and means of enforcing law and improving the effectiveness of administrative methods. The Governor shall from time to time transmit to the Legislative Council such matters for study and such messages as he deems pertinent. Any member of the Senate and House of Representatives may attend the meetings of the Legislative Council and engage in its discussions but shall have no vote unless he is a member of the council".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as well as I could hear the amendments as they were being read by the Clerk, this would appear to be an attempt on the part of the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry, to rewrite the entire bill or at least the entire section. It must be apparent to the members of this House that if the change in the number of members were adopted, it would make an unwieldy body that would, of course, not be able to accomplish the objects as would the creation of this commission. I point to the members of the House that we have increased the number by the amendments that I have offered which, if accepted by this House, will allow a proper representation from all parts of the State of Pennsylvania and will thoroughly and completely carry out the object of the bill. Likewise I say this is an effort on the part of the member to write into the bill restrictions on the part of the commission or of the committee so that they could not proceed with their duties as efficiently, perhaps, as they might desire.

Therefore, I ask the members of this House to vote down the amendments offered by the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Perry.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, the amendments proposing to increase the number of members in the bill now before the House proposing to establish a Joint State Government Committee,—those amendments provide for many details in amplification of the bill.

It so happens that on January 18, following a careful study, a bill known as the Legislative Council Bill was prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau. That bill was referred to the Committee on State Government on January 18, of which Committee Mr. Achterman is the chairman. As I understand it, the bill was then referred to a sub-committee of which Mr. Herbert B. Cohen is the chairman. On March 2 a new bill, known as the Joint State Government Committee bill and containing points of both the bills was presented by myself prior to that occasion. These amendments are the amendments as prepared to the original Legislative Council Bill and supply the details as worked out through the aid of the Legislative Reference Bureau and after study in the matter. There are several conflicts as to the choice of the personnel between the amendment proposed by myself and the amendment proposed by Mr. Achterman. That was necessitated because the intent of this bill is to create a continuing advisory council for the benefit of this Legislature which from time to time and in the interim will propose and draft legislation for subsequent action. We feel that because of the diverse interests involved in such legislation, because of the conflicting interests of various sections of Pennsylvania, it should be a truly representative group freed as far as possible from political influence. The amendment that is proposed under my suggestion is to establish a commission composed of sixteen members of the House and ten members of the Senate, two of which shall be from Philadelphia, two of which shall be from Allegheny County, and one of which shall represent every Congressional district in the State of Pennsylvania, with the provision that in their selection neither of the major political parties shall have more than a one-third advantage or, in other words, if the Democratic party should be in control they would be entitled to two-thirds on the committee, and if on the other hand it was the Republican party they would be entitled to two-thirds. That is the purpose of the amendment and, so far as I can see, the conflict between the amendments of Mr. Achterman and my own is largely in the number of the personnel.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman who has just spoken has indicated that possibly he has a prior right to this bill due to the fact that his bill was introduced prior to the bill now before the House. I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that in the 1935 session I introduced a bill identical to the bill that is now before the House and that that bill was successful in passing both the House and the Senate. However, due to the extremity of the financial situation in the Commonwealth at that time, it was not felt that the necessary moneys would be available with which to provide the appropriation necessary for the committee to function. I was delayed by my duties from introducing this bill again at this session, possibly after the gentleman who has just addressed this House had introduced his bill. However, I had no knowledge whatsoever of his introduction of that bill, and I feel sure that the present bill as it is very capably amended by the gentleman from Monroe represents the full desires not only of the membership of the House but also of the membership of the Senate, and I also feel sure it will obtain the approval of the Administration when it is presented for signature.

I, therefore, ask the members to support the amendment to the bill of Mr. Achterman rather than the amendment to the bill of the gentleman from Blair, and I ask that the amendments of the gentleman from Blair be voted down.

of business done or estimated to be done in any month by the applicant executed by a surety corporation authorized to transact business in this Commonwealth to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the use of producers of farm produce handled by the applicant Such bond shall be upon a form prescribed or approved by the department and shall be conditional to secure the faithful accounting for and payment to producers of the proceeds of all farm produce handled or sold by such dealer Actions or suits upon the appropriate bond may be brought directly by any producer his representatives successors or assigns to whom the principal named in such bond has failed to render an account or to make payment for farm produce in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover for any loss or damage resulting from such breach of the condition of such bond Provided however That in lieu of such bond the department may accept and hold sufficient collateral of the applicant which shall in all respects be subject to the same claims and actions as would exist against the bond And provided further That if the bond or collateral thus posted shall be insufficient to pay in full the valid claims of producers the department may direct that the proceeds of such bond or collateral shall be divided pro rata among such producers

Section 7 Every dealer in farm produce shall upon the receipt of farm produce for which payment is not made on delivery and as he handles and disposes of the same make and preserve for at least two years a record thereof specifying the name and address of the producer consigning such farm produce the date of receipt the kind and quality of such produce the amount of goods sold the name and address of the purchaser except that where sales total less than five dollars ($5.00) in value such sales may be made to order of "cash" the selling price thereof and the items of expenses connected therewith An "account sales" together with payment in settlement for said shipment shall be mailed to the producer within forty-eight hours after the sale of such farm produce unless otherwise agreed in writing

Section 8 The department shall have power to investigate upon complaint in such form as it may require of any interested persons or upon its own initiative the record of any applicant or licensee or any transaction involving the solicitation receipt sale or attempted sale of farm produce the failure to make proper and true accounts and settlements at prompt and regular intervals the making of false statements as to condition quality or quantity of goods received or while in storage the making of false statements as to market conditions with intent to deceive or the failure to make payment for goods received or other alleged injurious transactions For such purposes the department may examine at the place or places of business of the applicant or licensee his ledgers books of accounts memoranda and other documents which relate to the transaction involved and may take testimony thereon under oath

Section 9 The department may decline to grant a license or may suspend or revoke a license already granted if it is satisfied that the applicant or licensee has either

(1) Suffered a money judgment to be entered against him upon which execution has been returned unsatisfied or

(2) Made false charges for handling or services rendered or

(3) Failed to account promptly and properly or to make settlements with any producer or

(4) Made any false statement or statements as to condition quality or quantity of goods received or held for sale when he could have ascertained the true condition quality or quantity by reasonable inspection or

(5) Made any false or misleading statement or statements as to market conditions or service rendered or

(6) Been guilty of a fraud in the attempt to produce or the procurement of a license or

(7) Directly or indirectly purchased farm produce received on consignment or on a net return basis for his own account without prior authority from the producer consigning the same or without notifying such producer

Section 10 Before the department shall refuse suspend or revoke any license it shall give ten days' notice by registered mail to the applicant or licensee of a time and place of hearing At such hearing the applicant or licensee shall be privileged to appear in person or by or with counsel and to produce witnesses If the department shall find the applicant or licensee shall have been guilty of any of the acts provided in section nine of this act the department may refuse suspend or revoke such license and shall give immediate notice of its action to the applicant or licensee

Section 11 Any applicant or licensee aggrieved by any decision of the department shall have the right of appeal therefrom within thirty days from the date of notice to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County

From a decision of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County an appeal may be taken by either party to the Superior or Supreme Court of Pennsylvania as in other cases

No appeal shall act as a supersedeas but pending final disposition of an appeal under this section the department may for special cause shown grant in writing temporary permission revocable at any time and subject to such terms and conditions as the department may prescribe to transact business as a dealer in farm produce but unless such permission be granted any applicant to whom a license has been refused and any licensee whose license has been revoked by the department who shall do business as a dealer in farm produce shall be liable therefor to the same extent as if no application had been filed

Section 12 Any dealer in farm produce violating the provisions of section three of this act or interferring with an agent of the department in the enforcement of this act shall for the first or second offense upon conviction in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days and for a third or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court

Section 13 The Attorney General at the request of the department may in the name of the Commonwealth institute proceedings in equity in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County for the purpose of enjoining the conduct of business in this Commonwealth contrary to the provisions of this act and for such purpose jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon said court In such case the Attorney General shall not be required to give bond

Section 14 The Department shall enforce and shall adopt rules and regulations deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 15 All moneys received from license fees and fines shall be immediately paid by the department into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue and credited to the General Fund

Section 16 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1305, as follows:

An Act to amend section twenty-nine of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 207) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effort of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" by providing that under certain circumstances a municipality may purchase for the sheriff's costs subject to the lien of taxes and municipal claims property sold to satisfy a judgment on a tax or municipal claim and providing for the management and disposition of said property after said sale

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section twenty-nine of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 207) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 29 The plaintiff in any judgment recovered on a tax or municipal claim may upon paying the sheriff's costs fix an upset price to be realized at any sale under such judgment sufficient to pay all taxes and municipal claims and all accrued but unfiled taxes and claims in full No sale shall be made on a judgment recovered on a tax or municipal claim except for a sum sufficient to pay all taxes and municipal claims in full except as hereinafter provided and the plaintiff in such judgment may purchase the property at such sale for that sum if no one bids a higher price therefore except when a municipality is the real plaintiff in such judgment and no one else bids a sum sufficient to pay sheriff's costs and all taxes and municipal claims in full said municipality may purchase the property for the sheriff's costs thereon subject to the lien of all taxes and municipal claims and liens not otherwise discharged by the sale under existing law

Upon a purchase by a municipality for the sheriff's costs any income received from the property by the municipality in excess of that necessary for the upkeep of said property and the payment of insurance premiums thereon and the cost of improvements thereto shall be applied to the payment of the costs of sale then to payment of all taxes liened and unliened in the order of their priority the oldest being paid first and then to municipal claims in the same order

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1173, as follows:

An Act to insure and protect fair trade practices in distribution defining such practices prohibiting the advertisement offer for sale or sale of merchandise at less than cost and fixing a penalty for such advertisement offer for sale or sale and investing the courts with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of the act

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

Section 1 Definitions The words and phrases used herein shall unless the context otherwise indicates have the following meanings

(a) "Cost to the retailer" shall mean (1) the total consideration paid by the retailer for the merchandise delivered at the retail outlet or the total consideration necessary for the replacement of the merchandise to the retailer at the retail outlet such consideration to be determined by applying to said merchandise the same cost per unit as the last quantity purchased by the retailer prior to the sale of said merchandise would have cost per unit if bought at the most favorable market price available to the retailer at any time within thirty (30) days prior to said sale whichever is lower less any customary trade discounts but exclusive of discounts for cash

(b) "Cost to the wholesaler" shall mean (1) the total consideration paid by the wholesaler for merchandise delivered at the wholesale outlet or the total consideration necessary for the replacement of the merchandise to the wholesaler at the wholesale outlet such consideration to be determined by applying to said merchandise the same cost per unit as the last quantity purchased by the wholesaler prior to the sale of said merchandise would have cost per unit if bought at the most favorable market price available to the wholesaler at any time within sixty (60) days prior to said sale which ever is lower less any customary trade discounts for cash

(c) "Cost to the retailer" and "cost to the wholesaler" must be bona fide costs and sales to consumers retailers and wholesalers at prices which cannot be justified by existing market conditions within this State shall not be used as basis for computing costs with respect to sales by retailers and wholesalers

(d) "Sell at retail" and "sales at retail" shall mean any transfer of title to tangible personal property for a valuable consideration where such property is to be used by the purchaser for purposes other than re-sale manufacture or further processing The above terms shall also include any such transfer of property where title is retained by the seller as security for the payment of the purchase price

(e) "Sell at wholesale" and "sales at wholesale" shall mean any transfer of title to tangible personal property for a valuable consideration where such property is to be used by the purchaser for purposes of re-sale manufacture or further processing The above terms shall also include any such transfer of property where title is retained by the seller as security for the payment of the purchase price

(f) "Retailer" shall include every person firm corporation or association engaged in the business of making sales at retail within this State Provided That in the case of a person firm corporation or association engaged in the business of making both sales at retail and at wholesale such term shall be applied only to the retail portion of such business

(g) "Wholesaler" shall mean and include every person firm corporation or association engaged in the business of making sales at wholesale within this State Provided That in the case of a person firm corporation or association engaged in the business of making both sales at wholesale and at retail such term shall be applied only to the wholesale portion of such business

Section 2 It is hereby declared that the advertisement offer for sale or sale of any merchandise at less than cost by retailers or wholesalers is prohibited

Section 3 Any retailer who shall advertise offer to sell or sell at retail any merchandise at less than cost to the retailer as defined in this act or any wholesaler who shall advertise offer to sell or sell at wholesale any merchandise at less than cost to the wholesaler as defined in this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) Proof of any such advertisement offer to sell or sale by any retailer or wholesaler shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act

Section 4 In addition to the penalties provided in this act the Courts of Common Pleas of this Commonwealth are hereby invested with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of this act and it shall be the duty of the several District Attorneys in their respective districts to institute proceedings in equity to prevent and restrain violations Any person shall be entitled to sue for and have injunctive relief in any Court of Common Pleas of this Commonwealth against threatened loss or damage by reason of a violation of this act

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall not apply to sales at retail or sales at wholesale (a) where merchandise is sold in bona fide clearance sales and is advertised marked and sold as such (b) where perishable merchandise must be promptly sold in order to forestall loss (c) where merchandise is imperfect or damaged or is being discontinued and is advertised marked and sold as such (d) where merchandise is sold upon the final liquidation of any business (e) where merchandise is sold for charitable purposes (f) where the price of merchandise is made to meet the legal price of a competitor for merchandise of the same grade quality and quantity and (g) where merchandise is sold by any officer acting under the direction of any court

Section 6 This act may be known and cited as the "Fair Sales Act"

Section 7 If any section sentence or clause of this act shall for any reason be held invalid or unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts hereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

(d) The provisions of this act shall not affect any act done or any suit or prosecutions pending or to be instituted to enforce any right or penalty or punish any offense under the authority of such acts so repealed respecting any act done or omitted prior to such repeal

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill is another one of the personal registration bills for elections. It applies to third class cities. Why is it necessary? It seems to me it is only about two years ago that we had a permanent registration bill for third class cities. Why should it be necessary to have another one at this session? It seems to be beyond my comprehension.

However, I understand that this bill follows very closely the other permanent registration bills that have been introduced. There are a number of minor defects in this bill and things that should be corrected.

I submitted the bill to the solicitor of one of the third class cities who has had long years of experience, and his comment upon this bill is this: "Too much regimentation, too much for the voter to do. A voter should be inconvenienced as little as possible, otherwise he will not register or vote." I think that the House should take cognizance of these permanent registration bills that are putting endless work upon the voter. I think almost every member of this House has done practical political work, he knows the difficulty of getting out the vote. We have tried for a number of years to raise the percentage of those who vote at the elections, but these bills instead of helping will undoubtedly restrict the number of voters who turn out and will be detrimental in accomplishing the very thing which I think some of the proponents hope to accomplish. Therefore I think that this bill should be defeated.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, what the gentleman indicates is quite correct insofar as the fact that in the last session we did pass the third class city registration bill. However, this bill makes uniform registration involving all of the boroughs, townships and third class cities in the State of Pennsylvania. It contains a saving clause which says the third class city registration of all those which have already been registered, and will expedite the work of the third class city registrars and county commissioners by setting specific dates for all municipalities. I ask the House to vote favorably on the measure.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, this bill also provides a correction that was not in the last registration bill which compels the county commissioners to have clerks sit in third class cities that have permanent registration. Not only that, but also it provides that the county commissioners or their clerks cannot take registrations off the list. In Luzerne County just a year ago some two thousand people from Hazleton, twenty-two miles came to be registered, and after being registered when they came to vote they found that their names were not on the registry book, nobody was to blame, nobody was responsible, and the registered voters had nothing to show that they were registered outside of their word that they were at the county court house.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPUTO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Beaver whether there is any necessity for the passage of this bill in view of the fact that the House passed the Moran bill, No. 250, which covers the same subject?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I believe that this bill, without casting reflections upon the bill introduced by Mr. Moran,—this bill is a much better bill and much simpler in the way of operation for the boroughs, and I believe it is a bill that will meet the requirements of the boroughs in much better shape than the Moran bill.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1331, entitled:

An Act requiring all persons claiming damages from any county city borough town township or school district to file within six (6) months from the origin of such claim a written notice with such county city borough town township or school district.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Beaver explain the purpose of this bill?

Mr. CAPUTO. I shall be glad to do so if my voice will enable me. Under the present law the statute of limitations on all claims against any person or municipal corporation is two years for injuries sustained by reason of damages and so on. Under this law a person injured because of a defect in the sidewalk, for instance, would be required to file notice with the municipality within six months of the happening of the injury and upon failure to do so he would be prevented from filing suit thereafter unless he could show the court that he was prevented from doing so within the six months period.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1334, entitled:

An Act providing for the recovery of damages by persons bitten by dogs and creating a liability of the owners of such dogs.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. GORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judicial General for the purpose of further study and possible amendments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interregate the gentlemen from Erie, Mr. Gorski.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GORSKI. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I merely wanted to inquire from the gentleman whether he was recommitting this bill back to the committee at the request of the sponsor or contrary to his wishes.

Mr. GORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I made this motion of my own volition.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I asked the members of the House to vote "no" on this motion.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was discussed in the Judiciary General Committee. The only occasion for sending it back to the committee would be to kill the bill. Therefor if you are for this bill, you will vote against this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "nay" appear to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, fifty-four members having voted in the affirmative and fifty-nine in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPUTO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor to explain the bill.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, for generations, as a matter of fact, as far back as we can remember, dogs have been a privileged group.

They have been entitled to one free bite. Now, under the new deal we have been attacking all the special privileges. We have attacked the utilities, we have attacked the corporations, the Grundys and the Mellons and the Pews. I feel that we have been remiss in our duty in that we have not included the dogs along with the Grundys, the Mellons and the Pews. For that reason it is a new deal measure, but it is not an administration measure. The reason for that, of course, is that the adminisration has not had sufficient orange colored backs for the purpose of backing this bill with the administration colors. That is the reason that this is not an administration bill. Otherwise it follows the lines of the new deal policies of special privilege to none.

Much as I love dogs and as much as I love horses, I still feel that the dogs should not be given the privilege of one free bite, and if they are going to bite people, particularly postmen or mailmen, they should pay for the pound of flesh they bite.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Beaver for very clearly stating the purposes of the bill. As I suspected, and as I have heard some of my Republican colleagues say, this would not entitle the dog to his one bite. The gentleman from Beaver has said that for a long time, through many ages, the dog has been entitled to one bite, but that the new deal was going to wipe that out and prevent thenceforth the dog from having that privilege of one bite without paying for it.

Now, I can understand why the gentleman from Beaver and others who think along the same lines and have the same mental processes as he, would want to introduce a bill preventing the dog from having the bite. The real answer to that is this, that he dosen't understand dogs. The dog is man's greatest frined, and a dog is the very soul of honor and is the most intelligent animal in the world. No dog ever bites a friend, no dog ever bites any man who approaches him in the right way. Any dog who conceives that a man is approaching him as he should, who is the proper kind of citizen, who is the kind of fellow whose face he can like or the kind of fellow whose attitude and whose character and whose manners are the proper kind never need fear any dog. The dog is not to blame, it is the individual who is to blame, and the trouble is that human beings feel that they have superior intelligence. They feel that the dog is to blame for biting them. Now, the dog is not to blame; the dog is perfectly right in doing that; he is a wise dog. If these New Dealers have been bitten, don't blame it on the dogs, don't come to the Legislature and try to get the pound of flesh out of the poor dog, because he is not to blame, it is your wrong mental attitude in your approach. It is the fact that the dog knows immediately that you are not the kind of citizen that should be left a large.

He knows immediately that you are not the kind of citizen that the dog ought to permit to come upon the premises or associate with his family, and therefore he bites, and bites properly.

That is in defense, and that is not the kind of an act for which he should be punished. We do not punish for self defense, we only punish where there is an offense against the Commonwealth or against the people. I ask you to vote "no" on the bill.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I notice that the Republicans apparently think more of dogs than they do of human beings. Furthermore, the bill does not penalize dogs. In reading the bill I find that it is not the dog that pays for the pound of flesh, but the owner of the dog. Therefore, the dog is not damaged; he can still have his bite. The only thing is that the owner pays for the first bite.

Therefore, I ask the members of the House to vote for this bill.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPUTO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I notice that the provisions of House Bill No. 1354 provide for a recovery of damages done to persons by the bite of dogs. I would like to ask the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo, if he intends to introduce later, legislation that will provide for recovery of damages by dogs who have been bitten by certain individuals.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, that will come later.

Mr. McGEE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPUTO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. LaRue, Murrin, Shugarts, Stank, Piole, Baine, Shaw, Simon, Siegel, Pershing, Broad, Haberlen, Robinson, Aukerman, Mellott, Sarraf, Dougherty, Elpern, Moomaw and Moul.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

By Mr. TURNER. RESOLUTION No. 88.

In the House of Representatives, May 18, 1937.

Whereas, In a series of resolutions adopted at a meeting of Delaware County Democrats in the Borough of Media, on the evening of April 22, 1937, it was openly charged that 'there is too much politics and coercion in WPA" in that county, and "too close alliance with men of questionable character making applications for taproom licenses" and

Whereas, It is currently stated that applicants for liquor licenses in Delaware County have been compelled to pay large sums to secure the renewal of their licenses, said payments being made to those prominent in the affairs of the Democratic party; and

Whereas, It is alleged that liquor licenses have been granted to improper parties by the Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board, and

Whereas, It is also currently reported that there is a close alliance between at least one representative of the Federal Government in Delaware County and liquor interests of that county; and

Whereas, All this has become such a stench in the nostrils of the voters that for the sake of party regularity Delaware County Democrats have been advised to "hold their noses" while they swallow the noisome mess; and

Whereas, Notwithstanding all efforts at gag rule, these Democrats have demanded the resignation of County Chairman Dr. James F. Bogardus, as a rebuke to the party leadership responsible for the alleged partnership between liquor and Democratic politics in Delaware County; and

Whereas, Dr. Bogardus is Secretary of Forests and Waters in the State Government;

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Speaker of this House shall appoint a Committee of five, three members of the majority and two of the minority, whose duty it shall be to make a careful and impartial investigation of the charges herein set forth, and to make report to this House as early as possible, together with such recommendations as the facts may warrant; and be it further

Resolved, That said Committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of the Chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching upon matters properly being inquired into by the Committee and to produce such papers, records and documents as the Committee may deem necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not there is relationship or collusion between persons engaged in the liquor traffic in Delaware County and the license granting authorities of the State; or if any contributions are being demanded in return for favors to persons in the liquor trade by persons in position to be politically influential; or if the persons engaged in the liquor traffic in Delaware County are being intimidated and coerced into making payments to political parties or others by the withholding of licenses by the State Liquor Control Board; and whether licenses are being granted to improper parties in Delaware County by the use of influence, money or other thing. Such subpoenas may be served on any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of this Committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said Committee, or to produce any books, papers, records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

Every holder of a certificate granted by the said department as provided in this act shall display it together with the current renewal card in a conspicuous place in his or her principal office place of business or employment

Failure or refusal to do so shall be sufficient cause for suspension of the said license by the department for a period of ten days Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act except as herein otherwise provided shall upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than ninety dollars ($90.00) or to undergo an imprisonment of not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days or both at the discretion of the court Any such person shall have the right of appeal as in other cases of summary conviction

Any holder of a certificate of registration who shall fail to apply for a renewal of his or her certificate on or before the first day of January in each year and who continues the practice of beauty culture or any of its branches shall on conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not more than ten dollars ($10.00) to be collected by summary conviction as like fines are collected by law and in case of nonpayment of fine to undergo an imprisonment for a period not to exceed more than ten (10) days Any such person shall have the right of appeal as in other cases of summary conviction

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 7 Except as otherwise herein provided this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HIRSCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the motion. This bill is the product of a lot of time and study on the part of the Hairdressers Association of Pennsylvania, the legitimate schools of Pennsylvania and the Department of Public Instruction. Any man who sends his daughter to a school of beauty culture expects, when she comes out, that she will know something. The only opposition to this bill is the gyp schools who are interested in taking the people's money and not giving them anything for it. The Department of Public Instruction, along with the Hairdressers Association and the legitimate schools, has given a lot of time and thought to this bill. This bill has been prepared to elevate the standards of the profession, and as I said I know that any member who sent his daughter to one of these schools would expect her, upon the completion of the course, to know something about the work or the vocation she was going to pursue. That is what this bill does, it elevates the standards and aims to have these gyp schools come up to the standards of the legitimate schools in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the membership of this House to vote down this motion.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion and now move that House Bill No. 1214, Printer's No. 976, be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was not agreed to.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HIRSCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HIRSCH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have an explanation. Is the House now voting on House Bill No. 1214, Printer's No. 976?

The SPEAKER. That is correct. The House is now voting on House Bill No. 1214, Printer's No. 976.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. VAN SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1155, Printer's No. 806, on page 26 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. VAN SICKLE.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1155, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph one of clause (a) of section forty-one of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-seven) entitled "An act relating to the administration and distribution of the estates of decedents and of minors and of trust estates including the appointment bonds rights powers duties liabilities accounts discharge and removal of executors administrators guardians and trustees herein designated as fiduciaries the administration and distribution of the estates of presumed decedents widow's and children's exemptions debts of decedents rents of real estate as assets for payment thereof the lien thereof sales and mortgages of real estate for the payment hereof judgments and executions therefor and the discharge of real estate from the lien thereof contracts of decedents for the sale or purchase of real estate legacies including legacies charged on land the discharge of residuary estates and of real estate from

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the bill about which we had considerable discussion the other night. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, spoke, you will recall, on the question of mortgage pools and participations. Since that time, as I understand it the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, was mistaken in his construction of the bill. While he said that the bill only prevented investments in participations and in mortgage pools, where restricted under the will of a testator or under the terms of a trust agreement, I am now given to understand by eminent authority that the amendments which were placed in this bill by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, would preclude the mortgage pools and participations.

We have just passed Bill No. 1020, which provides for mortgage pools and participations and have surrounded it with certain restrictions to avoid the difficulties which have been encountered in the past. I am amazed at the gentleman calling up the bill in its present shape. The bill without the amendments of the gentleman from Philadelphia is a perfectly good bill. That is the way in which it was submitted by the Department of Banking, that is the way in which it was intended that this bill should pass the Legislature, but the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, being opposed to mortgage pools and participations placed in the bill amendments which would restrict and would eventually prohibit mortgage pools and participations.

I do not care to take the time of the House to repeat the arguments which the gentleman from Philadelphia and I used the other day, but it is perfectly apparent, I think, to those of us who live in the districts where we have small funds to invest, where the trust companies are often in difficulties to find investments for small estates and for funds for minors where there is a guardianship, that it would place an undue hardship upon the small estate and upon those estates of minors where it is necessary to keep the funds invested, even though the return be a very small return, to help defray the expenses of the minor. Perhaps you laymen of the House did not know that very often where there is a guardianship, it is necessary for the guardian to go into court and to ask the court for leave to expend some of the principal, and any penny that can be gained or earned by investment conserves the principal just that much. It often happens, as I have seen in many estates where I have represented the minors and the guardian of some trust company, that we have from two to three thousand dollars and we find that we have three or four minors and it is very difficult to invest those funds.

I think the gentlemen who are the sponsors of this bill should have offered amendments, taking out the amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia and the bill would then have been in proper form to be passed. As the bill now stands it is not in proper form to be passed.

I do not want to oppose this bill. I would like to see the bill passed because it has many other good features. I, therefore, would like to see the bill placed on the postponed calendar.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, seventy-five members having voted in the affirmative and fifty-six in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

STATEMENT BY MR. OSTROFF

Mr. OSTROFF asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have just put on the postponed calendar a bill which is intended to regulate mortgage pools and participation certificates. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blank, very ably pointed out the other day the perils that surround the investment by small investors and small trust estates in this type of investment. The bill as amended was one which would help this type of industry, and I fail to understand why the House did not pass the bill as amended. This Bill No. 1155 as amended was intended to prevent fiduciaries from investing in mortgage participation certificates, and there are many reasons why that should be done. Usually this type of mortgage is a large mortgage or a group of assorted mortgages. If it is one mortgage it is usually some type of large office property which certainly is not the type of investment that should be placed in small estates, as there is usually very little income from such investments, and where the estate has to take over the building on mortgage after foreclosure, the cost of settlement and final action, legal expenses and so forth usually absorb the income. The question of proper investment of funds held in a fiduciary capacity is a very important one. For many years it has been the practice of many banks and trust companies as well as individual fiduciaries in the Commonwealth to invest trust funds in their control in participations in pools or funds of mortgages held by such institutions as trustees or otherwise.

At the present time under the jurisdiction of the Banking Department trust funds in this Commonwealth are invested in participations in mortgages to the extent approximately of two hundred seventeen million dollars, and in pools and funds thereof in the additional amount of approximately one hundred ninety-eight million dollars.

These figures as of November 6, 1936. House Bill No. 1020 was passed today, and House Bill No. 1155 has just been placed on the postponed calendar. One of these bills prohibits entirely all investments of trust moneys in participations, in pools or funds of mortgages, and another bill, continuing the authorization to make such investments, but setting up an intricate and complicated system of regulation of bank and trust companies and trust companies and then the making of such investments.

There is no unanimity of opinion upon this important question among those interested in the broad question of authorized investments of trust funds, clashing views in respect to which have been expressed within the past several weeks. It has not been established conclusively whether the past abuses involving such investments, particularly losses caused thereby and delays and distributions of cash to those entitled thereto, have resulted from innate weaknesses in such securities as trust investments from lack of, or improper statuary regulation of such investments or from conditions incident to the recent serious depression in real estate values, or from any combination of such causes. It has been submitted that prohibition of investment of trust funds in participations in mortgages and in pools or funds thereof would detrimentally affect the proper handling of trust funds resulting in a diminution of income to those dependent thereupon and would seriously affect the financing of real estate construction both residential and commercial. It is of vital importance that this House have full knowledge of the facts and conditions with reference to such investments before any measures are enacted either for the further regulation of such investments or for the prohibition thereof. The Department of Banking is equipped to make such an investigation as will make available to the House the data essential to a full consideration of the grave questions involved.

Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution asking the Department of Banking to make such an investigation, that it be directed to make an investigation of the investments for trust funds and other funds held in a fiduciary capacity by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians or other fiduciaries insofar as the same shall pertain to undivided interests in mortgages, undivided interests in other securities, undivided interests in pools or funds of mortgages.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TUMELTY. What is the business of the House at the present time, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman was given unanimous consent of the House to make a statement.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman offer a resolution now that we are under third reading when he is given unanimous consent to make a statement?

The SPEAKER. A resolution can be filed with the Clerk at any time.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is reading a resolution that he is offering.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order in doing so, and the Chair so rules.

Mr. OSTROFF. Mr. Speaker, I have been given unanimous consent of the House to make a statement, and I am making that statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has no right to read a resolution under the rules governing consent to make a statement. The gentleman can make a statement, but any resolution to be considered by the House will be ruled out of order at this time.

Mr. OSTROFF. Mr. Speaker, I am not offering a resolution at this time. I intend to offer one at the conclusion of my remarks.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will complete his remarks but will not read the resolution he expects to offer to the House.

Mr. OSTROFF. Mr. Speaker, I wish further that this House would ask the Department of Banking to prepare a report to be submitted to this House embodying such inclinations as is necessary for the proper consideration of the question which I have discussed, and that the Department of Banking submit with such report recommendations concerning this problem so that such funds can be intelligently invested, so that the funds of minors will not be imperiled as they have been in the past with questionable investments and participations which were shaky at the best.

RESOLUTION

Mr. OSTROFF offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2119, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the payment of claims charges court costs and other expenses against the Commonwealth for the erection and construction of a reservoir at the State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy Pennsylvania

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Oredered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1563, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Revenue to defray the expenses of investigation and litigation in the Estate of Henrietta E. Garrett deceased

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides for an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars for attorneys' fees in the Henerietta E. Garrett estate. I opposed this bill in the Committee on Appropriations and I am still opposed to it on the ground that the amount to be appropriated is excessive. We have deputy attorney-generals who are employed by the Commonwealth at salaries ranging up to seventy-five hundred dollars a year who give almost their entire time to that work during the year. I understand that in the Garrett estate we are employing as high as three attorneys in Philadelphia and the Orphans Court has appointed two attorneys to sit with the master in the case to take testimony. The Orphans Court will have to pass upon the questions. In addition, there is a claim of escheat and there are attorneys representing those claimants whose interest is coincident with the Commonwealth's. It, therefore, seems to me that the amount of money which is here being expended is excessive. I think no one would be more willing than I to agree that an attorney is worthy of his hire and should be paid and adequate fee, but in comparison with other fees being paid by the Commonwealth and under the circumstances that exist, I think the appropriation is excessive and that the bill should be voted down.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as the gentleman from Deleware has indicated, appropriates fifty thousand dollars, but not, as the gentleman has also indicated, solely for fees. It covers all the necessary expenses of experts, scientists, examiners, statisticians, clerks, stenographers and other assistants and employes, including telegraph and telephone charges and all other expenses and costs attending such litigation.

I might call the attention of the gentleman from Delaware to the fact that this litigation has been and will be in process before the court and masters for some time; there is no doubt that it will continue so to be. We all remember certain litigation resulting in connection with the Dorrance estate in which for fees alone the sum of fifty thousand dollars was expanded or paid by the Commonwealth for employment of one attorney. In this matter there are two counsel representing the Commonwealth.

This item could probably or possibly be appropriated to the Department of Justice, and it also could be appropriated to the Department of Revenue and embodied in the general appropriation bill. However, in this case we felt that all the expenses pertaining to the Garrett estate should appear in a special bill and as an individual item. The Attorney General did not feel that the expenses should be borne entirely by the Department of Justice, neither did the Department of Revenue feel that they should be borne in their entirety by the department. It is their thought that this appropriation should be carried as a separate and distinct item, payable to the Department of Revenue for the specific purpose of defraying expenses in the Garrett estate litigation.

The whereas clause indicates that there is some sixteen million dollars which may possibly escheat to the Commonwealth upon the successful termination of this litigation. It is not exorbitant by any means that fifty thousand dollars should be expended by the Commonwealth in an effort to protect its very vital interest in this litigation, and I ask the House to support this measure.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have just one correction to make about one part of the statement made by the gentleman from York. In the Dorrance estate, to which he referred, the fee of the attorney was contigent upon his winning the case. He got seventeen millions and received a fee, as I recall it, of fifty thousand dollars. If the gentleman make it a contingent fee in this case it might be a different proposition.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I might call attention to the fact that I happen to know the gentleman who represented the Commonwealth in that litigation very intimately, and he was sore at the Pinchot Administration because he did not think he got paid enough.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1976, entitled:

An Act requiring registration of all aircraft and airmen using the civil airways and air navigation facilities within the Commonwealth providing for the application and requirements for registration and the issue of certificates naming the Secretary of Revenue as agent for service of process authorizing the adoption of regulations by and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue and providing for fees exemptions penalties and the jurisdiction of the courts over violators

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Aeronautics for the purpose of a public hearing.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there was an understanding on this bill that there was to be a public hearing given to the people interested in the Senate. There was a group up here last evening. I took them over and introduced them to the Senator who is the Chairman of the Committee on Aeronautics and it was agreed to give them a public hearing over there. Whether this is a good bill or not, we cannot discuss under this motion. However, it is one of those bills that has to start something, and I believe we ought to pass it and send it over to the Senate and have the public hearing over there, because if we give them a public hearing in the House they will also want a public hearing over in the Senate. I suggest that we pass it now and let it go over to the Senate and let them present their case over there.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, fifty-two members having voted in the affirmative and one hundred thirty-one members in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I regret deeply that the members of the House do not see their way clear to recommit this bill because I feel confident that if there had been a hearing on this bill there would have been no necessity to attempt to pass it.

In 1927, I think it was, I wrote the first Legislation in Pennsylvania on aeronautics, and in 1929 was created the first Aeronautics Code in Pennsylvania, and I think the most comprehensive code known in Pennsylvania and I think the most comprehensive code that had been enacted up to that time by any state. At that time we made provision for the licensing of airplanes and pilots because there was some question on intra-state flying, because intra-state flying applied to the stunters. This bill may seem to some members of the House as being a rather unimportant bill, but it is very important bill to a great number of men in this State who are interested in aviation.

As I said to you, under the Code of 1929, as I recall it, we provided for the licensing of airplanes and pilots because there was at that time quite a little barnstorming or stunt flying or circus flying in the State of Pennsylvania, which was purely intra-state flying. Under the provisions of that code we provided that a license from the Federal Department of Commerce was sufficient to secure a license in Pennsylvania. Perhaps the average member of this House does not know that the Federal Government, under the Department of Commerce, licenses airplanes and pilots, and because of the very character of the industry and of the sport, if you want to put it that way,—perhaps at the very use of a plane, intra-state flying is practically unknown. No man who wants to fly wants to be bound by the confines of the State of Pennsylvania. It is almost impossible at times to tell whether he is in one state or another, and therefore it becomes essential for him to have a Department of Commerce or Federal license. In 1933 or 1935, I have forgotten which exactly, the Aeronautics Committee of this House at the request of those interested in aviation, repealed this previous act requiring licensing in the State of Pennsylvania, under the very logical and proper understanding that licensing by the Federal Government was sufficient. Now, we are taking a step backward in this act; we are going back to the early stages when we thought it was necessary, and we are placing an undue and unfair burden upon the aviation industry which we should be encouraging. Up until 1931 or 1932 aviation had made great strides and it has made great strides since that time, but as an industry it needs every encouragement that we can possibly give it. The men who themselves fly these planes, the men who own them and are conducting flying for commercial purposes need every bit of encouragement that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can give them, and I am proud to say that Pennsylvania in the laws it has had is in the forefront in its assistance to aviation.

I can recall in 1929 I had the privilege of flying in the first air and rail transportation line that was instituted at that time, and I remember it was thought at that time that there would never be flying east of Columbus, Ohio because of the conditions existing in the Allegheny Mountains and the fact that those mountains were known as the graveyard of aviation, and yet through the impetus of our laws of Pennsylvania, through the impetus of the interest that we had created in Pennsylvania, through the fact that we had appropriated money to be expended in the ways of airways and navigation facilities, through the cooperation of the Federal government it was only a couple of years until air roads were established across Pennsylvania, and you can fly through from California to Camden Airport outside of Philadelphia or to Newark outside of New York. Now, if we are going to take a step backward in this State; if the State of Pennsylvania is going to require the pilot of every plane to be licensed in Pennsylvania, while the actual money burden is not very great, it does impose a burden on the industry that it is unnecessary to impose on those who are engaged in flying. In addition to that under this bill it is required that the licenses have begun by the Department of Revenue. It will require the establishment of an additional bureau in the Department of Revenue for the licensing of airplanes and pilots. What is the sense, what is the reason, what is the justification for our now passing an act to duplicate a service which the Federal government supplies, and which is absolutely necessary for the operation of this industry? Therefore I had hoped that this bill would be returned to the committtee with the expectation of those who are interested,—because there are some twelve or sixteen hundred pilots in Pennsylvania who will be interested, there are some commercial lines that are interested, there are some sportsmen's clubs that are interested,—all of these groups are interested in the passage of this bill, and they sought to gain a hearing in the House. They did not obtain a hearing in the House and now the statement is made that we should pass the bill and let it go to the Senate.

I am one of those who are willing in my small way to contribute something to the expansion of an industry that I think in a few years will take its place among the important industries, that once we are out of this depression, once we have set our course toward the future, this is an industry that will expand so rapidly that the development of the automobile industry will seem insignificant by comparison with the advances made by aviation. The men who are in this industry, the men who fly these planes, deserve every bit of credit that we can give to them. They are the pioneers. Many of them have risked their lives in planes that were antiquated many of them have risked their lives in order to make experiments, many of them have given of their time and money unselfishly. I know from contact with these men that they are giving of their time and money unselfishly to the development of a great industry and in order that the people of Pennsylvania may have the advantage of aviation, but not only from that view point, but also through looking at it in a broader sense, that it is a defense measure and will keep America abreast of the times in the air, and they believe that through their expenditure of their time and their money, their contribution to what may come in the future may serve their country and that in time of need America may not be found wanting. I hope the time will never come that America will have to defend its shores.

In the passage of this bill therefore you are striking at the men in this industry when they unanimously protest, when they come here and say, "Do not place this additional burden upon us." I do not think we should say to them, "Go to the Senate and take a chance on what they will do," but I think that we here in this House should answer their request and grant them a hearing. If there were no licensing by the Federal government, and if there were no requirement that these airplanes and pilots should be licensed by the Department of Revenue I would not raise my voice here, but I believe protection for the public and protection for the individual who wants to fly from point to point should be given, but as long as we do have adequate service and as long as the Federal Department of Commerce has adequate facilities for licensing these airplanes and pilots there is absolutely no reason for this legislation unless there is hope in the mind of some individual that he can build up some department for his own aggrandizement at some time in the future in licensing airplanes and pilots.

In this case I will depart from my usual request. I do not ask you to vote "no" but I plead with you men that you do not understand how far this will go. I plead with you to not take a backward step, but to keep Pennsylvania in the forefront of aviation.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hope that the gentleman from Delaware will not think that I am looking for any self aggrandizement or to promote myself as the founder of a bureau for licensing air pilots and aircraft in this State, because I happen to be one of those aviation enthusiasts who likes to read about it and not do any flying.

I think the gentleman is unduly perturbed as to the effect upon the industry of this bill. The license fee, as I understood the bill,—and I admit that I did not write the bill or have anything to do with the writing of it,—is $2.00 for an airman and five cents for each horsepower or fractional part thereof for the aircraft.

Now, I submit to you members of the House, that that is hardly an unbearable burden upon any industry which pretends to be an industry, and I will also say that although the remarks of the gentleman might have been applicable years ago in the automobile industry in this State or any other state, I do not think they are applicable today. As I say I am not an authority on aviation, but those who are authorities on aviation, some of them seem to think that within the next ten years the strides of the industry will be far beyond anything that we can now comprehend, and if so, now is the time for this Commonwealth to establish a system of licensure and a system of protection for the public.

I therefore ask, in view of these facts, that the membership vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman could not have better voiced the opinions which I held in 1927 and 1929. We were in the period of the beginning of a great industry, and like the automobile, though it would have to be licensed. The gentleman said that his interest is not as a flyer or as one engaged in the industry but as one who reads about it.

My contact with the industry during the period following the beginning of our law in Pennsylvania, however, led me to believe that it was wise to give up the licensing of the airplane and the pilot in Pennsylvania. The gentleman would be perfectly correct, as I said before, were it not that the Federal government is already licensing airplanes and pilots. No pilot is going to be confined to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and while the amount involved in dollars and cents is not very great, as he said, at the same time it is an added tax in the first instance, and in the second instance it places a dual burden upon the industry to secure the licenses. The Federal government is adequately covering the field. The Federal government requires the licensing of planes and pilots. No plane and no pilot would be content with a purely State license. By the very nature of things his horizon, his scope is so wide that he must have a Federal license. It therefore has no justification, and even if the expense is twenty-five cents or fifty cents, the question is not the amount of expense, but the question is whether government should enter into regulations, that we have so much regulation; we have no right, no justification to seize upon the regulation by the government unless there is a fundamentally sound reason why regulation is necessary. Regulation is not necessary here, and therefore we should defeat this bill.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1636, entitled:

An Act to amend section six hundred one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1001) entitled "An act providing for the regulation of aeronautics within this Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue in respect thereto providing for the licensing and registration of airman and aircraft establishing the legal status of air navigation providing for sovereignty in and ownership of space providing for lawfulness of flights regulating civil causes of action arising out of operation of aircraft fixing the status of contracts crimes and torts in by or by means of operation of aircraft imposing duties upon officers burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and clerks thereof providing for denial or revocation of licenses providing for certain penalties and their disposition and repealing certain existing laws" by prohibiting the carrying of passengers under the influence of liquor or drugs in aircraft and extending certain penalties to owners of aircraft

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that we are now on House Bill No. 1636.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. My understanding was, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, placed this bill on the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. That is correct, after which he moved to reconsider the vote by which it was placed on the postponed calendar which motion was agreed to.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHEPARD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether he will not place this bill on the postponed calendar, in view of the fact that it deals with the same subject as No. 373, and No. 373, in my humble opinion, if I may say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, is a far better bill than 1636. No. 373 has been passed by this House, and deals with municipal authorities. It is a Senate bill, and therefore it would seem to me there is nothing to be gained by passing 1636 at this time.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I might say in reply to the gentleman from Delaware that if he will read that bill he will find that this is an entirely different bill that it deals with alcoholic beverages and intoxicated persons up in airplanes, and if he will come down out of the air and read this bill he will find that to be true.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I apologize to the gentleman from Philadelphia. I have no objections to the bill.

Mr. Speaker, I am sorry to place the Chair in this position, but may I again interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, on page 3 of the bill, if the gentleman will get the bill, Printer's No. 890, possibly I have difficulty in remembering what is in the bill—on page 3 of the bill, section (g) it says: "To operate or navigate any aircraft within this Commonewalth unless such aircraft has been licensed and registered in accordance with the provisions of this act and unless the operator thereof has been licensed in accordance with the provisions of this act. Provided further That the owner of any aircraft operated in violation of any of the provisions of this act shall also be subject to the penalties provided in this section."

We have just defeated a bill which provided for the licensing of aircraft and pilots. I am in perfect accord with the gentleman in his provision as to the penalty for carrying passengers who are under the influence of narcotics or intoxicating liquor, but section (g), it seems to me, is entirely in conflict with the actions of this House. I therefore ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether he will not place this bill upon the postponed calendar until we can straighten out the bill.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would again ask the gentleman to come down out of the air and not be quite so air-minded, and read the bill, and I do not discover that the bill provides for licensing under the Federal bureau and not the State bureau.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman where I can find that.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman will find that on page 3, section (b).

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, maybe I am a little bit in the air, but I think the gentleman from Philadelphia will have to get his feet off the ground. Under section (b) it says: "To operate or navigate aircraft while in possession of any Federal license or to display or cause or permit to be displayed such license knowing the same to have been cancelled revoked suspended or altered." That does not say that the Federal license is permissive. It says that "it shall be unlawful for any persons to commit any of the following acts"—it's worse than I thought it was. This says that it is an offense to have a Federal license. How can you do that?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, how can you do what?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, how are you going to prohibit anybody from operating—

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, who is interrogating whom?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable to determine and reserves his decision.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, it is pretty hard to tell, when you are dealing with intoxicating liquors and air-minded people, all in the same bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I might say that I admit that I might know something about intoxicating liquors, but nothing about air-minded people.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will turn to page 2, under section 601 he will see that it is provided there for Federal license.

Mr. TURNER. No, but it says section No. 601, let me read it to you, and to Mr. Cohen also: "It shall be unlawful for any person to commit any of the following acts"—and the first one deals with the subject of intoxicating liquor. The second one says, "It shall be unlawful to operate or navigate aircraft while in possession of any Federal license or to display or cause or permit to be displayed such license knowing the same to have been cancelled, revoked, suspended or altered." That second part is all right, but it does not say that you have got to have a Federal license at all in Pennsylvania. That says simply that it is a crime to have one.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I yield to my counsel, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia yields to his counsel, Mr. Cohen. The Chair recognizes his counsel, Mr. Cohen. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from York to yield a moment if he cannot do any better in direct examination than he did as an assistant in the examination. He won't get very far.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Delaware I wish to call to his attention the fact that this deals with section 601 of the act. By inference the gentleman from Delaware should be able to determine that this act in its entirety has more than one section, and the provisions relevant to obtaining a Federal license in order to fly aircraft is contained in the sections that are not printed, since this act only amends section 601, as the gentleman from Delaware well knows, it is not necessary to print the act in its entirety, and those sections relative to pilots and aircraft and relative to licenses from the Federal government are not printed in the bill. This bill only amends section 601, which sets up some of the penalties for violation of the act. These provisions relative to Federal aircraft license which he objects to in section (b) can be seen in other sections of the act not here imprinted. Does that answer the question of the gentleman from Delaware on direct examination and on cross examination?

Mr. TURNER. While I think that the explanation of the gentleman from York is, as always, very plausible, it does have this amendment to section 601: "To operate or navigate any aircraft within this Commonwealth unless such aircraft has been licensed and registered according with the provisions of this act." Now, I am unable to tell from the details of this act whether the gentleman is amending the act of 1933, and whether under that it is the old provision by which airplanes and pilots were licensed in Pennsylvania, or whether it is the act which provides that airplanes and pilots shall not have to be licensed in Pennsylvania. So again I say that I would ask that the bill be placed upon the postponed calendar and give us a chance until tomorrow morning to determine the facts. I have no desire to delay the bill, in which the gentleman from Philadelphia is so much interested. It has some perfectly good provisions in it, and I am in accord with them, but I do want to protect this question of licensing.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I see no reason why this bill should be placed upon the postponed calendar. I would readily agree to having this bill go over in its order pending an opportunity on the part of the gentleman from Delaware to read in its entirety the act of the 25th day of May, 1933. If I remember correctly, in that session the gentleman from Delaware was quite instrumental in passing that act, and I dare say that since he is such a student of aircraft, he should have known that act in toto and by heart. However, I will ask that this bill be passed over until the gentleman from Delaware has an opportunity to read the pamphlet laws of that particular session.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and the bill will be passed over. It has passed third reading and will appear on the final passage calendar tomorrow unless called up today.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 756, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty three (Pamphlet Laws 89) entitled "An act granting authority to the Courts of Common Pleas in the several counties of this Commonwealth to issue writs of estrepement to stay waste upon lands sold for taxes during the time provided for redemption" by extending the provisions thereof to seated lands sold by county treasurers and to lands sold at sheriffs sales under tax or municipal claims.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2205, (Senate Bill No. 894), entitled:

An Act to ratify and adopt a compact or agreement negotiated by commissioners designated by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and commissioners designated by the Governor of the State of Ohio, relative to the development, use and control of the Pymatuning Lake and the State owned land surrounding said lake for fishing, hunting, recreational and park purposes.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LaRUE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend page 6, line 18 of the preamble, by striking out after the word "lake" and before the word "(except" the following: "'between the low water marks)"

Amend page 8, line 5 of the preamble, by striking out at the beginning of the line the word: "northwest" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "southeast"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2120, (Senate Bill No. 99), entitled:

An Act to amend sections thirty-two and thirty-eight of the act approved the nineteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 543) entitled, as amended, "An act relating to the sale of goods and choses in action," by providing for the negotiation of documents of title.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. OSTROFF. RESOLUTION No. 89.

In the House of Representatives, May 18, 1937.

Whereas, the questions of proper investments for funds held in a fiduciary capacity, viz., funds held by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, and other fiduciaries (hereinafter referred to as "trust funds"), and the regulation of corporate institutions in making such investments, are questions of grave consequence to the citizens of this Commonwealth, including in particular widows, orphans, and others dependent for their support upon income derived from trust funds; and

Whereas, for many years it has been the practice of many banks and trust companies and trust companies, as well as individual fiduciaries, in this Commonwealth to invest trust funds in their control in participations in mortgages held by such institutions as trustees or otherwise; and

Whereas, for many years it has been the practice of such institutions and individual fiduciaries to invest trust funds in their control in participations in pools or funds of mortgages held by such institutions as trustees or otherwise; and

Whereas, at the present time trust funds in this Commonwealth are invested in participations in mortgages to the extent of approximately $217,000,000 and in pools or funds thereof in the additional amount of approximately $198,000,000 as of November 6, 1936; and

Whereas, there are now pending before the House of Representatives several bills respecting such investments, reaching diametrically opposite results, for example, one bill prohibiting entirely all investments of trust moneys in participations in pools or funds of mortgages, and another bill, continuing the authorization to make such investments, but setting up an intricate and complicated system of regulation of bank and trust companies and trust companies in the making of such investments; and

Whereas, there is no unanimity of opinion upon this important question among those interested in the broad question of authorized investments of trust funds, clashing views in respect to which have been expressed within the past several weeks; and

Whereas, it has not been established conclusively whether the past abuses involving such investments, particularly losses caused thereby and delays in distributions of cash to those entitled thereto, have resulted from innate weaknesses in such securities as trust investments, from lack of, or improper statutory regulation of such investments, or from conditions incident to the recent serious depression in real estate values, or from any combination of such causes; and

Whereas, it has been submitted that prohibition of investment of trust funds in participations in mortgages and in pools or funds thereof would detrimentally affect the proper handling of trust funds, resulting in a diminution of income to those dependent thereupon, and would seriously affect the financing of real estate constructions, both residential and commercial; and

Whereas, it is of vital importance that this House have full knowledge of the facts and conditions with reference to such investments before any measures are enacted either for the further regulation of such investments or for the prohibition thereof; and

Whereas, the Department of Banking is charged with the supervision of institutions engaging in fiduciary relationships, viz., bank and trust companies and trust companies, and is peculiarly fitted, by possession of data concerning such investments, as well as knowledge of the practices and procedure in vogue in the past in respect to such investments, to conduct such an investigation as will make available to this House the data essential to a full consideration of the grave questions involved:

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Department of Banking of the Commonwealth, be and it is hereby directed to make a study of the field of investments for trust funds and other funds held in a fiduciary capacity, viz., funds held by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, or other fiduciaries insofar as the same shall pertain to

(1) undivided interests in mortgages;

(2) undivided interests in other securities;

(3) undivided interests in pools or funds of mortgages;

(4) undivided interest in pools or funds of other securities;

(5) undivided interests in pools or funds of mortgages and other securities; and of the administration of such investments by bank and trust companies and trust companies in this Commonwealth; and

Resolved, That the Department of Banking of the Commonwealth prepare a report, to be submitted to the House of Representatives of the next regular session of the General Assembly, embodying such information as is necessary to the proper consideration of these questions in the light of the preamble of this Resolution, as well as other questions pertinent thereto; and

Resolved, Tha the Department of Banking submit with such report its recommendations in the premises; and

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Department of Banking.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

STATEMENT BY MR. REISING

Mr. REISING asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the interest of a public need and in the interest of fair play and legislative justice, also Mr. Speaker, in consideration of fair play and honesty of the advocates of House Bill No. 255, which has been in the hands of the Committee on State Boards since January 19, 1937, a period of four months, I hereby offer the following resolution.

RESOLUTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. REISING offered a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 18, 1937.

L. 594), entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance, and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act," as amended, by changing certain routes and adding certain new routes.

Mr. OSTROFF, from the Committee on Corporations reported as committed, House Bill No. 2339, (Senate Bill No. 995), entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 364), entitled "An act relating to business corporations; defining and providing for the organization, merger, consolidation, reorganization, winding up and dissolution of such corporations; conferring certain rights, powers duties and immunities upon them and their officers and shareholders; prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers; providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the second class within the provisions of this act; prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign business corporations may be admitted, or may continue, to do business within the Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Courts of Common Pleas, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; authorizing certain State departments, boards, commissions, or officers to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations," providing that certain proceedings by corporations must show that all contributions for unemployment compensation have been paid.

Mr. MURRIN, from the Committee on Highways, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 86, entitled:

An Act to establish as a State highway a certain section of public road in the County of Allegheny and providing for its construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth.

Mr. HINDMAN, from the Committee on Boroughs, re-reported as amended, House Bill No. 270, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," regulating and limiting the use of revenues derived from the operation of water-works.

Mr. TURNER from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed the following resolution which was read by the Clerk:

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 12, 1937.

Whereas, There is a National Movement to name a trans-continental highway as the Grand Army of the Republic Highway, and

Whereas, Several other states have already designated in their states such a highway which connects up with United States Route Number six in Pennsylvania, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) that the General Assembly requests the Secretary of Highways in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by law to change the name of the highway known as United States Route Number six to the Grand Army of the Republic Highway.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Secretary of Highways by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clrek inform the Senate accordingly.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. WESTRICK asked and obtained leave of absence for himself for the remainder of the week on account of illness in the family.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The first and final game of the great series between the Freelancers and Shackled men of the House will be played on Tuesday, May 25, 1937. The scene of battle has not yet been definitely selected, but notice will be posted in due time. Candidates will report to Rep. Bohn and O'Keefe, respective chairmen of the warring factions. If there is sufficient demand, the clowns will have a chance to do themselves proud in a separate encounter.

Since the news of the great game first leaked out from Speaker Furman over the loud speaker system, reports have been sent in to your correspondent from all over the State.

It is reliable reported that "Babe" McElroy, the heavy hitting short-stop of the Freelancer's team, will be laid up for the next three weeks, due to over exertion in practicing for the game. He was going strong with his swinging of a pullman car door, when a husband espied his flushed face and sent the Babe scurrying home.

"Mordecal" Moran, the Pittsburgh red-head, has been taking daily work-outs at the Senate Hotel. He reports that his arm is in fine shape, and that his famed "Carnegie" curve is breaking sharply.

"Hippo" Turner reports that his weight is down to 314¼. He states that he dropped 50 pounds during his terrific debates on the floor. He and "Shanty" Alexander, who caught everything that Brother Simpson threw at him in the shoe-string district recently, having been working out together on the road between the Bolton and the Penn-Harris.

"Pop" Schor reports that he took a little practice between milk bottles during the past week.

"Slim" McGee, who has been batting around "1000" during the past few months, predicts that he will be at his best for the fray, provided his eyes are open.

Charley "Jack Doyle" Melchiorre, famed betting commissioner, is laying odds that either one team or the other will probably win. The present quotation is 3¼ to½, with no takers.

Joe "Legs" Bradley will donate one pulmotor or inhalator for the first man to hit a home run.

High Commissioner David L. Lawrence has appointed the Mesdames Horting and Brancato as umpires. The teams are to be reminded that they have the eternal prerogative to settle all disputes in the ancient and honorable manner of pulling hair, etc. etc. etc. The first assistant umpire to call strrrrrikes will be Jerry Jirrrrrrolanio.

Pee Wee Wagner, the mity centre fielder, who starred in the old Three Eye Leagu in 1883, will be out there coaching at second base for the Shackled men.

"Judge" Welliver, will make the presentation address to the winning team, as the sun kisses the hill tops of Dauphin County.
